IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF T. J. FARR, DECEASED, IN THE COUNTY COURT OF PUTNAM COUNTY, TENNESSEE

RE: LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF T. J. FARR, DECEASED

On this February 28, 1963, there was presented to the Court at the instance of Lottie Perry (Mrs. T. J.) Farr a certain writing composed of two (2) sheets which purported to be the last will and testament of the said T. J. Farr, who died a resident citizen of Putnam County, Tennessee, on April 30, 1962. It was moved that the Court admit the said instrument and document to probate as the last will and testament of the said T. J. Farr, deceased. The said instrument or document is dated March 8, 1962, and was signed by T. J. Farr on the said day and date as and for his last will and testament and in the presence of and witnessed by E. A. Langford, Elmer Dean Langford and Barbara Sue Allen, all of Cookeville, Tennessee. The said E. A. Langford and Elmer Dean Langford appeared in open Court and testified on oath that the said T. J. Farr signed and executed the said instrument or document on March 8, 1962, and that he did declare the same to be his last will and testament and that he requested the said witnesses to sign as witnesses, and he did sign in their presence, and they did sign as witnesses in his presence and all in the presence of each other, and he did declare the said instrument to be his last will and testament at the time. It is shown to the Court that the said T. J. Farr was more than 21 years of age at the time of the making and executing of said instrument and that he was of sound mind and capable of making his last will and testament. The Court finds that the said instrument is in proper form and is a Testamentary Paper.

It is, therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the said instrument or document dated March 8, 1962, and signed by T. J. Farr and witnessed by E. A. Langford, Elmer Dean Langford and Barbara Sue Allen is the last will and testament of the said T. J. Farr, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate as such. The Clerk is directed and ordered to lodge the said instrument or document in his files and record the same in the Will Book of this Court as the last will and testament of the said T. J. Farr, deceased.

As set out in the said will, it is ordered and decreed that Lottie Perry (Mrs. T. J.) Farr, widow of the said T. J. Farr, shall be executrix of the said will, and she is hereby appointed as such, and Letters Testamentary shall be issued to her upon her making bond as provided by law to guarantee the payment of any inheritance tax that may be due the State of Tennessee. No other bond shall be required, the same having been waived in the will.

All of which is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court, this February 28, 1963.

/sn/ James H. Mosier
COUNTY JUDGE OF PUTNAM COUNTY, TENNESSEE

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

STATE OF TENNESSEE, PUTNAM COUNTY;

ARTICLE III

I direct that all estate, inheritance, transfer, legacy or succession taxes or death duties, which may be imposed or assessed with respect to my estate, or any part thereof wherever situated, whether or not passing under my Will, including the taxable value of all policies of insurance on my life and of all transfers, powers, rights or interests includible in my estate, for the purpose of such taxes and duties, shall, if my wife, CLARA RUBLE HILL, survives me, be paid out of Share #2 of my residuary estate as defined in Article IV, or if my wife predeceases me, be paid out of my residuary estate, and in either event such payment shall be made as an expense of administration and without apportionment.

ARTICLE IV

If my wife, CLARA RUBLE HILL, survives me, my Executor shall divide the residue of my estate into two parts I hereinafter designate as Share #1 and Share #2, each ascertained as follows:

(a) There shall first be determined the value of my gross estate (including property not administered in my estate) for the purpose of Federal estate tax.

(b) There shall be deducted from such value the amount of all funeral and administration expenses, claims against my estate, including unpaid subscriptions at the time of my death, unpaid mortgages upon or any indebtedness in respect to property includible in my gross estate; but there shall not be deducted any estate, inheritance, transfer, legacy or succession taxes or death duties, as referred to in Article III.

(c) Share #1 shall be equal in amount to fifty per cent of the difference so computed, except that an amount equal to the taxable value of the bequests and devises mentioned in Article I of this Will as being given to my wife, CLARA RUBLE HILL, shall be deducted from the amount of Share #1; and, except that if there should be includible in my gross estate for the purpose of the Federal estate tax any interest in property not administered in my estate, which is deemed to pass or to have passed from me to my wife for the purpose of the marital deduction under the Federal estate tax law, an amount equal to the taxable value of such interest shall also be deducted from the amount of Share #1.

(d) Share #2 shall be equal in amount to the balance of my residuary estate after deducting the amount allocated to Share #1.

In allocating my residuary estate between Share #1 and Share #2, if such allocation shall be made in whole or in part in property held by me at the time of my death, such property shall be considered equivalent in amount to the value of such property includible in my gross estate for the purpose of the Federal estate tax; and my Executor, in making such allocation, shall first allot to Share #1 the more liquid and saleable assets of my residuary estate, except as to the items mentioned in Paragraph 1 of this Last Will and Testament. If I should die possessed of any terminable interest which cannot qualify for the marital deduction under the Federal estate tax law, such interest shall be allotted to Share #2; and Share #1 shall be reduced in the amount to the extent that it cannot be composed of qualifying assets. After dividing my residuary estate as hereinabove provided, my Executor shall dispose thereof as hereinafter provided, keeping in mind at all times the disposition of the said items in Article I of this Will.

