IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF
MRS. ROSA F. PURVIANCE, DECEASED

No. 19-170

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
COUNTY OF MADISON

In the matter of a certain instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Rosa F. Purviance, deceased, late of Madison County, Mississippi.

Personally appeared before the undersigned authority in and for the jurisdiction aforesaid James S. Weatherby and Mrs. Mattie F. White, both adult, resident citizens of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, who, being duly sworn, deposed and said that they have been employed by The First National Bank of Canton, Mississippi, for more than 30 years each, and doing that period of employment had occasion to observe the handwriting of Mrs. Rosa F. Purviance many times, and therefore, are very familiar with it. They have studied the instrument of writing, being the handwriting of Mrs. Rosa F. Purviance, and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said Mrs. Rosa F. Purviance, and do state, hereby, that the instrument, dated "Aug 24th, 1963" wholly and written and signed "Rosa F. Purviance" is the handwriting of Mrs. Rosa F. Purviance.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MRS. PORTER M. ANDERSON

I, Mrs. Porter M. Anderson of Shaw, Bolivar County, Mississippi, and also being one and the same person as Mrs. Portia M. Anderson, being more than 21 years of age and of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me.

ITEM 1:

I desire all of my just debts, expenses during my last illness, funeral expenses and the expenses of the administration of my estate to be paid out of my estate as soon after my death as proper, except I have made specific stipulations herein in regard to the payment of taxes and special assessments which I, or my estate, may owe.

ITEM 2:

I hereby give, devise and bequeath my home in the Town of Shaw, Bolivar County, Mississippi, to my sisters, Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss and Mrs. Myrtle Fry, share and share alike, and that they assume and pay such ad valorem taxes and special assessments as may be levied and assessed against the said property during the year of my death, and thereby relieve my estate from paying same.

ITEM 3:

I give and bequeath the contents of my home to the following:

(a) The furniture, fixtures and equipment in the living room to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss;

(b) The furniture, fixtures and equipment in the large bedroom, now occupied by me, and my silver pitcher, and silver tray and six silver goblets to said Mrs. Myrtle Fry.

Mrs. Porter M. Anderson Page One

(c) My chest of flat silver and my silver teapot to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss;

(d) All the rest and residue of such furniture, fixtures and equipment located in my home, or belonging thereto, to be divided equally between Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss and Mrs. Myrtle Fry, share and share alike.

ITEM 4:

I hereby give and bequeath the following articles of jewelry to the following persons:

(a) To Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss my diamond ring with the largest small diamonds on each side of the large center stone;

(b) To Mrs. Myrtle Fry my other diamond ring with one large center stone and smaller stones on each side, the little stones being slightly smaller than the small stones in the ring hereinabove bequeathed to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss;

(c) To Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss my dinner ring with five diamonds;

(d) To Mrs. Myrtle Fry my bar pin with three diamonds.

ITEM 5:

I hereby give and bequeath all funds, accounts, shares and deposits owned by me, or payable to me at, or by the Leader Federal Savings and Loan Association of Memphis, Tennessee, or at or by Farm and Home Savings and Loan Association of San Antonio, Texas, to my two sisters, Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss and Mrs. Myrtle Fry, share and share alike.

ITEM 6:

I hereby devise and bequeath all Oil stocks, leases, and contracts, and all dividends, issues and profits therefrom owned by me at my death to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss.

Wm. Porter W. Anderson

ITEM 7:

I hereby give and bequeath any and all accounts, funds and deposits payable to me at my death by Staple Cotton Discount Corporation, or Staple Cotton Association to said Mrs. Myrtle Fry.

ITEM 8:

I hereby give and bequeath all cash money on hand and all funds deposited in all banks, after the payment of my just debts, expenses during my last illness, funeral expenses and the expenses of the administration of my estate, to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss and Mrs. Myrtle Fry, share and share alike.

ITEM 9:

I hereby give and bequeath my automobile to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss.

ITEM 10:

I hereby give and bequeath all of my purely personal articles, such as clothing and other personal articles, to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss and Mrs. Myrtle Fry to be divided by them.

ITEM 11:

I hereby give, devise and bequeath all of the rest and residue of all real and personal property owned by me at my death, not herein bequeathed and devised, to said Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss and Mrs. Myrtle Fry, share and share alike.

ITEM 12:

I hereby appoint my sister, Mrs. Lellie M. Ferriss, as the executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, and I hereby stipulate that she need not make bond or file inventory or appraisal of my estate, or make an accounting to the Court as such executrix.

ITEM 13:

I hereby stipulate that my executrix herein named, or any successor to her, shall have the right, power and authority to negotiate, make, execute and accept all agreements, settlements, leases, contracts, releases, promissory notes, deeds, deeds of trust, mortgages, or other documents, and acknowledge such as necessary to be acknowledged, and to do all other acts and things deemed to be necessary to handle, administer and close my estate, without consulting or obtaining the consent of any beneficiary herein or any Court.

Mrs. Porter D. Anderson

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this my Last Will and Testament, in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, on this the 19 day of January, 1961.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of

19-187

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, Minnie W. Walker, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, being above the age of twenty-one years, and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby specifically revoking any and all other instruments of like nature, and codicils thereto, heretofore made, or purporting to have been made by me.

ITEM I

I direct the prompt payment of my just debts and funeral expenses.

ITEM II

To the following named persons I give and bequeath, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this clause, the articles opposite their names below, to-wit:

To John B. Howell, III - - - - - My one carat solitaire diamond ring and my small wedding band with five stones.

To Monroe Howell - - - - - My large diamond wedding band and all shot-guns that I may own at the time of my death.

To Margaret Gilchrist Howell - - - My Irish coffee cups and diamond earrings.

To Kathrine Montgomery Howell - - - My diamond bracelet and diamond wristwatch.

To Natty Howell Royal - - - - - My silver tea set including coffee pot, sugar bowl, cream pitcher and tray.

To Margaret Gilchrist Howell and Kathrine Montgomery Howell, share and share alike - - - - - All of my crystal and my chest of silver.

To Florence N. Cook - - - - - My diamond dinner ring.

The legatees named above, except Florence N. Cook, are children of my good friends, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Howell of Canton, Mississippi, and if any of the aforesaid legatees shall die at the time of my death, have attained his or her majority, then the share of such minor legatee the property bequeathed to such minor shall pass and go to the aforesaid parents of such minor, or the surviving parent, as trustees. IN WITNESS, for the use and benefit of such minor during his or her minority and upon such minor reaching his or her majority then the property bequeathed to such minor shall be delivered to him or her and the trustees.

to such minor shall then terminate. Should any of the aforesaid minor legatees die prior to reaching majority and during said trust, then the trustees may make distribution of the trust property of such deceased minor to the surviving children as they may determine. The trustees herein named may in their discretion permit any of the trust property to be used by the beneficiary of the trust during his or her minority at such times and on such occasions as the trustees think advisable and shall care for, manage and control the trust property in such manner as they think best and proper and said trustees shall not be required to give bond or account to any court.

