To my mother, Mrs. M. M. IN THE UNION COUNTY PROBATE COURT

IN THE MATTER OF THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF BEAUREGARD COBB, DECEASED.

ORDER OF PROBATE

ON THIS THE 21st day of November, 1947, comes on to be heard in open Court the sworn application of Florence Bradshaw for the probate of a certain instrument in writing now produced in Court, being filed herein with said application, on the 21st day of November, 1947, purporting and alleged to be the Last Will and Testament of Beauregard Cobb, deceased; and it appearing by the unimpeachable evidence of two disinterested witnesses, to-wit: Homer T. Rogers and Virginia Burns, that said instrument was witnessed by them in the presence of the said Beauregard Cobb, that the same was signed by the said Beauregard Cobb in their presence and that they witnessed the same at his request, and the Court being satisfied upon the consideration of said application and proof and the record herein that the testator Beauregard Cobb, at the time of executing said Will was at least 21 years of age, of a sound mind died on the 11th day of November, 1947 in Union County, Arkansas, and at the time of his death he was a resident of said County. And the evidence, a statement of which is filed in this Court as required by law, being heard and fully considered, the Court finds that the said instrument is the Last Will and Testament of the said Beauregard Cobb, deceased and was executed with the formalities and solemnities and under the circumstances required by law to make it a valid Will and that the same has not been revoked by the said Testator, and it further appearing that the said applicant, Beaurgard Cobb, was named in said Will as Executrix and that she is entitled by law to letters testamentary and is not disqualified by law from accepting such letters and that there is a necessity for administration upon said estate and that said Will provides that said executrix act as such without bond.

IT IS, THEREFORE, CONSIDERED, ORDERED, AND ADJUDGED that said instrument be, and the same is, hereby admitted to probate and record as the Last Will and Testament of the said Beaurgard Cobb, deceased, and that the said testimony of the witnesses above named shall be recorded in the minutes of this Court; and it is further ordered and adjudged that administration be granted upon the estate of Beaurgard Cobb, deceased, and the said Florence Bradshaw applicant herein, receive letters testamentary upon her taking the oath required by law; and that the said executrix be not required to make any bond as such executrix and when the said executrix shall have so qualified, the Clerk of this Court will issue letters in accordance with the order and judgment.

I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate and property, real, personal and mixed as follows:

1. It is my will - and I so direct - that all of my just debts, including doctor's bills and funeral expenses, be paid as speedily as possible.

2. After the above payments, I will and bequeath thirty five per cent of all of my property to the Baptist Foundation at Jackson, Mississippi, as a memorial to Victor L. Young and his wife Bobbie S. In no event shall said funds be used for high-school students; but shall be used in all cases for bona fide college students.

3. Should my sister, Eugene M. 4.