ARTICLE V

I give, devise and bequeath Share #1 to my Trustee, in trust, to be held, administered and disposed of as follows:

1. Said trust shall be known as the JAMES HILL, JR. TRUST.
2. My Trustee shall pay the entire net income, quarterly or at more frequent intervals to my wife, CLARA RUBLE HILL, for and during her life. The net income shall be deemed to mean all the income from the entire principal of said trust, determined under Section 2056(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, or under the corresponding provisions of U. S. Internal Revenue Code in force at the time of my death.
3. In addition to the payment of income from this trust, my Trustee shall pay to my wife such sums from principal as she may from time to time request in writing. It is my intention that no limitation be placed on my wife as to either the amount of or reasons for such invasions of principal.

4. The Trustee shall pay over the entire principal remaining of the trust upon the death of my wife, or any portion thereof, free of the trust, to such person or persons, public agencies or charitable corporations, educational institutions, or charitable agencies, whether supported by private donations, public taxation, or both, and including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the estate of my said wife, in such portions and in such manner and for such estates as my said wife may by Will designate or appoint, provided that her Will expressly refers to the power herein conferred and states that it is her intention to exercise the same, but not otherwise (it being my intention that no general devise or bequest shall operate as an exercise of the power herein conferred). In disposing of the trust, the Trustee shall be fully protected in relying upon an instrument which shall have been admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the Last Will and Testament of the said Clara Ruble Hill, or in acting upon the assumption that she shall have died intestate in case the Trustee shall have no notice of the existence of a Will of the said Clara Ruble Hill within three (3) months after her death.

5. In the event my said wife dies without exercising the power of appointment hereinabove granted, or without exercising such power in such manner as to completely dispose of the principal of the trust, then upon the death of my said wife the entire remaining principal of said trust shall be added to and become a part of Article VI to be held, administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of my Will governing said trust of Article VI.

6. It is expressly provided that, anything contained in this Will or in any Codicil thereto to the contrary notwithstanding, my Executor and Trustee shall have no power to take any action and no construction shall be placed on any provision of this Will or any Codicil thereto, which may or shall in any way jeopardize or adversely affect the allowance of a marital deduction under Section 2056 of the Internal Revenue Code in determining the Federal estate tax liability of my estate.

ARTICLE VIII

No part of any trust estate created or provided for in or under this my Last Will and Testament, and no part of the income of any such trust shall be alienated, disposed of, or in any manner encumbered by the beneficiaries of such trust, or by any of such beneficiaries, while in possession and control of the trustee of such trust. If by reason of any act of any such beneficiary of any such trust or by operation of law or by the happening of any event or for any other reason except by an act of the trustee of such trust authorized under such trust, or authorized elsewhere in this my Will, any of such income or principal of such trust shall, or except for this provision, would cease to be enjoyed by such beneficiary, or if, by reason of any attempt of any such beneficiary to alienate, charge, or encumber the same, or by reason of the bankruptcy or insolvency of such beneficiary, or because of any attachment, garnishment or other proceeding, or any order, finding, or judgment of a court, either in law or in equity, the same except for this provision would vest in or be enjoyed by some other person, firm or corporation; then the Trustee of such trust may, in its discretion, declare the termination of such trust as to the estate, rights and interest of such beneficiary under such trust shall cease both as to income and principal, and thereafter all such income and principal, during the life of such beneficiary shall be held by the trustee of such trust according to its absolute discretion. shall deem proper. Upon the death of any former beneficiaries as to whom by reason of such declaration under this clause, any such trust shall have ceased and terminated, the entire balance of the principal and any undistributed income of the former share of such beneficiary, not theretofore paid out on the exercise of the aforesaid discretion of the trustee of such trust, shall be distributed to or held for the benefit of the person or persons entitled thereto according to the provisions of such trust relating to the holding or distribution of such share upon the death of such former beneficiary.

ARTICLE IX

I nominate, constitute and appoint my wife, CLARA RUBLE HILL, my brother DAVID B. HILL, and the CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK OF ORLANDO, Orlando, Florida, to be the Executors of this my Last Will and Testament, and I hereby direct that so far as the same may be omitted by law that no bond, security, inventory or appraisalment be required of them as such executors. If my wife, or brother, or either of them shall fail to qualify or shall cease to act as executor, it shall not be necessary to appoint a substitute executor; in any such event the Citizens National Bank of Orlando shall act as sole executor or as co-executor with the remaining named Clara Ruble Hill or David B. Hill, whichever situation is appropriate.

In order to facilitate the administration of my estate I have deposited an inventory of my estate as of the date of this Will with the Citizens National Bank of Orlando, Orlando, Florida, said list is placed there merely to facilitate the administration of my estate and in no way to limit it or the assets which are in it.

ARTICLE X

I nominate, constitute and appoint the CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK OF ORLANDO, Orlando, Florida, Trustee under this my Last Will and Testament. I direct that no Trustee appointed in accordance with these provisions shall be required to furnish any bond or other security in any jurisdiction for the faithful performance of its duties.

ARTICLE XI

Except where herein provided otherwise, the trust created hereby shall be covered by these directions:

1. As authorized by Section 737.05 of the Florida Statutes, or any amendments thereto, or any statutes hereinafter passed referring thereto, I hereby waive notice to all beneficiaries on the hearing on: (a) Determination of the qualification of the Trustee or Trustees, and

(b) The Court assuming jurisdiction of the trust. However, I request the executors to write to each beneficiary at that time, or his or her parent, guardian or custodian, explaining the procedure and supplying each beneficiary, or his or her parent, guardian or custodian with a copy of the petition and the Will.