ITEM III

All of the rest, residue, and remainder of my property, real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, I will, devise, and bequeath unto my niece, Dorothy Watson Everson, of Balboa, Canal Zone.

ITEM IV

I name, constitute, and appoint Joe R. Fancher, Jr., as executor of this my last will and testament and direct that no bond be required of him as executor hereunder.

#19.189

I, INNIS PRICE, of Canton, Mississippi, being of lawful age and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking any and all Wills by me heretofore made. I make this Will as I deem it prudent and best that written disposition be made concerning my real and personal property in the event of my decease. My Last Will is:

ITEM I. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after my decease.

ITEM II. It is my desire, before any of my estate is divided or bequeathed, that my beloved son, Douglas Price, receive the sum of Two Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($2700.00) which he had advanced and loaned to me to make a mortgage payment.

ITEM III. It is my desire and I hereby devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal property, mixed or otherwise, and wherever same may be situated, to my beloved children, Christopher, Douglas, Eddie, Dorothy, Girtha, Evelyn, Innis, Jr. and Lula, to be divided amongst them equally, share and share alike, or to the survivors thereof in equal shares.

ITEM IV. I hereby appoint and nominate my beloved son, Christopher C. Price, as the Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament, and request that no bond be required of him. I hereby grant to my Executor full power and authority to sell and convey all or any part of my estate, personal or mixed, upon such terms and at such prices as my said Executor may deem proper, and without obtaining any order of Court therefor. I also grant to my said Executor full power and authority in the settlement of my estate, to compromise, compound, adjust and settle any and all debts and liabilities due to or from my estate, for such sums and upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as my said Executor shall deem best.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this, my Last Will and Testament, this 19 day of July, 1965.

Affidavit of subscribing witnesses.

This day personally appeared before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi, Vivian Q. Montgomery and Herbert Weems, two of the subscribing witnesses to a certain instrument of writing purporting to be a codicil to an original will executed by him and his wife upon May 18, 1953, each of whom, first having been by me duly sworn, did depose and say that the said Walter Edward Cope, speaking for himself, signed, published and declared said instrument as such codicil, upon July 7, 1962, in the presence of these affiants and of Eula W. Stennett, the other subscribing witness; that said Testator was then of sound and disposing mind and memory, and above the age of twenty-one years; that they signed as witnesses at his special instance and request, in his presence and in the presence of each other.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

COUNTY OF MADISON

I, MRS. DOROTHY P. CRAWFORD, an adult resident citizen of Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and over the age of twenty one years, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE

It is my will and desire that all my just debts, legally probated, be paid as soon after my death as practical.

ITEM TWO

I bequeath to Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, my personal daily diaries which I have kept for a number of years and which I hope will be of value to said beneficiary.

ITEM THREE

I bequeath to Virgie P. Buch, of Denver Colorado, Maxie P. Pratt, of Topeka, Kansas, Dorothy P. Thunon, now or formerly of Hanford, California, Ruth P. Zoger, of Cayohaga Falls, Ohio, and My sister in law, Virginia S. Painter, certain personal items, jewelry and furniture, known to my brother, B. D. Painter, my executor hereinafter named, and hereby vest in my said executor full discretion as to the selection and distribution of said items.

ITEM FOUR

All the residue of my estate, real, mixed and personal, where-soever situated or located, I will, devise and bequeath to my brother, B. D. Painter, of Topeka, Kansas and Andy Crawford, Rolling Fork, Mississippi, brother of my deceased husband, share and share alike.

BOOK 11 360

ITEM FIVE

I name, constitute and appoint my brother, B. D. Painter, Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, hereby waiving, as a requisite to his qualifying and serving in said capacity the necessity of executing any bond and waiving also appraisement and all requirement that he report or account to any court.

SIGNED, PUBLISHED AND DECLARED by me as my last will and testament on this the 5th day of December, 1966, in the presence of the undersigned witnesses who, at my request, in my presence and in the presence of each other have hereto subscribed their names as such witnesses.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, L. S. YOUNGBLOOD, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, whose full name is Laurence Snow Youngblood, being of sound and disposing mind, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I hereby revoke and cancel all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

1.1 I hereby declare that I am married, that my wife's name is Loyce Youngblood, and that I have no children.

ARTICLE II

Debts

2.1 In addition to such other debts and costs which he is required to pay, I authorize my Executor to pay costs of ancillary administration, expenses of my last illness and funeral. In the payment of debts, taxes and all other claims against my estate, my Executor is directed to make such payments first from those assets described in paragraph 6.1 herein; and if such assets are not sufficient, such payments shall be made from those assets described in paragraph 8.1 herein.

2.2 My Executor is authorized to elect to claim as a deduction for all income tax purposes any items of administration expense which are deductible alternatively for any estate tax purposes, and if he elects to do so, no adjustment shall be made between principal and income.

2.3 My Executor is authorized to join with my wife in filing joint income and/or gift tax returns for any period for which such a joint return may be filed, and in his sole discretion, to pay out of my general estate any part or all of the taxes or interest found to be due with respect to such returns.

ARTICLE III

Household Effects

3.1 I hereby declare that all household effects, including, but not limited to, furnishings, fixtures, appliances, silver, linen, crystal, china, and paintings which have been acquired during the course of my marriage to Loyce Youngblood, are the property of my wife, Loyce Youngblood, having either been purchased by her or having been given to her from time to time as purchased by me or by others.

ARTICLE IV

Devises and Bequests

4.1 I give and devise the real estate and improvements being used by me as my home at the time of my death to my wife, Loyce Youngblood, in fee simple absolute, if she is living at my death, but if she is not living at my death, this devise shall be void and said property shall go instead as a part of the residue of my estate.

4.2 I bequeath all of my tangible personal property of personal use and adornment and of household use and adornment to my wife, Loyce Youngblood, if she is living at my death. If she is not living at my death, then I direct that my Executor shall distribute such items of tangible personal property among my heirs in a manner that he, my Executor, considers to be proper, taking into account the desires of such legatees. The judgment of my Executor in such distribution and in the classification of tangible personal property of personal use and adornment and of household use and adornment being final.

