STATE OF MISSISSIPPI §
 MADISON COUNTY §

18-641

I, C. L. Higgason, a resident of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being above the age of twenty-one years and of sound, disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this, my last Will and Testament, hereby specifically revoking any and all other instruments of like nature, and codicils thereto, heretofore made, or purporting to have been made by me.

ARTICLE I

I attach hereto, as an integral part thereof, four (4) separate schedules, every page of each identified by my initials, as follows:

SCHEDULE	SUBJECT MATTER
"A"	LANDS OWNED BY ME IN FEE
"B"	TIMBER, NOT ON FEE LANDS
"C"	PRODUCING OIL ACREAGE
"D"	NON-PRODUCING OIL ACREAGE

I have endeavored to make each of said schedules full and accurate, but they are given more as an aid to my family and legal representatives than as constituting any limitation upon my real assets, or as constituting any disclaimer upon any realty which may be found to stand in my name upon any public record, or as to which I might assert any interest.

ARTICLE II

1. If my wife, Rose Weir Higgason, shall survive me, I give to the Derozier Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, Trustee, as a separate trust to be known as "Rose Weir Higgason Trust", property equal in value to one-half of my "adjusted gross estate" as presently defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, reduced by the value as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes of all other items of my gross estate qualifying for the marital deduction under the said Revenue Code which pass or have passed to my said wife outright under other provisions of this will or outside this will by operation of law or otherwise. It is my intention to place in this trust the maximum value in property, but no more, that may be deducted from my estate as the marital deduction under the applicable Internal Revenue Code.

2. If the terms "Adjusted gross estate" and "marital deduction" shall not have determinable meanings at the time of my death, I declare that the term "adjusted gross estate" shall mean my gross estate less all indebtedness and expenses but before the payment of estate, inheritance, or succession taxes that may be assessed against my estate; and I give to my wife, in trust as hereinafter set forth, one-half of my "adjusted gross estate," as so defined.

3. I authorize the executor to pay over, deliver, assign, transfer, or convey to the trustee in satisfaction of this gift cash or property in kind, to select and designate the property, whether cash or securities or real property or interests in real property, which shall be placed in this trust, but only at the values thereof as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes. In no event shall there be included in this trust any property with respect to which the marital deduction would not be allowed if it were included.

4. If my wife, shall so request, the Executor, in allotting the property to this trust, shall allot the home I own at the time of my death, and the land on which the home is situated, to this trust. Said Trustee shall be authorized to hold said home as a home for my said wife as long as she so requests and shall pay the taxes, insurance, repairs and similar expenses in connection with said home. Said Trustee shall be authorized, with the written consent of my said wife, to sell said home and purchase another home for my said wife and to hold said other home on the same terms and conditions.

5. Since the exact value of the allowable marital deduction cannot be determined until my federal estate tax return has been audited, I direct my executor, after such audit shall have been made and final tax values established, either to withdraw property from this trust and add it to my residuary trust under Article III of this will, or to withdraw property from my residuary trust and add it to this trust so that the property in this trust will be the maximum allowable marital deduction but no more.

6. Calculated from the date of my death, the Trustee shall pay over to or apply for the sole benefit of my wife in convenient installments as nearly equal as practicable, at least quarterly, all of the net income of this trust, to the end that all of the net income shall be paid to her or applied for her benefit at least annually.

C. L. Higason

7. In addition to all of the net income, the Trustee, in the exercise of its uncontrolled discretion, shall pay over to or apply for the sole benefit of my wife so much of the principal of this trust as it shall deem needful or desirable for her comfortable support and maintenance, including medical, surgical, hospital, or other care, having in mind both the standard of living to which she has been accustomed and her income from other sources.

8. Upon the death of my wife, the entire remaining principal and uncollected or undistributed income of this trust shall be paid over, delivered, assigned, transferred, or conveyed to and among such appointee or appointees (including her own estate) and upon such terms and in such proportions as she shall direct by her will made either before or after my death, making specific reference to this power. In distributing this property, the Trustee shall be protected in relying upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the will of my wife or in acting upon the assumption that, if the Trustee shall not have received notice of the existence of any will left by her within six months after her death, she died intestate and had not exercised this power of appointment.

9. Upon the death of my wife, any property remaining in this trust as to which she shall not have exercised her power of appointment shall be added to and administered and ultimately distributed as a part of my residuary estate as set forth in Article III of this will, to the same extent as if it had been an original part thereof.

10. None of the property in this trust shall be used for the payment of estate, inheritance, transfer or other taxes that may become payable upon or by reason of my death, except to the extent, if any, that all other property of my estate shall not be sufficient for the payment of such taxes.