ARTICLE XII

If my wife and I shall die simultaneously, or under circumstances which make it difficult to determine which of us died first, I direct that my wife shall be deemed to have survived me for the purpose of this Will, and I direct further that the provisions of this Will shall be construed upon the assumption, irrespective of any provisions of law establishing a contrary presumption or requiring survivorship for a fixed period as a condition of taking property by inheritance.

ARTICLE XIII

I give and grant to my Executors and Trustee, and their survivors or survivor, and their successor or successors, the following powers which shall be construed broadly and which may be exercised by them in either or both capacities, as in their discretion they may deem advisable, and in certain paragraphs where I refer to only one of them I intend said powers to extend to both executors and trustee, in addition to and not in limitation of their common law and statutory powers:

1. GENERAL GRANT OF POWERS.

(a) Unless specifically limited, all discretions conferred upon the trustee shall be absolute, and their exercise conclusive upon all parties interested in this trust. The enumeration of certain powers of the trustee shall not limit its general powers, the trustee, subject always to the discharge of its fiduciary obligations, being vested with and having all the rights, powers, and privileges which an absolute owner of the same property would have.

(b) To do all the acts, except as herein specified, in its judgment needful or desirable for the proper and advantageous management of the trust estate, to the same extent and with the same effect as might legally be done by an individual in absolute ownership and control of the said property.

(c) The trustee shall have such additional powers as may now or hereafter be conferred upon them by law or as may be necessary to enable it to administer this trust in accordance with the provisions of this my Last Will and Testament, subject to any limitations thereof that may be provided for herein.

(d) To do or refrain from doing all other acts which in its judgment may be necessary or appropriate for the proper and advantageous management, investment, and disposition of the estate.

2. BORROW MONEY.

My trustee shall have full power, authority and discretion from time to time to borrow money in such amounts and upon such terms as it shall deem wise, to facilitate the renewal or payment of any loans or debts due from me at the time of my death, or to raise money either by borrowing or sale of corpus, for the purpose of paying taxes, administrative expenses, or for any other purpose which it may deem it advisable or necessary. In that connection I expressly authorize my trustee to obtain such loan or loans from any individual, corporation, bank or trust company, (including the power to borrow from the trustee of any living trust or insurance trust I may have created during my lifetime), at such rates of interest as may seem reasonable and proper and for such periods of time as shall deem advisable and necessary; and for the repayment of the moneys so borrowed, to bind the trust estate by the execution and delivery of such obligations and other evidences of indebtedness and by the imposition of such liens upon the real and personal property of the trust estate, or any part thereof, as my trustee shall deem necessary, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver all such mortgages, deeds of trust, instruments of pledge, and other instruments as may be necessary or proper, in the judgment of my trustee, to secure the payment of any such obligation or evidence of indebtedness or to effectuate any such lien. There shall be no obligation or liability whatever upon any party from or with whom any such borrowings of money may be affected by my trustee to inquire as to the expedience thereof or the authority of the trustee to effect the same, or to see to the application of moneys so borrowed.

3. REGISTRATION OF PROPERTY.

To hold any or all stocks, bonds, notes, mortgages, or other property in bearer form, in its own name, in the name of some other person, partnership, or corporation, or in the name of its duly appointed nominee, with or without disclosing the fiduciary relationship, and its liability shall be neither increased nor decreased by its so doing.

6. POWER TO SELL.

My trustee shall have full power and authority, from time to time, in its absolute discretion without other authority and without order of any court, to sell, convey, lease, transfer, exchange and dispose of any or all of the real estate or personal property which in any manner or at any time may be or become a part of the trust estate, and to make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver all such deeds, leases, bills of sale, and other instruments of whatsoever character, and to take, or cause to be taken, all such other actions as may be necessary or proper, in the judgment of my trustee, to effectuate any and all such sales, leases, transfers, exchanges, or other dispositions of real estate or of personal property, without liability upon the part of any party to go or with whom any such sale, conveyance, lease, transfer, exchange or other disposition may be made, to inquire as to the expediency thereof or the authority of my trustee to affect the same, or to see to the proper application of the consideration therefor or the proceeds or rentals therefrom.

7. COMPROMISE CLAIMS.

To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of, or against the estate as it shall deem best, and its decision shall be final and binding upon all parties at interest.

My trustee shall have full power to employ and retain such attorneys, brokers, banks, custodians, investment counsel, accountants, agents and other representatives as it in its discretion shall deem necessary for the proper administration of the trust, and to fix and pay out of the trust estate the compensation of all such attorneys, brokers, banks, custodians, investment counsel, accountants, agents and other representatives, and all other expenses which the trustee may, in its discretion, incur in connection with the administration of the trust. The trustee, if and whenever it deems it advisable or proper, may, and so to do, may cause any shares of stock, or any other property of whatsoever character consisting in part of the trust estate, or the income therefrom to be sold, either in the name of any trustee, or a not named trustee, or by the authority in such trustee, or such named trustee, to receive a receipt for all income therefrom. All governmental charges of whatsoever character, including taxes, or payable with respect to the trust estate, or the income therefrom, and all expenses of the administration of the trust estate, including the compensation of the trustee, and of all attorneys, brokers, banks, custodians, investment counsel, accountants, agents and other representatives, and at any time it shall deem necessary to be paid out of the trust estate, interest payable on account of any indebtedness of the trust estate incurred by the trustee, shall be paid out of the income of the trust estate, unless my trustee, in its discretion, shall deem that under the circumstances it is proper that there should equitably be paid out of the principal of the trust estate or that the income of the trust estate is insufficient for such payments. The determination of the trustee as to whether such taxes, governmental charges, or expenses, or interest, shall be paid out of income or corpus of the trust estate shall be final and conclusive upon all parties, and shall not be subject to objection, or inquiry, or proceedings, whatsoever. Nothing herein shall be construed to require the trustee to follow the advice of its investment counsel, the trustee in all such matters shall be judge in all investment matters affecting the trust estate.