4.3 If my wife is living at my death, I bequeath to her all of the money and intangible personal property not hereinafter excepted, which I own at my death, including but not limited to cash, proceeds of insurance payable to my estate, insurance policies, bank deposits, corporate stock, corporate and governmental bonds, or other corporate and governmental obligations and securities. Excepted from this bequest shall be my interest in Youngblood & Youngblood, a partnership; "Type B" assets described in Article V and bequeathed in trust by Article VI herein; any personal property standing in my name which is owned by me as a nominee or fiduciary, or in some other non-representative capacity, such as property or funds held by me for Youngblood & Youngblood, a partnership, and any interest in mineral property, whether or not such interest is otherwise classified as intangible personal property. In identifying and setting aside the properties to be distributed under this bequest, my Executor shall be entitled to rely upon my personal books and records and upon the books and records of Youngblood & Youngblood, a partnership. If my wife is not living at my death, this legacy shall lapse and such property shall become a part of the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE V

Partnership Interest

5.1 At the time of the execution of this will, I am a partner in Youngblood & Youngblood, a partnership consisting of my brother J. Lee Youngblood and myself. According to the terms of our partnership agreement, upon the death of one of the partners, certain assets of the partnership, designated on the books and records of the partnership as "Type B" assets, are to be divided and distributed to the surviving partner and to the estate of the deceased partner in equal shares. The remaining assets of the partnership, designated on the books and records of the partnership as "Type A" assets, are to be retained by the partnership, and such partnership shall continue (with the consent of the personal representative of the deceased partner) without liquidation until the final termination and liquidation of the partnership. I hereby authorize and direct my Executor or my Trustees, or both my Executor and my Trustees, to continue my interest in said partnership until the death of the surviving partner or until the partnership is otherwise terminated under the partnership agreement. Such partnership shall be continued under the management and direction of the surviving partner. My Executor or my Trustees shall have no responsibility to require that distributions be made from such partnership, and shall have no liability for losses to my estate or to a trust estate or to the beneficiaries thereof which might arise as a result of the management of the partnership by the surviving partner. Said partnership agreement also provides that the surviving partner shall have the right to purchase the interest of a deceased partner at a price equal to the fair market value of such interest as it is determined under the provisions of such agreement. I hereby authorize and direct my Executor or my Trustees to make such sale under the terms of such agreement if the surviving partner exercises his right to purchase such interest, and my Executor or Trustees shall be free from liability for any loss arising from any such sale despite the fact that such surviving partner may also be my Executor or may also be one of my Trustees. In the event that I should be the surviving partner in said partnership, I authorize and direct my Executor and my Trustees to perform all acts necessary to the winding up of said partnership and the orderly liquidation of its assets.

ARTICLE VI

Loyce Youngblood Trust No. One

6.1 Whether or not my wife is living at my death, I bequeath to the First National Bank and Trust Company of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and its successors, and to Loyce Youngblood, as co-trustees, all those properties which are described as Type B assets in Article V, herein, to be held in trust as the Trust Estate of the Loyce Youngblood Trust No. One, for the persons and for the purposes as set forth below in paragraph 6.3. In the event that said Type B assets have been distributed by the partnership of Youngblood & Youngblood prior to my death, then I bequeath to such Trustees for such purposes, those assets which I own at the time of my death and which were originally received by me as Type B assets from such partnership or which are assets which have been substituted for or acquired by me from proceeds of sale of any such Type B assets. The determination of my Executor with respect to identifying such Type B assets or assets substituted for Type B assets shall be final.

6.2 In the event that Loyce Youngblood should be unable or unwilling to serve as Trustee, or if after having accepted the appointment, she should resign as Trustee, she shall appoint a Trustee to serve as co-Trustee with the corporate Trustee named herein. She may remove any Trustee appointed by her and thereupon resume the office or appoint another Trustee, and she may do so from time to time as often as she sees fit. In the event that Loyce Youngblood should be unable or unwilling to serve as Trustee and does not appoint a Trustee, or if after having accepted the appointment, she should die or resign as Trustee without having appointed a successor Trustee, my brother, J. Lee Youngblood, shall automatically become Trustee to serve as co-Trustee with the corporate Trustee named herein. When neither Loyce Youngblood, nor her appointed successor, nor my brother, J. Lee Youngblood, be living and willing to serve as Trustee, then the corporate Trustee shall be the sole Trustee. In all other respects, the resignation, removal and succession of Trustees shall be governed by the general provisions contained herein for succession of Trustees.

6.3 Trustees shall distribute the income and principal of the Trust Estate in accordance with the following provisions:

FIRST: All of the income from the entire trust estate shall be paid to Loyce Youngblood during her lifetime, payable quarterly or at more frequent intervals. Such payments shall accrue from the date of my death, shall be payable in all events, and shall not be diminished or impaired by virtue of any power otherwise exercisable by Trustees. In addition thereto, Trustees shall pay a maintenance allowance from principal to or for Loyce Youngblood. Loyce Youngblood shall have the absolute power, during her lifetime, to direct at any time whatever, and from time to time, that Trustees distribute all or any part of the principal of said Trust to her free of trust. Such direction may be made by written instrument signed by Loyce Youngblood and delivered to Trustees. In addition, the said Loyce Youngblood shall have the absolute right to appoint by her will the entire remaining principal and undistributed income of said trust free of trust, to her estate or in favor of any person or persons, and in such lawful estates and interests as she may determine, providing only that such will make specific reference to this power of appointment in exercising it.

SECOND: If Loyce Youngblood should predecease me, or having survived me, should fail to exercise her general power of appointment, or if for any reason she should fail to dispose of the residue of the trust estate, then upon her death, all undistributed principal then remaining shall be held in trust for the living issue of my sister, Anne Hemry, in equal shares on the principal of representation, as current income beneficiaries, in accordance with the general trust provisions contained herein.

ARTICLE VII

Loyce Youngblood Trust No. Two

7.1 If my wife, Loyce Youngblood is living at my death, I devise and bequeath to J. Lee Youngblood and to Loyce Youngblood, as co-Trustees, an undivided interest (to be determined by the formula hereinafter set forth) in my interest in the partnership of Youngblood & Youngblood (after Type B assets have been distributed by such partnership as described in Article V, herein), to be held in trust and distributed to or for the persons and for the purposes as set forth in paragraph 6.3 herein in accordance with the provisions of such paragraph which are applicable in the event that Loyce Youngblood survives me. In the instances of payments to be made from principal, Trustees shall make such payments as directed by Loyce Youngblood, and in the absence of any such direction, Trustees, in their discretion shall determine from which trust such distributions shall be made. In the event that I should own no such partnership interest at the time of my death, or if the value of such interest is not sufficient to equal the maximum federal estate tax marital deduction, then in lieu of such interest or in addition thereto, as the case may be, I devise and bequeath property or properties having a total value equal to the maximum federal estate tax marital deduction as determined by the formula hereinafter set forth. The fractional interest in such partnership interest and the properties to be placed in this trust shall have a total value which will equal the maximum estate tax marital deduction allowable in determining the federal estate tax on my gross estate, diminished by the value of all interests in property, if any, which pass or have passed to my said wife under other provisions of this will, or otherwise than under this will or during my lifetime, including but not limited to any jointly held property, proceeds from insurance on my life, any gifts made to my wife which may be held in contemplation of death, but only to the extent that such interests are for the purposes of the federal estate tax included in determining my gross estate and allowed as a marital deduction. My Executor shall make the division and shall set apart such properties on the basis of the provisions set forth herein and on the basis of the values of such properties as they are set forth and appraised in my estate for federal estate tax purposes, with such adjustments as may be required by a final determination of values for estate tax purposes, except that no such adjustment shall serve to reduce the trust estate of this trust. Any such adjustment caused by an increase in values shall be considered to be an additional bequest and not a satisfaction of this bequest by appreciated property. If my Executor in good faith decides that there is uncertainty as to the inclusion of particular property in my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes, he may, in his discretion, include or exclude such property from my gross estate in the estate tax return. My Executor shall not be personally liable for any loss of my estate, or to any beneficiary or beneficiaries resulting from his decision made in good faith that there is uncertainty as to the inclusion of that particular property in my gross estate, or for his decision made in good faith to include or to exclude any such property. In the event that my wife does not survive me, this Loyce Youngblood Trust No. Two shall not be established, and the properties which would have been placed in such trust shall become a part of the residue of my estate.