ARTICLE III

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, I give, devise and bequeath to Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, Jackson, Mississippi, Trustee, as a separate trust, to be known as the Residuary Trust, and for the following uses and purposes:

C. L. Higginson

Page 4 of the Last Will and Testament of C. L. Higason

1. So long as she shall live, if in any year, calculated from the date of my death, the net income of the Rose Weir Higason Trust shall not be sufficient for her actual needs, the Trustee, in its unfettered discretion, may pay over to her, or apply for her sole benefit, so much of the net income of this Residuary Trust as was realized in the preceding "trust year" as will supply such deficiency.

2. During the lifetime of my wife, she shall have the right, by specific reference to this power, in an instrument or instruments in writing filed with the Trustee from time to time, to direct the Trustee:

(a) To pay over to either or both of our daughters, Doris H. Jones and Rose Mary H. Poole, so much of the net annual income of this trust, as she may think best; and/or

(b) To distribute to or apply for the benefit of either or both of our said daughters, or issue of a deceased daughter, so much of the principal of this trust, up to but not exceeding the aggregate of one-half thereof as appraised at the time of the creation of this trust, as my wife shall direct by such instrument or instruments. If the exercise or exercises of this special power of appointment shall impose a federal or state gift tax upon my wife, I direct that the Trustee shall pay to her out of the principal of this trust an amount or amounts sufficient to cover the gift tax or taxes so imposed upon her. My intention is to give my wife the right to exercise this special power of appointment as often as she shall see fit to do so, and her exercise of it shall not preclude her exercising it again. However, it is my intention also that in the exercise or exercises of this power not more than one-half its value of this trust estate as originally appraised shall be so disposed of.

3. Upon the death of my wife, this trust fund, to the extent unexpended, together with accumulations of income, if any, shall pass to, and be divided between, share and share alike, our said daughters, or if either has, or both have, predeceased their mother, then to their respective children, or the survivor or survivors of any deceased children.

4. Should either daughter predecease my wife and leave no issue surviving then the share of such daughter shall be added to the share of the surviving daughter.

5. If at the time of the death of my wife, neither a daughter nor a grandchild, issue of either daughter, survive her, then all of this trust that remains in the hands of the Trustee shall go to, and be divided among, per capita, my own heirs at law and the heirs at law of my said wife.

C. L. Higason

ARTICLE IV

The Trustee shall have the following powers with respect to each trust hereunder, to be exercised as the Trustee in its discretion determines to be to the best interests of my beneficiaries:

- (1) To retain any property of my estate, or any undivided interest therein, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk, or non-productivity;
- (2) To invest and reinvest the trust estate in any property or undivided interests therein, wherever located, including bonds, notes, secured or unsecured stocks of corporations, real estate or any interest therein, and interests in trusts, including common trust funds, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by trustees;
- (3) To sell any trust property, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale, to exchange any trust property for other property; to grant options to purchase or acquire any trust property; and to determine the prices and terms of sales, exchanges and options;
- (4) To execute leases and sub-leases for terms as long as fifty years, even though such terms may extend beyond the termination of the trust; to subdivide or improve real estate and tear down or alter improvements; to grant easements, give consents and make contracts relating to real estate or its use; and to release or dedicate any interest in real estate;
- (5) To borrow money from time to time and for any such purpose, to mortgage or pledge any trust property;
- (6) To take any action with respect to conserving or realizing upon the value of any trust property, and with respect to foreclosures, reorganizations or other changes affecting the trust property; to collect, pay, contest, compromise or abandon demands of or against the trust estate, wherever situated; and to execute contracts, notes, conveyances and other instruments, including instruments containing covenants and warranties binding upon and creating a charge against the trust estate, and containing provisions excluding personal liability;
- (7) To keep any property in the name of a nominee with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship;

C. L. Elmgren

Page 6 of Last Will and Testament of C. L. Higginson

(8) To employ agents, attorneys, auditors, depositaries and proxies, with or without discretionary powers;

(9) To determine the manner of ascertainment of income and principal, and the apportionment between income and principal of all receipts and disbursements, and to select any accounting period;

(10) To receive additional property from any source and add it to an commingle it with the trust estate;

(11) To enter into any transaction authorized by this Article with trustees or legal representatives of any other trust or estate in which any beneficiary hereunder has any beneficial interest, even though any such trustee or legal representative is also trustee hereunder;

(12) To make any distribution or division of the trust property in cash or in kind or both, and to allot different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries, and to determine the value of such property; and to continue to exercise any powers and discretion herein given for a reasonable period after the termination of the trust, but only for so long as no rule of law relating to perpetuities would be violated;