9. BROAD POWERS OF INVESTMENT.

To invest and reinvest the trust estate in any and all bonds or securities, including bonds, stocks, debentures, preferred or voting trust certificates, notes, debentures, mortgages, or interests in investment trusts, shares in mutual funds, trust funds, investments that yield a high rate of return, income at all, without regard to the propriety of such investment or investments of a similar character, whether or not the total trust estate or whether or not the income therefrom is being limited to the classes of investments authorized by law, being limited to the classes of investments authorized by law, are or may be authorized by statute or case or public policy, to invest funds; intending thereby to authorize the trustee to invest in such manner as it shall believe to be for the best interests of the trust estate, regarding it as a whole, even though particular investments might not otherwise be proper. It being my intention and I direct that my trustee's judgment and discretion as to the number and character of investments in which to invest to time the trust estate shall be invested shall be absolute and conclusive, and in no event shall the trustee be subject to any liability or surcharge by reason of any want or failure of diversification with respect thereto. In making investments my trustee shall not be required to take into account the date on the contemplated termination of the trust but may purchase securities with maturity dates beyond the date of said contemplated termination.

10. UNINVESTED.

To hold cash uninvested in the trust fund for such periods of time as the trustee shall think proper even though the total amount of cash so held shall be disproportionate under the law applicable to the administration and investment of trust estates and even though the period of time during which said amount of cash is so held shall be longer than would otherwise be permitted to trustee.

11. DIVERSIFICATION.

The trustee hereunder shall not be required to diversify funds held in any of the trusts hereunder and shall be authorized to constitute and to hold in any trust estate any one or more securities, whether or not any such security or class of securities shall constitute the greater part or the entire trust estate.

12. COMPROMISING TAX CLAIMS.

To institute, prosecute, defend, compromise, settle, pay, and discharge all actions for or against the estate or arising in connection with the administration thereof, including inheritance taxes, estate taxes, and income taxes, and to give or receive appropriate receipts, releases, acquittances, and discharges; and the decisions and acts of the executor or trustee shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties at interest.

13. PAYING TAXES.

Such payments shall be considered as a part of the expenses of administration of this trust. The trustee shall be accountable only for the exercise of its best judgment as to what property or income to return for taxation and what taxes to pay, as long as it acts in good faith.

14. PURCHASING ANNUITY CONTRACTS.

I authorize my trustee in the exercise of its discretion to purchase annuity contracts for any beneficiary named herein and to pay for such contracts out of the principal or income or both of my trust estate, even if it deem wise, to the extent of exhausting the trust estate completely and thereby terminating the trust.

15. POWERS NOT LIMITED AS TO TIME BUT CONTINUE SO LONG AS NO DISTRIBUTION.

It is my intention that the powers, authorities, and discretions conferred upon my trustee by any of the provisions of this my Will shall not be limited to the period of time during which estates are ordinarily administered by Executors and Trustees. On the contrary, I intend and direct that so long as any part of my estate shall remain undistributed by my trustee, in accordance with any of the provisions of this my Will, it shall have and may fully and freely exercise every such power, authority and discretion as respects any and every part of my estate which at the time being shall not have been distributed by my Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this my Will.

16. TO FILE JOINT INCOME TAX RETURNS.

To join, in her discretion, with my said wife, or her executors or administrators in the execution and filing of a joint income tax return or returns, and to affirm or disaffirm any joint income tax return or returns, already filed by my said wife, of income for the taxable year in which my death occurs and for any prior taxable year for which no return was filed prior to my death or for which an amended return may be required, and to pay as part of my debts so much of the income tax or income taxes assessed, whether as shown on such returns or as the result of the determination of a deficiency, as my trustee in its discretion shall deem attributable to my estate, or as my estate may become legally liable to pay, or in the uncontrolled discretion of my trustee, and without any liability in so doing, to pay as part of my debts all of such income tax or income taxes; and I further authorize and empower my trustee to signify to the Treasury Department of the United States of America in accordance with its regulations, its consent for tax purposes to have gifts made by my said wife or by me during the year in which my death occurs, or for any prior years for which no gift tax return was filed prior to my death, or for which an amended return may be required, considered as having been made one-half (1/2) by me and one-half (1/2) by my said wife, and to pay as part of my debts so much of the gift tax or gift taxes assessed, whether shown on such returns or as a result of a deficiency, or as my estate may become legally liable to pay, or, in the uncontrolled discretion of my trustee, and without liability in so doing, to pay all such gift tax or gift taxes.