7.2 In the event that Loyce Youngblood should be unable or unwilling to serve as Trustee, J. Lee Youngblood shall serve as sole Trustee. In the further event that J. Lee Youngblood should be unable or unwilling to serve as Trustee, or upon his death or resignation after having accepted the office of Trustee, he shall be succeeded automatically by The First National Bank and Trust Company of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, or its successors, to serve as sole Trustee. In all other respects, the resignation, removal and succession of Trustees shall be governed by the general provisions contained herein for succession of Trustees.

ARTICLE VIII

Residuary Trust

8.1 I devise and bequeath all the residue of my estate remaining (after the satisfaction of all devises and bequests hereinabove provided for and after the payment of all debts and taxes as hereinabove provided) to Loyce Youngblood and J. Lee Youngblood as co-Trustees, to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons and for the purposes as hereinafter provided. The succession of Trustees shall be the same as provided for in paragraph 7.2 herein.

8.2 The trust estate of such trust shall be held, used, administered and distributed:

FIRST: For my wife, Loyce Youngblood, as current income beneficiary as long as she shall live. During the lifetime of Loyce Youngblood, Trustees shall, from time to time, and as often as necessary, pay a maintenance allowance to or for Loyce Youngblood, from income or principal of the trust, and, in addition thereto, such other and further sums as Trustees, in their sole discretion, shall determine to be for the best interest of said Loyce Youngblood. Any income not distributed shall be accumulated and added to principal. Upon the death of Loyce Youngblood, Trustees shall pay and distribute all or any part of the principal and accumulated income or continue to hold such funds in trust, to or for the benefit of one or more educational, religious, charitable or scientific organizations or municipalities or to or for the benefit of one or more persons related in any degree to me by blood, adoption or marriage (excluding Loyce Youngblood) to such extent and in such manner or proportions, and in such lawful interests or estates, whether absolute or in trust, including spendthrift trusts, as the said Loyce Youngblood may direct by will, provided that such will makes specific reference to this power of appointment and purports to exercise such power. In no event, however, shall such power of appointment be exercised in favor of the said Loyce Youngblood, her estate, her creditors or the creditors of her estate. Further, during her lifetime, the said Loyce Youngblood shall also have the power to direct Trustees to distribute all or any part of the principal to or for the benefit of one or more of those educational, religious, charitable or scientific organizations or municipalities or other persons related in any degree to me by blood, adoption or marriage (excluding Loyce Youngblood) in whose favor she might appoint by will except that during the lifetime of J. Lee Youngblood such power may be exercised only with the consent of J. Lee Youngblood.

Such direction shall be by written instrument delivered to the Trustee or Trustees then serving.

SECOND: After the death of Loyce Youngblood, then any remaining principal and undistributed income not disposed of during her lifetime and not distributed pursuant to the exercise of her special power of appointment provided for above shall be divided into two parts of equal value. One such part shall be distributed to the Trustees of the Anne Hemry Trust No. 7790 established by trust agreement between Anne Hemry and The First National Bank and Trust Company of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, executed on the 16th day of June, 1959, to be held and administered and distributed in accordance with the terms of said trust agreement whether or not such trust should then be in existence. The other such part shall be distributed free of trust to my brother, J. Lee Youngblood, if he is living at such time, and if he is not living at such time, such part shall be held in trust for the living issue of my sister, Anne Hemry, in equal shares on the principle of representation, as current income beneficiaries in accordance with the general trust provisions contained herein. I make no provision for the dependents of my brother, J. Lee Youngblood, not out of any lack of affection for such persons, but for the reason that my brother has ample means to make provision for them.

ARTICLE IX

General Trust Provisions

9.1 Whenever it is provided in this will that property shall be held in trust for the benefit of the living issue of a designated person, as current income beneficiaries, in accordance with the general trust provisions contained herein, each living child of such person shall be a current income beneficiary of an equal share, and the share of a deceased child shall be held, per stirpes, for the living children of such child, in an indefinite line of succession, as described in paragraphs 18.4, 18.5 and 18.6 herein. Upon the death of the survivor of all issue of the designated person, the remaining trust estate of such trust shall be distributed to or for those persons who are the heirs at law of such issue who is last to die, and distributions shall be made to and among such heirs in the proportions specified by the laws of descent and distribution in effect at such time in the State of Oklahoma as they are applicable to the separate personal property of a person domiciled in the State of Oklahoma dying intestate. During the lifetime of each current income beneficiary, the Trustees shall from time to time and as often as is necessary, pay a maintenance allowance to or for each such current income beneficiary from income or principal of the trust with respect to which such beneficiary is at the time a current income beneficiary, and, in addition to a maintenance allowance, such other and further sums as Trustees, in their sole discretion, shall determine to be for the best interest of such beneficiary. Trustees are authorized, in their discretion, to pay the expense of last illness and funeral of any current income beneficiary upon the death of such beneficiary. Any income not distributed shall be accumulated and added to principal.

9.2 Each trust herein created shall remain in being and the properties thereof held and administered by the Trustees until distributed pursuant to the provisions hereof. At any time when there shall be more than one current income beneficiary of any trust, the Trustees thereof are authorized to separate said trust into as many trusts as there are current income beneficiaries, and to divide such trust into separate trusts having properties or interests in the shares and proportions which are the same as the proportionate rights of the several current income beneficiaries. In the absence of a special provision to the contrary, whenever a maintenance allowance or other distribution may be paid from more than one trust, it shall be made from any one or more of the trusts from which it might be paid, as my Trustees may determine.

9.3 If not sooner terminated under the provisions hereof, each trust shall be terminated and the trust estate thereof distributed to the then current income beneficiary of such trust 21 years after the death of the survivor of my heirs who are living at my death.