(13) To exercise any or all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, privileges, elections and options, pertaining to any such property, and to grant proxies, discretionary or otherwise, in respect thereof; and to receive and retain any property that may be acquired by it as the result of the exercise of any such rights, privileges, elections or options;

(14) To extend the time of payment of any obligation, including accrued or accruing interest, held by it hereunder;

(15) To make partition, division or distribution of property in kind, and, for any such purpose, to determine the value of any such property, which determination, however, shall be subject to a proval thereof by any court having jurisdiction;

(16) To execute oil, gas and mineral leases, royalty and mineral deeds or other contracts and agreements pertaining to minerals or royalties, covering or pertaining to any trust property on such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable;

(17) To perform any and all such other acts, and to take any and all such other proceedings, and to exercise all such other rights and privileges, in respect of any property as if it were the absolute owner thereof, and, in connection therewith, to enter into any and all agreements binding my estate or any trust hereunder.

ARTICLE V

1. In the event my wife and I shall be killed in a common accident or as a result of a common disaster or under such circumstances that it will be impossible, in the judgment of the executor, whose decision shall be conclusive, to determine which of us died first, it shall be presumed that she survived me; and this presumption shall apply throughout this will.

2. No part of any trust under this will, principal, income, or increment shall be attachable, assignable, trustable or liable to be taken at law or in equity for or on account of any debt, obligation or contract of any beneficiary hereunder; but the share I have herein provided for such beneficiary to have, shall be transferred and delivered to her or him, as the case may be, personally and for her or his sole and exclusive use and benefit.

3. The interest of every beneficiary, whether created by me directly or under a power of appointment created by me in this will, shall vest, anything else in this will or in the exercise of a power of appointment to the contrary notwithstanding, within the period prescribed by the Rule Against Perpetuities or any statute pertaining thereto. Upon such vesting the principal shall be distributed to and so who theretofore had been under beneficiaries and in the proportion that each of them had received income or had it applied for his benefit. If at the time of the vesting of an interest the beneficiary shall be a minor, the Trustee shall continue to hold his share in trust for his benefit, paying over or applying income and principal as the Trustee shall deem advisable, until such beneficiary shall be twenty-one years of age and then to distribute his share of the trust property to him, discharged of the trust. And, if at the time of vesting, the person entitled to the interest is a beneficiary of a trust under my will and his interest under that trust is vested, his share shall be added to that trust and thereafter administered as a part thereof.

4. I direct that the executor shall pay out of the Residuary Trust, without any right of reimbursement, all estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes which may be assessed against any gift made by me under this will and which may be determined to be due against any property owned by me and any other person or persons as joint owners with right of survivorship or passing at my death to the survivor, or all such taxes as shall be assessed against any insurance on my life. It is my intention that all property passing under this will, except for that provided for in Article III hereof as my residuary estate, and all property transferred by me in trust during my lifetime, and all jointly owned property passing to the survivor, and all proceeds of insurance on my life, shall pass undiminished by any such taxes.

6844 Higginson

ARTICLE VI

1. I appoint Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, Jackson, Mississippi, as executor of this will, and with all the powers and discretion with respect to my estate during administration that are herein given to the trustee with respect to the trust property (including the power to sell real or personal property at public or private sale), to be exercised without court order.

2. If another corporation succeeds to the trust business of my executor, or of any corporate trustee hereunder, before or after my death, such successor shall become executor or trustee hereunder, or both, as the case may be.

3. In the event Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company shall have hereafter merged or consolidated with any other bank or trust company, the corporation created by such merger or consolidation shall thereafter act as Trustee hereunder and shall be subject to all the terms and conditions set forth herein and entitled to all the rights, powers and discretion herein vested in the Trustee.

4. The Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for service in administering and distributing the trust property, and to reimbursement for expenses.

The foregoing will consists of eight pages, including this one, at the bottom of each of which I have signed my name.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this my last will and testament on this the 24 day of April, 1960.

LIVING AGREEMENT AND WILL OF WILLIAM (BULLY) MASON

I, William (Bully) Mason, being of sound and disposing mind and considering the fact that Tommie Lee Mason, my son, has provided shelter, land and pasture, for a number of years and has cared for me, as a son due to his father, I wish to make this my last will and testament, and remunerating him for past favors, I do hereby make the following bequests:

So long as Tommie Lee Mason, my son, takes care of me, providing the same care that he has been doing, and letting me occupy the house that said Tommie Lee Mason rents from the Drs. Wm B. and Julian Wiener, I, William (Bully) Mason, agree to pay said Tommie Lee Mason the sum of $100.00 a year for my maintenance and occupancy.