17. DEFINITION OF "TRUSTEE".

The word "trustee" as used in this delegation of powers is used in the neuter singular. It is intended to include executor, executrix, executors, executrices, administrator, administrators, administratrix, administratrices, personal representative, personal representatives, trustee, trustees, (masculine, feminine, neuter, singular and plural), and their survivor or survivors, and their successor or successors.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF 18-570

I, Richard L. Redmont, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, of legal age and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills, testaments and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

I wish all my just debts duly probated according to law, and all my funeral expenses, to be paid as soon after my death as may be reasonably convenient, and I hereby authorize my executor, in case of any claim made against my estate, to settle the same in her or its absolute discretion.

ITEM II

I direct that all estate, inheritance, transfer, legacy, or succession taxes, which may be assessed with respect to my estate, or any part thereof, whether or not passing under my will, including the taxable value of all policies of insurance on my life and of all transfers, powers, rights, or interests includible in my estate for the purposes of such taxes, shall, if my wife, Janet S. Redmont, survives me, be paid out of Share No. 2 of my residuary estate as defined in Item V, or, if my wife predeceases me, be paid out of my residuary estate, and in either event such payment shall be made as an expense of administration and without apportionment.

ITEM III

I give and bequeath all my interest, if any, in household furniture, furnishings and belongings situated in, on or about my residence, and all my jewelry, automobiles, and other tangible personal property (exclusive of cash, stocks, bonds, or other securities and choses in action) owned by me at my death, to my wife, Janet S. Redmont, or if she predeceases me, then in equal shares to our children who survive me. If our children are unable to agree upon a division of such property, then I direct my executor to make such division among them, and its determination with respect thereto shall be binding and conclusive upon the children.

ITEM IV

I give and devise to my wife, Janet S. Redmont, all my interest in the land and property now occupied by us as our residence <sup>now</sup> ~~at~~ Ridgeland, <sup>in</sup> ~~at~~ Madison County, Mississippi, or in any other residence to which we may later move and occupy as our regular home at the time of my death.

ITEM V

If my wife, Janet S. Redmont, survives me, my executor shall divide the residue of my estate into two equal shares, hereinafter designated as Share No. 1 and Share No. 2.

(a) In allocating my residuary estate between Share No. 1 and Share No. 2, my executor shall first allot to Share No. 1 the more liquid and salable assets of my residuary estate. If I should die possessed of any terminable interest which cannot qualify for the "marital deduction" under the Federal estate tax law, such interest shall be allotted to Share No. 2; and Share No. 1 shall be reduced in amount to the extent that it cannot be composed of qualifying assets.

ITEM VI

(a) I give Share No. 1 to my trustee, IN TRUST, and direct my trustee to pay the income to my wife, Janet S. Redmont, currently, at reasonable intervals, and monthly if practical, but in no event less often than annually, during her lifetime. My said wife shall have the absolute right to appoint by her will the entire remaining corpus of Share No. 1, free of the trust, to her estate, or in favor of any other person or persons, in such estates as she may determine; but in default of such appointment, the entire remaining corpus of this trust shall, at the death of my wife, be paid over absolutely to my children, or their issue per stirpes.

(b) I give Share No. 2 to my trustee, IN TRUST, for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:

(1) Said trust shall continue during the lifetime of my wife, Janet S. Redmont, or until my youngest child then living shall reach the age of 21 years, and upon the death of my said wife or upon my youngest child then living reaching the age of 21 years, whichever may be the later date, said trust shall cease and terminate.

(2) My trustee shall pay to my wife the entire net income of Share No. 2, so long as the combined average monthly net income from Share No. 1 and Share No. 2 does not exceed $1,600.00 per month. The amount by which the average monthly net income of Share No. 2, which when combined with the average monthly net income of Share No. 1 exceeds $1,600.00 is referred to herein as "excess income". My trustee shall pay over one-fourth of said "excess income", if any, of Share No. 2 to my son, Richard L. Redmont, Jr. and the balance thereof to my said wife, Janet S. Redmont, until such time as my daughter, Pamela Jane Redmont, shall reach the age of 17 years, at which time Pamela Jane Redmont shall be also entitled to one-fourth of said "excess income". To clarify my intention, by way of illustration, should the average monthly income from Share No. 1 equal $1,000.00 and the average monthly income from Share No. 2 equal $1,000.00, then one-fourth of $400.00, the "excess income" of Share No. 2, $100.00, shall be paid to my said son, Richard L. Redmont, Jr., and after my said daughter, Pamela Jane Redmont, reaches the age of 17 years, one-fourth of said "excess income", to-wit, $100.00, shall be paid to her. The "excess income" payments herein provided, if any, to be made to my said children will continue during the lifetime of my said wife.

(3) If my wife should die before the trust is terminated, the entire net income of Share No. 2 shall be paid over to my said children, Richard L. Redmont, Jr. and Pamela Jane Redmont, in equal shares in monthly installments, if practical. If either of said children die while said trust is in effect, prior to the termination thereof, and leave no child or children or descendants of children surviving, the entire income here provided to be paid to said children shall be paid to the survivor thereof. Should either of my said children die prior to the termination of said trust and leave a child or children or descendants of children surviving, the amount herein provided to be paid to my said children shall be paid to said surviving child or children or descendants of children of my deceased child, share and share alike, the descendants of any of them to take the share of such decedent.

(4) Upon the termination of this trust, as set forth in subparagraph (1), I direct that the entire trust property remaining be divided between my said two children, Richard L.