ARTICLE X

Special Powers of Trustees

10.1 No beneficiary who is also a Trustee may at any time when acting in the capacity of Trustee, pay or cause to be paid to or for himself or herself, directly or indirectly, any amount which is in excess of the amount then required to be distributed under the terms of this will, and shall make no distributions to or for himself or herself which requires the exercise of discretion, and may not participate in any decision to apply for insurance on his or her life or in decisions as to whether principal or income is to be used for the payment of premiums on any such insurance and shall have no power to change the beneficial ownership in any such policy or its proceeds or the time or manner of enjoyment thereof. No such Trustee shall have any voice in making a determination with respect to making any such distribution, the taking out of such insurance or the payment of such premiums or control of any such policy, but the Trustee or Trustees not beneficially interested in the distribution or decision shall make each and every determination as to such payments and decisions.

10.2 Trustees are authorized to hold and maintain any real property, or with funds of the trust to purchase and so hold for the use and benefit of any current income beneficiary, a residence or residences suitable to the station in life of such beneficiary, and at such place or places as shall be most suitable for the use of such beneficiary, and, in connection therewith, to purchase and install therein or repair or replace all items of furniture, appliances, fixtures, utensils, equipment and decoration, and other things reasonably expected to be found in such a residence, and to maintain constantly such home as a suitable place for said beneficiary or beneficiaries to live, such residence and all items therein to be and to remain the property of the trust or trusts furnishing funds therefor, and to be subject at all times to the powers and control of the Trustees.

10.3 Trustees are authorized in their discretion to permit any current income beneficiary to possess, use and enjoy, without charge or impeachment for waste, any tangible property, real or personal, of the Trust Estate.

10.4 The Trustees hereunder are authorized and empowered to allocate receipts and disbursements between corpus and income and to allocate items of income and items of deduction in any manner in which they see fit, so that any part of any item may be apportioned to or among the fiduciary and the beneficiaries, or each or any of them. By this provision, it is not intended to enlarge or diminish the instructions with respect to the amount to be distributed, but it is intended to authorize the Trustees to allocate and determine the type, character and source of funds to be distributed, or of the funds to be retained by the Trustees. By way of example, any appropriate tax deduction may be apportioned and allocated in such manner as Trustees see fit.

10.5 Trustees may terminate any trust created hereunder at any time when, in the judgment of the Trustees, the Trust Estate is too small to justify management as a trust, or the Trust otherwise should be terminated.

Upon any termination hereunder, the funds and properties of the terminated trust shall be paid and distributed to or for those persons then living who are entitled to such benefit as determined in the order of preference and under the principles above stated. No person whose enjoyment of his rights or benefits hereunder as a contingent beneficiary then depends upon the happening of a contingency, which contingency has not happened at the time shall be entitled to share in any distribution. The power to terminate may not be exercised by any Trustee who, as a beneficiary or otherwise, would share in the property distributed.

10.6 The happening of any event or change of conditions affecting the distribution of income or principal of the Trust Estate shall be binding upon and affect the liability of the Trustees only from the time Trustees receive written notice or acquire actual knowledge thereof.

10.7 Trustees are authorized to determine who are entitled to distributions and amounts thereof, including determination, without court action, of pedigree, heirship and facts and dates of marriage, birth and death, without liability for error in the absence of bad faith. The power and exoneration of Trustees herein shall not prohibit any beneficiary from following the assets of the Trust Estate in the assertion of his rights.

ARTICLE XI

Management Powers

11.1 The Trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to (a) purchase, sell, own, hold, manage, mortgage, pledge and otherwise deal with or in the property, real or personal, or any part thereof, at any time being subject to the terms hereof, upon such terms as they see fit and without restriction of any kind whatever; (b) convey, mortgage, assign or lease any such property or part thereof, with or without warranty of title, including specific authority to enter into valid and binding oil, gas and other mineral leases, contracts or mortgages, the terms of which may extend beyond the termination of trusts created hereunder; (c) vote any stock held by them in person or by proxy without liability; (d) hold real estate or stock or any other property in the name of any nominee selected by them; (e) contract for and on behalf of the trusts in any way they see fit; (f) compromise, contest or arbitrate any and all claims of or against the Trust Estate, any trust of the Trustees as such; (g) abandon any property deemed by them to be burdensome or valueless; (h) pay calls, assessments and any other sums chargeable, or accrued against, or on account of, shares of stock or other securities in the hands of the Trustees; (i) sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights, participate in foreclosures, reorganizations, consolidations, mergers, liquidations, pooling agreements and voting trusts; (j) take out and maintain on the life of any beneficiary or any Trustee of any trust, life insurance or any other kind or kinds of insurance for the benefit of the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the trust, or the Trust Estate, in such amount as the Trustees, in their uncontrolled discretion shall deem advisable; (k) pay any and all premiums or other charges on any such insurance out of the trust for the benefit thereof; (l) pay out of the Trust Estate all expenses or costs of every kind or character incurred in performing their duties as Trustees; (m) execute and deliver any deed or other instrument deemed by them necessary and proper in the exercise of any power herein granted; (n) manage, invest and deal with the properties of the trusts herein created as one or more common funds, so far as the investment and management are concerned, and to deal with or distribute the portions to the separate trusts as undivided interests, or to divide the same in kind, all in proportion to the investments for each of the separate trusts; (o) continue to operate, either solely or in conjunction with others, any business operation, partnership, joint venture or other enterprise of any nature in which I may be interested at the time of my decease, and to the best interest of my estate and the Trust Estate, with full power to incorporate such business or to execute or join in any plan of refinancing, merger, consolidation or reorganization thereof, with full power to borrow money as Trustees deem advisable for the purposes thereof and with authority to hire such employees and agents as are reasonably necessary to operate such business, and to charge their wages or salaries as an operating expense of said business, it being my intention that my Trustees shall, in their discretion, be able to manage and operate such business exactly as I could do and without liability for any losses incurred therein except those arising from bad faith or negligence; (p) retain either permanently or temporarily any property, business investments or securities of any nature, held by me at the time of my decease, or acquired by any predecessor Trustee, without liability to my estate or the Trust Estate for any loss ensuing thereto by reason of such retention; this shall specifically include, but not be limited to, any stock in any bank which is or may become a Trustee hereunder; (q) acquire by purchase, exchange or otherwise, property, real or personal, from or lend money to the Executor, Administrator or Testamentary Trustee of the estate of any beneficiary of any trust created herein, provided that any such purchase or exchange must be on the basis of the fair value of the property as appraised in the estate. Trustee shall incur no liability as to the result of such purchase or exchange, or for the retention of such an investment, although such sale, purchase or loan may not be an investment or transaction of the character prescribed by law for the investment of other trust funds, although such a transaction may result in a large percentage of the Trust Estate being invested in one class of property, and although Trustees may be Trustees of both trusts to the transaction or a Trustee may be an Executor or Administrator of the estate which may be party to the transaction; and (r) for the benefit of the Trust Estate to do or perform any act with respect to the properties thereof which could be done pursuant to or under the Oklahoma Trust Act, or the Texas Trust Act, as now enacted or as later amended, or by any absolute owner thereof, without limitation by any construction because of the specific powers enumerated in this paragraph. No power granted under the terms of this will may be exercised to impair the right of Loyce Youngblood to income under the Loyce Youngblood Trusts Nos. One and Two, or to impair her general power of appointment under such trust.