Starting January 1st, 1963, I, William (Bully) Mason, agree to pay Tommie Lee Mason the sum of $100.00 a year, payable $25.00 a month, quarterly, and beginning on January 1st, 1963.

In evidence of above, I, William (Bully) Mason agrees to and does pay Tommie Lee Mason $50.00, being for the first half of the year 1963. Receipt of which Tommie Lee Mason acknowledges. Subsequent payments of $25.00 a month quarter.

It is further understood that at my passing Tommie Lee Mason will come in full possession of all my property, stock, cash, farming tools and anything that I own and will pay each other living heir the sum of $1.00, so this will and agreement will be legal.

within six (6) months after her death.

ITEM VII.

Should any power, or powers, herein generally or specifically granted to my Executors or Trustees, in this Will, be construed to disqualify either in whole or in part the marital trust herein created from the estate tax marital deduction under the Federal Estate Tax Laws, then such disqualifying (but not those which do not disqualify) power or powers are hereby expressly revoked and made in-applicable to the marital trust herein created to the same extent as if no such power or powers were ever granted my said Executors or Trustees of said marital trust.

ITEM VIII.

All of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, except Pleasant Lake Plantation, I give, devise and bequeath to C. D. Saunders and W. H. Montjoy and the Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, Co-Trustees, of the trust herein created to be known as the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust". In the event that either C. D. Saunders or W. H. Montjoy is deceased or unable to act as Co-Trustees, then, the survivor and Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company shall act as such.

1. I hereby give, devise, and bequeath Pleasant Lake Plantation, comprising approximately 1600 acres, more or less, to my daughter, Alleta Billups Saunders, for and during her natural life. At the death of my said daughter, this property is devised to and will become a part of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust", as herein provided if my wife, Grace R. Billups is still alive, otherwise I devise it to the "Rowell A. Billups Family Trust", as herein identified.

2. The beneficiaries of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust" shall be my wife, Grace R. Billups, and my daughter, Alleta Billups Saunders, only, and I hereby direct that the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust" shall be created for my said wife, Grace R. Billups, and my said daughter, Alleta Billups Saunders, equally and that all income, as provided in my Last Will and Testament, shall be paid to my said wife and daughter in equal shares so long as they shall live. Upon the death of my said wife, Grace R. Billups, the income theretofore paid unto her shall be added to the income paid to my said daughter, Alleta Billups Saunders, whereby she shall receive the entire income from the said Trust during the remainder of her life. In the event that my daughter, Alleta Billups Saunders, shall predecease my wife, Grace R. Billups, I hereby direct that the share of the income theretofore paid unto her shall be added to the income paid to my said wife, Grace R. Billups, whereby she shall receive the entire income from the said Trust during the remainder of her life. Upon the death of both my said wife, Grace R. Billups, and daughter, Alleta Billups Saunders, any property remaining in this trust shall be turned over to and become a part of the "Rowell A. Billups Family Trust", as herein indentified, and be distributed as a part of such trust.

During the life times of both my said wife and my said daughter, either or both shall have the power of appointment over the respective share of income to be paid to each whereby either may authorize the Trustee to pay all or any part of their respective share of the income from the said Trust to my grandchildren, Charlot Alleta Saunders and Rowell Billups Saunders, or to any who may be born within ten(10) years from the date of the execution of this my Last Will and Testament in such proportions as they, the primary beneficiaries, or either of them, Grace R. Billups or Alleta Billups Saunders, may designate or specify.

ITEM IX

No beneficiary of any trust herein created shall have the right to pledge, assign, transfer, anticipate or encumber any of the assets of the trust and my Trustees are prohibited from honoring such attempted assignment, transfer, or anticipation of income and/or corpus herein provided to be paid to a beneficiary. These trusts are at all times spendthrift trusts and ownership to the income therein does not vest until finally received by the beneficiary. Each beneficiary shall have the right to specify the date and the place, bank or depository where the money shall be paid or deposited.

No part of any trust under this will, principal, income, or increment shall be attachable, assignable, trustable or liable to be taken at law or in equity for or on account of any debt, obligation or contract of any beneficiary hereunder; but the share I have herein provided such beneficiary should have, shall be transferred and delivered to her or him, as the case may be personally and for her and his sole and exclusive use and benefit.

ITEM X.

Should my wife, Grace R. Billups, die with me as a result of a common disaster or accident, and in the event that there is not sufficient evidence as to the order of our deaths, it shall be presumed that my wife survived me and my estate shall be administered in accordance with the terms of this my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM XI.

In the event that my wife predeceases me, all of my estate is hereby bequeathed to the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust" in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof.

ITEM XII.