Redmont, Jr., and Pamela Jane Redmont, share and share alike. If either of my said children be not living at such time and leave a child or children, or descendants of children, surviving, then such child or children, or descendants of children, so surviving shall take the share of such decedent. If at such time, that is, at the termination of said trust, either of my said children be not living and no child or children, or descendants of children of such decedent, be living, then the trust property remaining shall be delivered to and title thereto shall vest in the survivor of my said children, or the child or children, or descendants of child or children thereof. If at such time, that is, at the termination of said trust, no child of mine be living and no child or children, or descendants of children of my said children be living, then said trust property shall be delivered to and title thereto shall vest in my heirs at law according to the law of descent and distribution of the State of Mississippi; the term "heirs at law" as herein used being limited to those related to me through my mother to the absolute and complete exclusion of those related to me through my father, and those related to me through my father shall in no event take hereunder. All interests created herein shall be vested within the applicable period permitted or required by the laws of the State of Mississippi.

ITEM VII

If my said wife, Janet S. Redmont, predeceases me, then I hereby give, devise and bequeath my residuary estate to my substitute trustee, IN TRUST, for the primary benefit of my said children in equal shares, on the same terms as provided for in Item VI, subparagraph 3 of this will, for the disposition of Share No. 2 of my residuary estate, except that whenever the taking of any interest under such subparagraph is dependent upon survivorship at the time of my wife's death, there shall be substituted the time of my death for the purposes thereof.

ITEM VIII

If my wife, Janet S. Redmont, and I die in a common disaster, or under such circumstances that it is difficult or impossible to determine who died first, then for the purposes of this will it shall be presumed that my said wife survived me.

ITEM IX

I hereby give and grant unto my executor and trustee or any successor executor and trustee full and complete power in the investment, administration and distribution of my estate and the trusts hereby created, to perform every act in the management of my estate or the trusts created hereby which individuals may perform in the management of like property owned by them free of any trust, without authorization of any court, and without limiting the generality of the above, to consent to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation, readjustment of or other change in any corporation, company, or association, or to the sale or lease of the property thereof or any part thereof, any of the securities or other property of which at the time held by them hereunder, and to do any act or exercise any power with reference thereto that may be legally exercised by any person owning similar property in his own right, including the exercise of conversion, subscription, purchase, or other options, the deposit or exchange of securities, the entrance into voting trusts, and the making of agreements or subscriptions which they may deem necessary or advisable in connection therewith, all without applying to any court for permission so to do, and to hold and redeem or sell or otherwise dispose of any securities or other property which they may so acquire, irrespective of whether the same be authorized for the investment of trust funds by the laws of the State of Mississippi. In exercising powers and duties of the executor and trustee, the executor and trustee shall exercise all rights with due legal regard to the respective interests of the life tenants and remaindermen.

ITEM X

No person dealing with my executor or trustee shall be obligated to see to the application of any moneys, securities or other property paid or delivered to said executor or trustee or to inquire into the expediency or propriety of any transaction or the authority of my executor or trustee to enter into and consummate the same upon such terms as my executor or trustee may deem advisable.

ITEM XI

No executor or trustee shall be liable in any manner for the acts or defaults of any predecessor executor or predecessor trustee, or for any losses resulting from or occasioned by anything done or neglected to be done by any such predecessor executor or predecessor trustee, but such successor executor or successor trustee shall be liable only for his or its own acts and defaults in respect to property actually received by it as executor or trustee. Provided, however, that any such successor executor or successor trustee shall have full power and authority to pay any lawful claim or obligation made or contracted for by any predecessor executor or predecessor trustee.

ITEM XII

I appoint my wife, Janet S. Redmont, as executrix of this my Last Will and Testament and trustee of the trusts hereinabove created. If my said wife does not survive me, or if she fails to qualify as executor or trustee, or having qualified should die, resign or become incapacitated, then and in that event, I nominate and appoint Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, of Jackson, Mississippi, to be the successor executor and successor trustee. I direct that no executor or trustee shall be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of her or its duties.

IN TESTIMONY of the making, declaring and publishing of the foregoing to be my Last Will and Testament, I now sign my name hereto in the presence of Robert G. Gillespie, Jr., Robert H. Weaver, and Daisy S. Blackwell, whom I have expressly and especially requested to witness the making, publishing and declaring of this my Last Will and Testament, and the witnessing of my signature hereto, all done this the 27th day of September, 1960.

CODICIL NO. ONE

I, Richard L. Redmont, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Codicil No. One to my Last Will and Testament executed on September 27, 1960.

I. I hereby amend Item VI of my said will dated September 27, 1960, by deleting the same and substituting the following in its place, in like manner as if the same had been originally incorporated therein:

"ITEM VI

"(a) I give Share No. 1 to my trustee, IN TRUST, and direct my trustee to pay the income to my wife, Janet S. Redmont, currently, at reasonable intervals, and monthly if practical, but in no event less often than annually, during her lifetime. My said wife shall have the absolute right, alone and in all events, to appoint by her will the entire remaining corpus of Share No. 1, free of the trust, to her estate, or in favor of any other person or persons, in such estates as she may determine; but in default of such appointment, the entire remaining corpus of Share No. 1 shall be disposed of in the same manner as Share No. 2.

"(b) I give Share No. 2 to my trustee, IN TRUST, for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:

"(1) Said trust shall continue during the lifetime of my wife, Janet S. Redmont, or until my youngest child then living shall reach the age of 21 years, and upon the death of my said wife or upon my youngest child then living reaching the age of 21 years, whichever may be the later date, said trust shall cease and terminate.