11.2 Any investment in corporate stock or bonds, or in any business association will not be deemed to be improper for the reason that any Trustee may own stocks or bonds of the same corporation, or have any interest in the business association, or be employed in any capacity by such corporation or business association. Such Trustee shall not be required to account to the trust for his salary, or other compensation, received from such corporation or business association.

11.3 Pursuant to the provisions of Title 60, Section 175.21 of the Oklahoma Compiled Statutes of 1961, Testator hereby declares that Trustees shall be relieved from all of the duties, restrictions and liabilities imposed by Sections 175.1 through 175.53 of Title 60 of the Oklahoma Compiled Statutes of 1961, as now enacted or as later amended; and specifically without limiting this general relief from duties, restrictions and liabilities, Trustees shall, to the extent permitted by law, be relieved of those duties, restrictions and liabilities imposed by Sections 175.9, 175.11, 175.12 and 175.13 of Title 60 of the Oklahoma Compiled Statutes of 1961, as now enacted or as later amended.

11.4 Trustees shall be permitted, for the benefit of the trust, to buy or to sell trust property from or to a partnership or other business association of which one or more Trustees may be a partner or member, or with which one or more Trustees may be otherwise associated.

11.5 Despite the broad powers set forth above, Trustees shall not have the power or authority to participate and invest in any common trust fund.

ARTICLE XII

Distributions to Minors or Incompetents

12.1 Trustees shall make the distribution provided for with respect to all trusts created pursuant to this will, and provided for by the exercise of any power of appointment created by this will, and if any person entitled to receive a distribution is a minor or an incompetent, Trustees may make said distribution either to said person or to the use of the person by making such payment to the parent or guardian of such person, or by applying the same for the benefit of such person. A receipt of such parent or guardian, or evidence of the expenditure of such money for the benefit of such person, shall be a full and sufficient discharge for any such payments whether or not there be any legal guardian for such person at the time of any such payment. This provision shall not be construed, however, so as to impair the right of Loyce Youngblood to income under the Loyce Youngblood Trusts Nos. One and Two.

ARTICLE XIII

Distributions in Kind

13.1 In any case in which Trustees, or the Executor, or the Trustees and Executor, are required to divide the principal or income of my estate or of the Trust Estates created hereby into parts or shares, or to distribute the same, they are authorized and empowered in their sole discretion to make division or distribution in kind, or partly in kind and partly in money, or by granting undivided interests, except as otherwise provided herein. The judgment of the Trustees and of the Executor, concerning the values or the propriety of such divisions or distribution of the property or securities shall be binding and conclusive on all parties.

ARTICLE XIV

Bond - Care - Accounting - Compensation

14.1 The Trustees shall be obligated to exercise only ordinary care in the performance of their duties hereunder, and no bond shall be required of the Trustees. The Trustees are hereby relieved to the full extent permitted by law from any and all the restrictions and liabilities with respect to the investment of funds imposed upon Trustees by the law of the state in which the properties may be situated, or the law of any other state applicable.

14.2 Trustees shall not be required to report to any court, provided, however, that nothing in this instrument shall be construed as limiting or otherwise affecting the jurisdiction of a court of equity with respect to any trust created pursuant to this instrument, where the aid of such court is sought by a trustee or beneficiary for or with respect to the interpretation and construction of this trust instrument, the enforcement of the obligations of Trustees, or enforcement of the right of beneficiaries to require Trustees from time to time to render an accounting with respect to the Trust Estate.

14.3 Any accounting by a Trustee, whether or not associated with resignation or removal of a Trustee, shall be binding upon all present or future beneficiaries, if such accounting is approved by the current income beneficiary, or by all current income beneficiaries if there be more than one, of the trust involved.

14.4 Trustees shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the management and distribution of the Trust Estate and shall receive reasonable and customary compensation for services. Any Trustee may, however, waive the right to compensation.

ARTICLE XV

Transfers to the Trust Estate

15.1 Any person or corporation, whether or not a beneficiary, may transfer any property of any kind or character to the Trustees of any Trust created by or pursuant to this will, and the property so transferred or conveyed shall be and become a part of the trust estate designated in such transfer exactly as though it had been specifically described in and assigned and transferred to the Trustees in this will, and said property and all income, proceeds or accruals thereof shall be included in the term "Trust Estate".

ARTICLE XVI

Invalid Provisions

16.1 In the event any clause, provision or provisions of this will prove to be adjudged invalid or void for any reason, such invalid or void clause, provision or provisions shall not affect the whole of this instrument, but the balance of the provisions hereof will remain operative, to be carried into effect insofar as legally possible.

ARTICLE XVII

Powers of Appointment Not Exercised

17.1 In the event that I hold any power of appointment at the time of my death, I hereby decline to exercise any such power of appointment, and the property subject to any such power shall not be considered to be a part of the residue of my estate for the purposes of this will.

ARTICLE XVIII

Definitions

18.1 Whenever used in this instrument the words and terms in this article indicated shall be deemed and construed to have the meaning as set forth below:

18.2 "Individual Trustee" or "Individual Trustees" shall mean and include Loyce Youngblood and J. Lee Youngblood and any individual successors to their respective offices.

18.3 "Corporate Trustee" shall mean and include The First National Bank and Trust Company of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, or its successor or any bank or trust company which shall become a Trustee or co-Trustee hereunder. Any "Corporate Trustee" shall be a banking association or banking corporation having trust powers and having a paid in capital of not less than $5,000,000.

18.4 "Issue" shall mean and include children and children of deceased children, in an indefinite line of succession, born of lawful marriage or adopted in the manner provided by the statutes where the adoption occurred, whether born or adopted before or after the execution of this will.

18.5 Whenever provision is made for the benefit of the issue of a named or designated person, it is made with the intention and purpose of providing for issue in an indefinite line of succession. Upon the death of any beneficiary, the share formerly held for such deceased beneficiary is to be held and distributed for the issue of such beneficiary, so long as any such issue shall survive, and such share shall not inure to the benefit of the surviving members of the group of which such deceased beneficiary was a member except to the extent that a different intention is clearly expressed herein.

18.6 When provision is made herein for the benefit of the issue of a designated person, in equal shares on the principle of representation, it is intended that the children of the designated person living at his or her death shall take in equal shares, and the issue of any deceased child shall represent the child so deceased and take, per stirpes, the share which said child so deceased would have been entitled to receive if living.