In addition to the power, privileges, titles and obligations heretofore vested in the Executors and Trustees, such representatives shall have the following powers with respect to each trust hereunder, to be exercised as they, in their discretion determined to be to the best interests of the beneficiaries.

1. To sell, exchange, transfer and convey at such prices and for such consideration as the trustees may deem proper any real or personal property at any time belonging to the trust estates.

2. To lease for such periods of time and for terms which may extend beyond the termination of the trusts, or to rent at such rental and for such consideration and upon such conditions as the trustees may see fit, any real property at any time belonging to said trust estates.

3. To partition and divide any real estate or personal property which at any time may be held in common with others for the purposes to fix valuation and agree upon the terms and details of such partition and division and to pay from the trust estates or receive therein any money which may be transferred in making equal or proper division.

4. The Executors and Trustees shall have full power and authority to employ auditors, attorneys, tax men, real estate agents, advisable to use for the proper administration of this trust, and any reasonable compensation incurred for such services shall be included in and paid as expenses hereunder, accounting records of the trusts herein created shall be kept by the Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company in their office.

5. In the event such circumstances arise and the trustees feel that a reasonably prudent business man would borrow money, then the trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow such sums as may be necessary and to pledge, mortgage or create a lien against any of the assets of the Trust to secure such loan or loans.

6. Said executors and Trustees shall have power to exercise all voting and other rights of whatsoever nature pertaining to stocks and securities, and to grant proxies, discretionary or otherwise, in respect thereto, and may hold any and all stocks in the name of its duly appointed nominee with or without disclosing the fiduciary relationship. A majority of two trustees can act in any trust matter, including passing on the physical and mental capacity of any trustee, to continue to serve and to accept the resignation of any trustee. Upon the death or removal of C. D. Saunders and W. H. Montjoy, the Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company will continue as sole trustee.

7. Should any corporation in which the trust estate holds stocks or other securities at any time offer or propose to reorganize or to consolidate or merge with another corporation or corporations, or offer exchange of its shares for shares of a holding company, or change its organization from organization under the laws of one state to organization under those of another, or to organization under Federal Statutes, or in any manner alter, change, enlarge, curtail or amend its charter powers or its financial structure, or change the amount or the classes or par value of its capital stock, or change in whole or in part from stock having par value to stock having no par value, or vice versa, then in any such event the trust estate, through the Trustees, may exercise any choice, option, right or privilege by way of vote, subscription, exchange, or by the exercise of any other rights or privilege extended to the stockholders or other security holders of such corporation to participate to such extent as said trustee may deem advantageous to the trust estate in the formation of any corporation or corporations, holding company, or what is commonly known as a Massachusetts Trust, or other trust organization or organizations that may result from any of the various steps, changes, exchanges or reorganizations above enumerated, and the authority hereby conferred may be exercised without regard to the fact that any securities or property received would not fall within any of the classes or property which said trustee is herein authorized to purchase.

8. Except in the case of dividends in liquidation or as herein otherwise provided, cash dividends received by said trustee shall constitute income in its hands but all other distributions of additional stock or distribution of property, real or personal, or of rights, privileges and advantages of whatsoever sort, other than cash, shall, in the hands of said trustee, constitute corpus of said trust estate and not income.

9. Said Executors and Trustees shall have full power in their discretion to litigate, compromise, adjust and settle all claims arising out of or in connection with the trust property.

10. The Executors and Trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to take out and maintain such insurance on the properties constituting the corpus of the trusts and any other insurance as would be taken out and maintained by a reasonably prudent businessman.

11. Full and complete power and authority and discretion are vested in the trustees in the management, control and reinvestment of the trust funds and no one of the beneficiaries shall have any power or authority except to receive the income and corpus as hereinbefore directed to be paid to them.

12. No corporation becoming trustee shall be required or compelled, or be under any duty to examine, verify, question or audit the books, records, or accounts of any preceding trustee.

13. My Executors and Trustees shall have the right and authority to sell, lease, or drop lease, and convey any oil, gas and other mineral rights and to sell and convey timber, execute or alter mortgages, deeds of trust and notes and to do all acts concerning this property without any restrictions of any nature whatsoever, for the use and benefit of each beneficiary.

14. My Executors and Trustees shall have the right and authority to carry on any business or businesses in which I am engaged at the time of my death.

15. I hereby direct that my Executors and Trustees shall have the right to sell standing timber or the right to cut and otherwise sell and dispose of timber on any lands under their control as needs may direct, including need for funds as well as keeping in mind that some funds may need to be spent to improve timber stands from time to time and that efforts should be made to maintain a reasonable stand of timber for reforestation purposes.