"(2) My trustee shall pay to my wife the entire net income of Share No. 2, so long as the combined average monthly net income from Share No. 1 and Share No. 2 does not exceed $1,600.00 per month. The amount by which the average monthly net income of Share No. 2, which when combined with the average monthly net income of Share No. 1 exceeds $1,600.00 is referred to herein as 'excess income'. My trustee shall pay over one-fourth of said 'excess income', if any, of Share No. 2 to my son, Richard L. Redmont, Jr. and the balance thereof to my said wife, Janet S. Redmont, until such time as my daughter, Pamela Jane Redmont, shall reach the age of 17 years, at which time Pamela Jane Redmont shall be also entitled to one-fourth of said 'excess income'. To clarify my intention, by way of illustration, should the average monthly income from Share No. 1 equal $1,000.00 and the average monthly income from Share No. 2 equal $1,000.00, then one-fourth of $400.00, the 'excess income' of Share No. 2, $100.00, shall be paid to my said son, Richard L. Redmont, Jr., and after my said daughter, Pamela Jane Redmont, reaches the age of 17 years, one-fourth of said 'excess income', to-wit, $100.00, shall be paid to her. The 'excess income' payments herein provided, if any, to be made to my said children will continue during the lifetime of my said wife.

"(3) If my wife should die before the trust is terminated, the entire net income of Share No. 2 shall be paid over to my said children, Richard L. Redmont, Jr. and Pamela Jane Redmont, in equal shares in monthly installments, if practical. Should either of my said children die prior to the termination of said trust and leave issue surviving, the entire income herein provided to be paid to my said child shall be paid to his or her issue per stirpes, but if said deceased child die without issue but leaving a spouse surviving him or her, said spouse shall be entitled to one-fourth of the deceased child's share of said income, and the balance shall be paid to my surviving child, in addition to said surviving child's share of income. If either of my said children die while said trust is in effect, prior to the termination thereof, leaving no issue or spouse surviving him or her, the entire income herein provided to be paid to my said child shall be paid to my surviving child.

"(4) Upon the termination of this trust, as set forth in subparagraph (1), I direct that the entire trust property remaining be divided between my said two children, Richard L. Redmont, Jr., and Pamela Jane Redmont, share and share alike. If either of my said children is not living at such time and leaves issue surviving, then such issue shall take per stirpes the share of such deceased child, but if such deceased child shall die without issue, but leaving a spouse surviving him or her, then said spouse shall be entitled to take one-fourth of the deceased child's share of said trust property and the remainder of said share shall be paid over and distributed to the surviving child, in addition to the surviving child's share of such trust property. If at the time of the termination of the trust, any portion of the trust property remains undistributed because there are no survivors entitled to take said property, then such portion of said trust property shall be delivered to and title thereto shall vest in my heirs at law according to the law of descent and distribution of the State of Mississippi; the term "heirs at law" as herein used being limited to those related to me through my mother to the absolute and complete exclusion of those related to me through my father, and those related to me through my father shall in no event take hereunder. All interests created herein shall be vested within the applicable period permitted or required by the laws of the State of Mississippi."

II. I hereby amend Item VII of my said will dated September 27, 1960, by deleting the same substituting the following in its place, in like manner as if the same had been originally incorporated therein:

"ITEM VII

If my said wife, Janet S. Redmont, predeceases me, then I hereby give, devise and bequeath my residuary estate to my substitute trustee, IN TRUST, for the primary benefit of my said children in equal shares, on the same terms as provided for in Item VI (b), subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this will, for the disposition of Share No. 2 of my residuary estate, except that whenever the taking of any interest under such subparagraph is dependent upon survivorship at the time of my wife's death, there shall be substituted the time of my death for the purposes thereof."

III. I hereby amend Item IX of my said will dated September 27, 1960, in order to correct clerical errors, by deleting the same and substituting the following in its place, in like manner as if the same had been originally incorporated therein:

"I hereby give and grant unto my executor and trustee or any successor executor and trustee full and complete power in the investment, administration and distribution of my estate and the trusts hereby created, to perform every act in the management of my estate or the trusts created hereby, which individuals may perform in the management of like property owned by them free of any trust, without authorization of any court, and without limiting the generality of the above, to consent to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation, readjustment of or other change in any corporation, company, or association, or to the sale or lease of the property thereof or any part thereof, or any of the securities or other property which may at the time be held by them hereunder, and to do any act or exercise any power with reference thereto that may be legally exercised by any person owning similar property in his own right, including the exercise of conversion, subscription, purchase, or other options, the deposit or exchange of securities, the entrance into voting trusts, and the making of agreements or subscriptions which they may deem necessary or advisable in connection therewith, all without applying to any court for permission so to do, and to hold and redeem or sell or otherwise dispose of any securities or other property which they may so acquire, irrespective of whether the same be authorized for the investment of trust funds by the laws of the State of Mississippi. In exercising powers and duties of the executor and trustee, the executor and trustee shall exercise all rights with due legal regard to the respective interests of the life tenants and remaindermen."

CODICIL NO. THREE

I, Richard L. Redmont, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Codicil No. Three to my Last Will and Testament executed on September 27, 1960, as amended by Codicil No. One executed on April 7, 1961, and as further amended by Codicil No. Two executed on December 5, 1962.