18.7 Any child adopted in the manner prescribed by the statutes of the state where the adoption occurred, or occurs, shall be considered and treated as the issue of the parent who adopted such child and of the ancestors of such parent, provided, only, that the fact of such adoption shall be evidenced by writing signed by such parent or by a decree or certificate made and executed by a judge, court or other governmental body or agency having jurisdiction with respect thereto. Further, for the purposes of this will, the natural parents or any other person related by blood in any degree to any adopted child, except the issue of such adopted child, shall not be considered to be heirs of such adopted child, or as having any other relationship to such adopted child, and shall receive no benefit whatever under the terms of this will.

18.8 A "current income beneficiary" is with respect to each trust, a person or persons who would be entitled to receive a maintenance allowance if the need therefor existed, whether or not the need therefor exists or payments are being currently made at the time the classifications as a current income beneficiary is required to be made for any purpose.

18.9 "Maintenance allowance" shall mean such sums of money as shall be necessary to provide maintenance, education and support in the manner to which the beneficiary has been accustomed to the extent that funds for such purposes are not readily available to such beneficiary from other sources. Except in the instance of a Trustee who is also a beneficiary, Trustees are advised to be liberal in the application of such standard, and to take into account the difficulties, disadvantages, financial embarrassment and loss which might be incident to the use of other funds available to the beneficiary. The objective of preserving principal for distribution to future beneficiaries shall be secondary in importance to the objective of providing full support and maintenance to the current beneficiary entitled thereto.

18.10 When any pronoun is used herein to indicate a fiduciary or a beneficiary, it is used to indicate the one or ones then acting or existing as indicated by the context, as the case may be, without distinction by reason of the gender of the pronoun used, or by reason of its use in the singular or plural form.

18.11 All references herein to "Executor" shall, where appropriate, be construed to include "Executrix".

18.12 All references herein to "Trustee" or "Trustees" shall, where appropriate, be construed to include the singular as well as the plural.

ARTICLE XIX

Spendthrift Trusts

19.1 Each trust which is created pursuant to the provisions of my will shall be a spendthrift trust and is to be governed, construed and administered according to Oklahoma laws, and shall continue to be so governed, construed and administered even though administered elsewhere in the United States, or abroad. The interest of the beneficiary in the income and principal thereof shall not be subject to assignment, sale, mortgage, pledge or anticipation in any way, or any voluntary or involuntary alienation, garnishment, attachment, execution or process of any court.

ARTICLE XX

Perpetuities

20.1 If any provision herein shall violate any rule against perpetuities, it shall not invalidate any trust herein created, but each trust shall continue for the time permitted by law, and upon termination, the trust estate of each trust shall be distributed to the current income beneficiary thereof.

ARTICLE XXI

Support During Probate Administration

21.1 Without in any way impairing or delaying the vesting of full title to the property herein devised and bequeathed in the Trustees of the ultimate beneficiaries, I direct that nevertheless my Trustees shall not be called upon to perform the duties with reference to the management and distribution of the trust estates until the probate administration of my estate shall have been completed; provided, however, that since these are trusts for maintenance, if, in the discretion of my Executor and/or Trustees, the same is feasible, I direct that payments herein provided to be made from the trusts shall date from my decease, and if and when said moneys are available for distribution, my Trustees and/or Executor may pay or distribute the same to or expend said moneys for the use and benefit of the beneficiaries as herein provided.

ARTICLE XXII

Presumption of Survivorship

22.1 Whenever I have provided in this will that any property shall go to any person upon the condition that my wife be living at the time of my death or that my said wife should survive me, or words to that effect, I now hereby provide that if my wife should die in a disaster which also causes my death, or if we should die under such circumstances that it is doubtful which of us died first, then it shall be presumed that my said wife survived me and said property shall in such event go and vest in the same manner as if my wife had survived me.

ARTICLE XXIII

Appointment and Succession of Trustees

23.1 Each Trustee appointed with respect to each trust provided for herein shall serve as Trustee of each such trust until the death, resignation or removal of such Trustee.

23.2 At any time when an individual is the sole Trustee, such Trustee may appoint a corporate co-Trustee. If there should be more than one individual Trustee, such Trustees may by unanimous action appoint a corporate co-Trustee. The Trustee or Trustees appointing a corporate co-Trustee under the foregoing provision may remove such corporate Trustee at any time, with or without cause, and without the appointment of a successor corporate Trustee.

23.3 The individual co-Trustee, or the individual co-Trustees, if there be more than one, may remove any corporate co-Trustee at any time with or without cause, effective upon the appointment and qualification of a successor corporate co-Trustee, without any necessity for court proceedings. Such successor corporate co-Trustee may be appointed by such individual co-Trustee or co-Trustees. If there should be no individual trustee then serving, the corporate trustee may be removed, with or without cause, and without necessity for court proceedings, effective upon the appointment and qualification of a successor corporate trustee, by the majority of the then competent adult beneficiaries who may assume to act, or by any one of them if only one assumes to act, and if there be no competent adult beneficiary who assumes to act, then the corporate trustee may be removed by the majority of any beneficiaries' guardians who assume to act, or by any of such guardians if only one assumes to act. The successor corporate trustee may be appointed by the beneficiary or beneficiaries, or guardian or guardians who act to remove the corporate trustee.

23.4 I authorize any Trustee to resign at any time upon the appointment and the qualification of a successor Trustee. If the office of Trustee at any time should become vacant and has not been filled as provided above, then said vacancy shall be filled as directed by a majority of the then competent adult beneficiaries who may assume to act, or by any one of them if only one assumes to act. If there be no competent adult beneficiary who assumes to act, then such vacancy may be filled as directed by a majority of any beneficiaries' guardians who assume to act, or by any one of such guardians if only one assumes to act. Any such resignation, removal, appointment or acceptance may be made by an instrument in writing signed and acknowledged and filed with the books and records of the trust or trusts, to which they relate, and with the other Trustee if there be one then serving, with respect to all trusts created hereunder. Any representation by any Trustee, or successor Trustee or Trustees, as herein provided, shall be conclusive so far as third persons are concerned as to who the Trustee is, or Trustees are, then serving.

ARTICLE XXIV

Appointment of Executor

24.1 I hereby nominate and appoint my brother, J. Lee Youngblood, as Independent Executor of this will. In the event of his death, disability or refusal to serve, I nominate and appoint my wife, Loyce Youngblood, to serve, and in the further event that my wife is not willing or able to serve, then The First National Bank and Trust Company of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, or its successor, shall be the Executor. It is my direction that no action shall be had in any county or probate court in the settlement of my estate other than the probating and recording of my will, the return of an inventory and appraisal, a listing of the claims against the estate, and such other proceedings as are mandatory. My Executrix or Executor shall have, during probate administration, all of the powers hereinabove enumerated for my Trustees after probate, any of them to serve without bond.

ARTICLE XXV

Foreign Properties

25.1 Certain properties which may be in my estate at the time of my death, or which may become part of the trust estate of any trust or trusts created by or pursuant hereto, may have their situs in states other than Oklahoma, and my Executor and one or more of my Trustees may be unwilling or unable to serve as Executor or as Trustee in one or more of such states. If that event should occur, the following directions set forth in paragraph 25.2 shall control with respect to my Executor and the provisions of paragraph 25.3 shall control with respect to my Trustees.