16. Executors and Trustees shall retain any property, whether consisting of stocks, bonds or other securities, or of any other type of personal property or of real property taken over by him as a portion of my trust estate, without regard to the proportion such property or property of a similar character so held may bear to the entire amount of the trust estate whether or not such property of a similar character so held may bear to the entire amount of the trust estate whether or not such property is of the class in which trustees generally are authorized to invest by law or rule of court or by the terms of this trust itself but for this provision and without liability for loss resulting from such retention except for his own negligence.

17. Executors and Trustees, in their discretion, to retain so long as it shall deem wise to do so, any shares of stock I shall own at the time of my death in any bank and trust company, and such retention shall not be deemed a violation of its duty of undivided loyalty or of its duty with respect to the diversification of investments.

18. Executors and Trustees shall receive and retain, so long as it deems wise to do so, shares of stock in any bank and trust company issued as stock dividends, to subscribe for, receive and retain, so long as it deems wise to do so, the proportion to which my estate or any trust under my will may be entitled of any additional shares of stock hereafter lawfully authorized by the stockholders of any bank and trust company and to assent to any amendment of the charter, reorganization, merger, or consolidation of any bank and trust company, and to receive and retain so long as it deems wise to do so, shares of stock in any bank and trust company resulting from such reorganization or consolidation.

19. As it is desired that the trustee shall manage the oil, gas and mineral interests of the trusts herein created and that said trustee shall from time to time acquire additional oil, gas and mineral interests as a part of said trusts, said trustee is hereby granted additional powers without in any wise limiting the powers heretofore granted, which powers shall apply to all property of said trusts including the oil, gas and mineral interests; said additional powers being as follows, to-wit:

(a) To retain all oil, gas and mineral properties, interests or royalties of every kind and description conveyed or transferred to said trust, regardless of whether said properties, interests or royalties would constitute a suitable or prudent investment for a trust.

(b) To purchase additional oil, gas and mineral properties, interests or royalties, in its discretion.

(c) To explore, test, drill, mine, develop, save, store, transport and otherwise develop or exploit any oil, gas and mineral properties or interests owned by said trust, except there will be no further drilling of oil wells on unproven leases after the death or removal of trustees C. D. Saunders and W. H. Montjoy.

(d) To sell, exchange or dispose of any oil, gas and mineral properties, interests and royalties upon such terms and conditions as the trustees may deem advisable; and to surrender or abandon with or without consideration any or all of such oil, gas and mineral properties, interests or royalties.

(e) To execute oil, gas and other mineral leases on such terms as it may deem proper, and to enter into pooling, unitization, repressurization, and any other type of agreement relating to the development, operation and conservation of oil, gas and mineral properties or interests, in its discretion. The term of such leases or agreements may have such duration as may be deemed advisable by said trustees, and may extend beyond the term of said trust or trust.

(f) To enter into joint ventures and development and operating agreements with others, and to join in a reorganization of any group or venture in which the trustee may deem it advisable to participate.

(g) To deal with and to participate in the development and operation of oil, gas and mineral properties, interests and royalties with other trusts created by the grantor of this trust, and separate trust hereby created, even though it may be the trustee therefor.

(h) To select and to employ such business firm as it may deem advisable in order to properly explore, develop and operate any oil, gas and mineral properties, interests or royalties belonging to said trust.

(i) To establish such depletion, and depreciation reserves as it shall deem reasonable, the amounts thereof to be retained out of receipts and to be a part of the corpus of said trusts.

(j) To allocate the receipts, revenues and proceeds from the properties of said trusts between income and principal in any manner that it may deem advisable.

(k) To employ and pay out of the income or principal of said trusts, in its discretion, such geologists, engineers and other agents as it may deem advisable in connection with any matter pertaining to the evaluation, management or development of any of the properties of said trusts.

(l) In general to do any and everything that an individual might do pertaining to the management, development and operation of oil, gas and mineral properties, and to execute and deliver lease contracts, drilling contracts, options and any and all other instruments or agreements that it might deem to be desirable incident to engaging in the oil, gas and mineral business, and to be done with such terms, conditions, agreements, covenants, provisions or undertaking as the trustee shall deem proper or desirable.

20. It is intended to vest in the trustee all of the powers and authority with respect to the properties of said trusts together with the right to execute and deliver any and all kinds of agreements pertaining thereto that would be vested in an individual owner in fee simple thereof.

ITEM XIII.

If any provision of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust" shall cause any of the assets of the said trust to be taxable for Federal and State inheritance tax purposes, in the estates of my said wife and daughter then such provisions shall be null and void.

ITEM XIV.