I. I hereby amend Item VI of my said will, as amended, by deleting the same and substituting the following in its place, in like manner as if the same had been originally incorporated therein;

"ITEM VI .

"(a) I give Share No. 1 to my trustee, IN TRUST, and direct my trustee to pay the income to my wife, Janet S. Redmont, currently, at reasonable intervals, and monthly if practical, but in no event less often than annually, during her lifetime. My said wife shall have the absolute right, alone and in all events, to appoint by her will the entire remaining corpus of Share No. 1, free of the trust, to her estate, or in favor of any other person or persons, in such estates as she may determine; but in default of such appointment, the entire remaining corpus of Share No. 1 shall be disposed of in the same manner as Share No. 2.

"(b) I give Share No. 2 to my trustee, IN TRUST, for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:

"(1) Said trust shall continue during the lifetime of my wife, Janet S. Redmont, or until my youngest child then living shall reach the age of 21 years, and upon the death of my said wife or upon my youngest child then living reaching the age of 21 years, whichever may be the later date, said trust shall cease and terminate.

"(2) My trustee shall pay to my wife the entire net income of Share No. 2, so long as the combined average monthly net income from Share No. 1 and Share No. 2 does not exceed $1,600.00 per month. The amount by which the average monthly net income of Share No. 2, which when combined with the average monthly net income of Share No. 1 exceeds $1,600.00 is referred to herein as 'excess income'. My trustee shall pay over one-fourth of said 'excess income', if any, of Share No. 2 to my son, Richard L. Redmont, Jr. and the balance thereof to my said wife, Janet S. Redmont, until such time as my daughter, Pamela Jane Redmont, shall reach the age of 17 years, at which time Pamela Jane Redmont shall be also entitled to one-fourth of said 'excess income'. To clarify my intention, by way of illustration, should the average monthly income from Share No. 1 equal $1,000.00 and the average monthly income from Share No. 2 equal $1,000.00, then one-fourth of $400.00, the 'excess income' of Share No. 2, $100.00, shall be paid to my said son, Richard L. Redmont, Jr., and after my said daughter, Pamela Jane Redmont, reaches the age of 17 years, one-fourth of said 'excess income', to-wit, $100.00, shall be paid to her. The 'excess income' payments herein provided, if any, to be made to my said children will continue during the lifetime of my said wife.

"(3) If my wife should die before the trust is terminated, the entire net income of Share No. 2 shall be paid over to my said children, Richard L. Redmont, Jr., and Pamela Jane Redmont, in equal shares in monthly installments, if practical. Should either of my said children die prior to the termination of said trust and leave issue surviving, the entire income herein provided to be paid to my said child shall be paid to his or her issue per stirpes, but if said deceased child die without issue but leaving a spouse surviving him or her, said spouse shall be entitled to one-half of the deceased child's share of said income, and the balance shall be paid to my surviving child, in addition to said surviving child's share of income. If either of my said children die while said trust is in effect, prior to the termination thereof, leaving no issue or spouse surviving him or her, the entire income herein provided to be paid to said child shall be paid to my surviving child.

"(4) Upon the termination of this trust, as set forth in subparagraph (1), I direct that the entire trust property remaining be divided between my said two children, Richard L. Redmont, Jr., and Pamela Jane Redmont, share and share alike. If either of my said children is not living at such time and leaves issue surviving, then such issue shall take per stirpes the share of such deceased child, but if such deceased child shall die without issue, but leaving a spouse surviving him or her, then said spouse shall be entitled to take one-half of the deceased child's share of said trust property and the remainder of said share shall be paid over and distributed to the surviving child, in addition to the surviving child's share of such trust property. If at the time of the termination of the trust, any portion of the trust property remains undistributed because there are no survivors entitled to take said property, then such portion of said trust property shall be delivered to and title thereto shall vest in my heirs at law according to the law of descent and distribution of the State of Mississippi; the term "heirs at law" as herein used being limited to those related to me through my mother to the absolute and complete exclusion of those related to me through my father, and those related to me through my father shall in no event take hereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein provided, all interests created herein shall vest within the applicable period permitted or required by the laws of the State of Mississippi, and all provisions of this will shall be so construed.

II. I hereby amend Item VII of my said will dated September 27, 1960, as amended, by deleting the same, substituting the following in its place, in like manner as if the same had been originally incorporated therein:

"ITEM VII

"If my said wife, Janet S. Redmont, predeceases me, then I hereby give, devise and bequeath my residuary estate to my successor trustees, IN TRUST, for the primary benefit of my said children in equal shares, on the same terms as provided for in Item VI (b), subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this will, as amended, for the disposition of Share No. 2 of my residuary estate, except that whenever the taking of any interest under such subparagraph is dependent upon survivorship at the time of my wife's death, there shall be substituted the time of my death for the purposes thereof."

As amended by this Codicil No. Three, I hereby ratify, confirm and re-publish my Last Will and Testament dated September 27, 1960, as amended by my Codicil No. One dated April 7, 1961, and Codicil No. Two dated December 5, 1962.

IN TESTIMONY of the making, declaring and publishing of the foregoing to be Codicil No. Three to my Last Will and Testament dated September 27, 1960, I now sign my name hereto in the presence of Wilhelmina Sleigher Ruth Watkins and Laura James, whom I have especially requested to witness the making, publishing and declaring of this Codicil No. Three to my Last Will and Testament, and the witnessing of my signature hereto, all done this the 10th day of December, 1962.