25.2 If probate proceedings or administration should be required in any state other than the State of Oklahoma, my Executor who is appointed herein and who qualifies with respect to my estate to be administered in Oklahoma, hereinafter called "Domiciliary Executor", is hereby appointed to serve in such other state or states as administrator or representative for purposes of ancillary administration, hereinafter called "Ancillary Representative," and if my Domiciliary Executor is unable or unwilling to qualify as Ancillary Representative in any other state, then my Domiciliary Executor may designate a corporation to serve as Ancillary Representative. Such Ancillary Representative shall be any banking association or banking institution with trust powers and having a paid in capital of not less than $1,000,000. Such designation may be by an instrument in writing signed by my Domiciliary Executor. Any such Ancillary Representative shall have all of the powers provided for herein with respect to my Executor and shall serve without bond. In the event that no such banking association or banking institution is willing and able to serve, then my Domiciliary Executor shall in the same manner designate an individual to serve as Ancillary Representative. Such individual shall serve without bond unless my Domiciliary Executor directs otherwise, and specifies the amount of the bond required.

25.3 If at any time, any one or more of the trusts created by or pursuant to this will should have, as all or a part of its trust estate, a property or properties having a situs in any state or states other than Oklahoma, such property being hereinafter called "foreign property", and if one or more of the Trustees of any such trust should be unwilling or unable to qualify to serve as Trustee with respect to such foreign property, then the Trustee or Trustees who are qualified to serve as Trustee of any such foreign property shall serve as the Trustee or Trustees of any such foreign property until such time as the Trustee or Trustees, who are not so qualified to serve, qualify at their own expense to serve as Trustee of such foreign property. While so serving the Trustee or Trustees who are qualified to serve as Trustee with respect to foreign property shall have all of the management powers provided for herein with respect to Trustees generally, and, in addition thereto, shall have all of those powers which may be exercised by Trustees under the law of the state where such foreign property has its situs. If there be no Trustee then serving who qualifies to serve as Trustee of such foreign property, and if none of the Trustees then serving be willing or able to qualify and to serve as Trustee of such foreign property, then my Trustees then serving shall designate a qualified corporate Trustee or Trustees to serve as Ancillary Trustee with respect to such foreign properties. Such designation shall be by an instrument in writing, signed by my Trustees then serving, which writing shall set forth the name of such Ancillary Trustee, the powers such Ancillary Trustee is to exercise, and the compensation which it is to receive. If there be no corporate Trustee qualified and willing to serve as Ancillary Trustee, my Trustees then serving shall in the same manner designate a non-corporate Ancillary Trustee to so serve, and my Trustees may in their discretion require a bond of such Ancillary Trustee. At any time when the net income from foreign properties or the net proceeds of sales, assignments or other disposition of foreign properties are in the form of cash or intangible personal property, my Ancillary Trustee or Trustees shall transmit such cash or intangible personal property to my Trustees named herein, or their successors then serving. Upon receipt of such cash or intangible personal property from the Ancillary Trustee, my Trustees shall hold and administer the same in accordance with the terms of the trust or trusts applicable thereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, L. S. YOUNGBLOOD, whose full name is Laurence Snow Youngblood, to this my Last Will and Testament, consisting of seventeen pages of paper, to each of which I have affixed my initials for the purpose of identification, have subscribed my name this 11th day of September, 1963, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

ORDER ADMITTING WILL TO PROBATE

Now on this 13th day of July, 1965, there coming on for hearing the petition of J. Lee Youngblood to be admitted to probate the paper filed herein on the 30th day of June, 1965, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of L. S. Youngblood deceased, and said petitioner being present in person and being represented by his attorneys, Crowe, Boxley, Dunlevy, Thewell, Swinford & Johnson, and it first being proven that due notice of the time and place of this hearing has been given as required by law, and it appearing to the court that the will is a self-proving will duly executed in accordance with the provisions of Title 84 O.S. 1961, § 55, and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds: That the paper propounded herein to probate was executed by the decedent, and that at the time of executing the same the testator was of legal age, of sound mind and memory, and was not acting under duress, menace, fraud or undue influence, and that said will was executed in all particulars as required by law

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court that said instrument be admitted to probate as and for the last will and testament of said decedent, and that the same be, and hereby is, established as a valid will passing both real and personal estate, and that letters testamentary issue to Lee Youngblood after his filing the oath of office, no bond being required for the reason that said will waives the requirement of the executor filing a bond.

Last Will and Testament

I, William E. Harreld, of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being above the age of twenty-one years and of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils by me made heretofore.

ARTICLE I.

I direct that all of my just debts, including my funeral expenses, that are properly probated against my estate and allowed, be paid.

ARTICLE II.

I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of whatever nature and wherever situated, of which I shall die seized or possessed or to which I may be entitled at the time of my death, or over which I shall have power of appointment, as follows:

- A. To my wife, Minnie C. Harreld, if she survives me, outright and absolutely, an amount equal to one-half (1/2) of my "adjusted gross estate" as presently defined in the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, less the value as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes of all other items of my gross estate, including, without limitations, insurance and jointly owned property, qualifying for the marital deduction under said Internal Revenue Code or any similiar federal law existing at the time of my death, which pass or shall have passed to my said wife otherwise than by this Article II A. of my will whether by operation of law or otherwise. It is my intention to bequeath outright to my wife the maximum value in property, but no more, that may be deducted from my estate as the marital deduction under the applicable Internal Revenue Code.

B. The rest, residue and remainder of my estate I devise and bequeath, in equal shares, to my son, William E. Harreld Jr., and each of my grandchildren, Malley Harreld, William E. Harreld, III, Wilson Harreld, Eastland Harreld and John Cowan Harreld as shall survive me, and in the event that my said son or any of my said grandchildren shall predecease me, then I give, devise and bequeath the share of said deceased son or grandchild in equal shares to my said son and/or grandchildren per capita.

ARTICLE III.

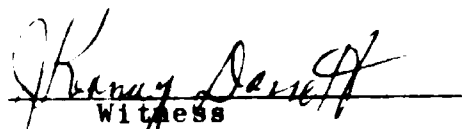

I hereby nominate and appoint my son, William E. Harreld, Jr., to be the Executor of this my Will.

ARTICLE IV.

I request that my executor, or his successor, not be required to give any bond, and that if, notwithstanding this request, any bond is required by any law, statute or rule of court, no sureties be required thereon. My said executor, or his successor, shall not be liable for any loss, destruction, or other injury of or to the estate in his hands, unless such loss shall be occasioned by the willful misappropriation of funds or property in his hands.

In Witness Whereof, I have subscribed my name hereto this 25 day of July, 1961.