In the event that any provision in this will shall disqualify the property passing to my said wife in the "Grace R. Billups Marital Trust" from the Federal Marital Deduction for estate tax purposes, then that provision or provisions shall be null and void. It is my intention herein to give my estate the maximum marital deduction by law.

ITEM XV

It is my desire that as far as practicable the wishes and desires of the members of and descendants of my family be considered and following on all trust matters pertaining to stock in the Billups Companies, but the final decision will rest with the trustees.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, this the 28th day of October, 1959, in the presence of Mary R. Locke and Edith M. Lee who, at my request and in my presence and in the presence of each other, have subscribed their names as witnesses to this my Last Will and Testament.

No. 12,740

C. D. SAUNDERS AND W. H. MONTJOY, CO-EXECUTORS

FINAL DECREE

On this day this cause came on to be heard on the sworn petition of C. D. Saunders and W. H. Montjoy, Co-Executors of the Estate, and under the last will and testament, of Rowell A. Billups, Deceased, and the Court having carefully examined the Petition for Final Decree, the exhibits attached thereto, proof of publication of notice to creditors, having heard the evidence and being duly advised in the premises, finds as follows, to-wit:

That Rowell A. Billups departed this life in the City of Baton Rouge, East Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana, on the 9th day of May, 1960, having at that time a fixed place of residence in the City of Greenwood, in Leflore County, Mississippi, leaving a last will and testament and naming therein as Co-Executors of his Estate C. D. Saunders and W. H. Montjoy, both of Greenwood, Mississippi, and by the terms of his said last will and testament providing that said Co-Executors should be relieved of the necessity of giving bond and/or of making any accounting or report to any court as such executors; and

That the said C. D. Saunders and W. H. Montjoy duly qualified as Co-Executors of the Estate of Rowell A. Billups, Deceased, on the 20th day of May, 1960, when the last will and testament of the deceased was admitted to probate by this court and duly recorded in Will Book No. 8, at pages 299, et seq, in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Leflore County, Mississippi, said decree authorizing and directing the issuance of Letters Testamentary being recorded in Book 43, at pages 470, et seq, of the Minutes of this court; and

That, following their appointment and qualification as Co-Executors of this estate, said C. D. Saunders and W. H. Montjoy caused notice to be given to creditors of the deceased to probate their claims and have the same registered against said estate by publishing such notice in the Greenwood Commonwealth, a newspaper published and having a general circulation in Leflore County, Mississippi, in its issues of May 20, May 27 and June 3, 1960, respectively, as shown by proof of such publication filed among the papers of this cause on June 11, 1960 and the time for the probate of any such claims has expired; that only one claim was probated against said estate, said claim having been filed and probated by the Equitable Life Assurance Society, which claim was subsequently withdrawn from probate on petition of said Equitable Life Assurance Society, and by order of this Court dated February 4, 1961 and recorded in Book 45, at pages 37, et seq, of the Minutes of this court; and that therefore there are no unpaid probated claims against this estate; and

That said Co-Executors have collected all of the assets of said estate and have paid all of the expenses of the last illness and interment of the deceased; that all inheritance and/or estate taxes imposed by the Estate Tax Laws of the State of Mississippi and the United States Government upon this estate and upon the Co-Executors thereof which have become payable, have been paid in full, as evidenced by certificates and vouchers of the State Tax Commissioner of the State of Mississippi and the Treasury Department of the United States exhibited with the original petition now on file herein; and

That the only persons having an interest in this estate and in the last will and testament of said Rowell A. Billups, Deceased, are the following named:

S. D. Saunders, 805 Poplar Street, Greenwood, Mississippi, W. H. Montjoy, 308 East Monroe Street, Greenwood, Mississippi, and Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, Jackson, Mississippi, Trustees of the "Grace R. Billups Marital Trust" and of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust" as both of said Trusts are set forth in and created by the last will and testament of the said Rowell A. Billups, Deceased;

all of whom joined in the original petition for final decree now on file herein, including the prayer thereof;

That this estate and the last will and testament of the said Rowell A.
Billups, deceased, has been fully administered and executed and the only acts remaining to be done are for the Co-Executors to pay over and deliver to those entitled thereto the specific devises mentioned in said last will and testament, as hereinafter directed, to pay the unpaid and accrued costs of court herein, to pay whatever expenses have been incurred in the administration of this estate which remain unpaid, including the firm of Taylor, Powell, Wilson & Hartford, distribute the balance of the assets of this estate to the devisees named in the last will and testament of the said testator as hereinafter directed;

And the Court being of the opinion that the allegations of the petition for this final decree are true and correct as therein set forth and that the prayer of said petition should be granted; that the Co-Executors have fully executed the last will and testament of the said Rowell A. Billups, deceased, in accordance with the terms thereof; and that this estate has been fully and completely administered;

