Mrs. C. M. Jefcoat et al -vs- Miss Mary Jefcoat, non compos mentis.

Final Decree

This cause coming on for hearing on the duly and legally verified petition of Mrs. C. M. Jefcoat, E. G. Jefcoat, Bailey Jefcoat, and Anne Jefcoat, C. Q. Jefcoat and Ethel Jefcoat, all resident citizens of the State of Tennessee, and Missouri E. Putman, a resident citizen of Madison County, Mississippi, who are the complainants in said cause, personal service of summons on the Defendant in lieu of publication, and on testimony to be taken in open Court; and it appearing to the Court that the said Petitioners together with Miss Mary Jefcoat, non compos mentis, who is the defendant in this cause, are the sole owners of the lands hereinafter in this decree set out; and whereas, it appears from said petition that the interest of the said Miss Mary Jefcoat in said lands herein later to be described as aforesaid is a $\frac{3}{32}$ interest; and whereas it appears to the Court further from said petition that all of the aforesaid parties, both complainant and defendant, have received a proposition for the purchase of said tract of land from one R. E. Cotton, a citizen of Madison County, Mississippi; and whereas it appears to the Court that, according to said petition there now exists a mortgage or deed of trust against said lands due C. V. Maxwell amounting to \$300.50; and that the said Cotton has agreed to assume that indebtedness against the said land and in addition thereto to pay to the complainants and defendants the total sum of \$849.50, which is a total payment to be made for the whole tract of land of \$1650.00; and whereas it appears that the interest of the said Miss Mary Jefcoat in the said \$849.50 amounts to \$79.65, or a three thirty second of said sum of \$849.50; and whereas it appears from said petition that all of said Complainants, who are adults, state that the sum offered for said lands is a fair and reasonable value for the same; that it is to the very best interest of the said non compos mentis, Miss Mary Jefcoat the defendant, that this Court should authorize her interest in the said lands hereinafter described to be sold to the said R. E. Cotton, for the amount named above; and whereas it appears to the court that the said complainants have recommended and petitioned this court to authorize said sale of said defendant's interest, and assert that such action is for her best interest; and whereas it appears to the Court from evidence adduced and heard in open court in this matter and in the premises that the amount offered by the said R. is a fair and reasonable amount and value to be paid for said lands; and whereas it appears to the Court that service of summons, in lieu of publication has been had upon the said defendant, Miss Mary Jefcoat, in the manner and for the duration of time as required by the Statutes of the State of Mississippi; and whereas the Court is now of the opinion that it is to the best interest of the said Miss Mary Jefcoat that her interest in said lands should be sold for the sum of \$79.65 as aforesaid to the said R. E. Cotton;

It is therefore ordered by the Court that the Clerk of this Court, on payment to her by the said R. E. Cotton of the aforesaid sum of $79.65 for the account of Miss Mary Jefcoat, be authorized and directed to convey by deed to the said R. E. Cotton the 3/32 interest of the said Mary Jefcoat in the lands above described; and that the said Clerk be further directed and authorized to pay said amount over to the mother of the said Miss Mary Jefcoat, non compos mentis, who is Mrs. C. M. Jefcoat; and all of which this Court is authorized to do by virtue of the laws of the State of Mississippi; and more especially by virtue of Sections 1911, 1912 and 1913 Code 1930.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That Whereas Cage Sutherland, hereinafter called Grantors, whether one or more, are indebted to THE FEDERAL LAND BANK OF NEW ORLEANS NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, HEREINAFTER CALLED THE BANK, in the original sum of ($1000.00- $1200.00- $2700.00) Forty nine HUNDRED and no/100 dollars, which indebtedness is secured by a deed of trust recorded in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Madison County, Mississippi, in deed of trust Book ¹⁶⁸ ₂₆₁ Page ¹⁶⁸ ₂₆₁, which said Deed of Trust is endorsed by the Madison NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION: and whereas, default has been made in the payment of certain amounts due under the terms of said deed of trust, thereby subjecting same to foreclosure at the option of said Bank; and

Whereas, the Grantors have requested the Bank to extend the time of payment of said amounts in default and the Bank has agreed to do so until the 1st. day of November, 1936, unless otherwise stated herein, provided the Grantors will execute to the Bank as additional security therefor a lien upon the hereinafter conveyed property, said lien also to secure payment of any and all other indebtedness under said above described deed of trust, which has matured or by its terms will mature on or before the date to which this extension is granted.

NOW, THEREFORE, in condition of the premises, and to further secure the payment of the indebtedness enumerated herein, the Grantors do, by these presents, convey and warrant unto A.K. Foot, Trustee, their entire interest, in whatever form and however constituted, in all crops and/or agricultural products of any kind or variety by whomsoever planted, and/or cultivated and/or harvested, during the year 1936 on the land conveyed by the above deed of trust or mortgage.

Also the following described property:

This is a first lien on the above described property except as follows: Actual furnish account of the grantor not to exceed $1000.00.

It is understood and agreed that this instrument is for the purpose of providing additional security for the above stated indebtedness and its acceptance is not to be considered as a release, alteration or change of any other security therefor, nor a novation of the indebtedness secured hereby, and that this shall in no way affect the right of the Bank to at any time foreclose its deed of trust for any default or breach of condition contained in the deed of trust other than the default in the payment of the items above referred to.

This conveyance is in trust. Should the Grantors pay all of the secured indebtedness above described to THE FEDERAL LAND BANK OF NEW ORLEANS on or before the 1st. day of November, 1936, this conveyance shall be void. In the event of default, at any time thereafter, at the option and the request of THE FEDERAL LAND BANK OF NEW ORLEANS, the Trustee shall take possession of the property conveyed hereby with authority to control and manage it; and, after having published notice of the time, place and terms of the sale, by posting one notice thereof at the Courthouse in the County or Counties in which the property is located at least ten days prior to such sale, shall sell said property, at public auction for cash to the highest bidder therefor. Out of the proceeds of the Trustee shall pay (1) the cost and expense of executing this trust, including the recording fee of this instrument, (2) the amount of unpaid indebtedness secured hereby, the right of application being given to the Bank, and (3) the balance, if any, to the Grantors or to those who may be entitled thereto.

Should any of the property conveyed hereby be, in the opinion of the Trustee, too cumbersome and inconvenient to move, it shall not be necessary to have such property present at the sale.

It is understood and agreed that the extension of the above items for the payment of which this deed of trust is given as additional security, is not complete and binding on the FEDERAL LAND BANK OF NEW ORLEANS until this deed of trust has been approved and accepted by it in writing hereon.

The Bank, its successors or assigns, shall at any time, have full power and authority to appoint a successor or successors to the Trustee designated herein.