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREEED AS FOLLOWS:

1. That under the terms and provisions of the said last will and testament of Rowell A. Billups, deceased, and as prayed for in the petition for final decree now on file herein, a final accounting herein by the Co-Executors of this estate is hereby waived;

2. That all of the right, title and interest in and to that certain real property owned by the said Rowell A. Billups at the time of his death, known as and designated his "Pleasant Lake Plantation", located in Sections 10, 11, 12 and 13, Township 18 North, Range 1 East, in Leflore County, Mississippi, be, and the same is hereby declared to vest in said testator's daughter, Alleta B. Saunders, for and during her natural life, upon the death of the said Alleta B. Saunders the same to become a part of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust", as set forth in the last will and testament of said testator, if the said testator's widow, Grace R. Billups, be then still alive, otherwise, the same to become a part of the "Rowell A. Billups Family Trust", which is here identified as an intervivos trust created by the said Rowell A. Billups by trust agreement dated October 29, 1959, in which W. H. Montjoy, C. D. Saunders and Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, of Jackson, Mississippi, are named as Trustees thereof;

3. That the indebtedness due and payable to the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, secured by a first deed of trust and lien on said "Pleasant Lake Plantation", the principal balance due on which amounts to $27,707.77 at this time, be, and the same is hereby declared to be an indebtedness of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust", and is to be paid, when and as the same matures, by said Trust;

4. That the delivery by the Co-Executors of this estate of the farming tools, implements and equipment, used and owned by the testator in connection with the operation of his "Pleasant Lake Plantation", to Alleta B. Saunders, as her sole and individual property, be, and the same is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved;

5. That, in accordance with the express wishes of Grace R. Billups and Alleta B. Saunders, the sole and only heirs at law of Rowell A. Billups, deceased, through the civil law of that state, rather than under the terms of the last will and testament of the testator and the law of the State of Mississippi, is hereby approved, and that said Grace R. Billups and Alleta B. Saunders, as expeditiously as is possible, by whatever acts of sale or conveyance are necessary under the laws of the State of Louisiana, convey to C. D. Saunders and W. H. A. Billups, and (e) Certificate #30 for 325 shares of stock of Houma Motor Company, Inc., a Louisiana corporation, registered in the name of Grace R. Billups, it being noted here for information purposes only that the Louisiana Trust Statute denies banking corporations located in states other than Louisiana the right of administering trust property located in said state of Louisiana, therefore the individual trustees of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust" only may administer the corpus of such trust having its situs within the state of Louisiana;

7. That, in order to clarify and evidence her individual indebtedness, to this estate Alleta B. Saunders execute and deliver her two promissory notes to the Executors of this estate, both dated May 1, 1963, bearing interest at the rate of two and one-half (2 1/2) per centum per annum, and being due and payable Billups Marital Trust", which will consist of the maximum value of property, but no more, that might be deducted from the testator's estate as the marital deduction under the applicable Internal Revenue Code of the United States, having indicated her wishes in such respect in the petition for a final decree now on file herein, the various properties listed and described in "EXHIBIT A" attached to this decree and made a part hereof, be conveyed, transferred and delivered as expeditiously as possible by the Co-Executors of this estate, and by whatever means are necessary and proper, to C. D. Saunders, W. H. Montjoy, and Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, Jackson, Mississippi, Co-Trustees of the "Grace R. Billups Marital Trust";

9. That the activation of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust" as shown by the acceptance of the duties and responsibilities thereof by the signatures of the three Trustees thereof on the petition for final decree herein, be ratified, confirmed and approved;

H. Montjoy, and Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, Jackson, Mississippi, Co-Trustees of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust"; and said various properties are to be conveyed, transferred and delivered as expeditiously as possible by the Co-Executors of this estate and by whatever means are necessary and proper, to C. D. Saunders, W. H. Montjoy and Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, Co-Trustees of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust";

11. That upon agreement of all of the parties interested in this estate, the Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, Jackson, Mississippi, is hereby designated Custodian-Trustee of both the "Grace R. Billups Marital Trust" and of the "Rowell A. Billups Residuary Trust", that is to say, said Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company shall be the custodian, acting for and on behalf of all of the three named Trustees of said Trusts, of all papers, documents, files, account records, and properties owned by and pertaining to said Trusts, until further ordered by this Court or by agreement of a majority of said Trustees;

12. That upon the filing of receipt vouchers representing the distribution of the assets belonging to this estate as hereinabove ordered, such receipt vouchers from and of the "Grace R. Billups Marital Trust" and the "Rowell A.
