WARREN CHANCERY No. 14892

DECREE ADMITTING FOREIGN WILL TO PROBATE

This day this cause came on to be heard on the duly verified petition of Lucille Taylor, Jack D. Taylor, and Derris Taylor Darwin for the probate of the Last Will and Testament of A. G. Taylor, deceased, late of Bowie County, Texas, accompanied by a certified copy of an instrument of writing purporting to be a true and correct copy of the Last Will and Testament of A. G. Taylor, deceased, together with certified copies of proceedings had in the probate court for the County of Bowie, State of Texas, adjudicating said instrument to be the Last Will and Testament of said decedent and admitting the same to probate in said Court, a copy of said Last Will and Testament and order of said Court being fully authenticated under the provisions of the Act of Congress. The Court having heard and considered the matter and examined said instrument of writing and proofs offered in support thereof and being fully advised in the premises finds as follows:

A. G. Taylor, a resident of and domiciled in the County of Bowie, State of Texas, died on the 27th day of June, 1965, in Miller County, Arkansas. He left his Last Will and Testament which was admitted to probate in the County Court of Bowie County, Texas, by order rendered in said Court on August 2, 1965, in Cause No. 28081. A copy of said Last Will and Testament with First Codicil thereto dated September 20, 1955, and the decree of said Court admitting same to probate, all duly authenticated in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress are attached to the petition filed herein and as such have been presented for probate and record in Jasper County, Mississippi.

The said A. C. Taylor, deceased, on the date of his death, owned and held certain interests in lands located in the State of Mississippi, including the First Judicial District of Jasper County, Mississippi, and in order to constitute a muniment of title it is necessary to have the said Last Will and Testament admitted to probate and recorded in the First Judicial District of Jasper County, Mississippi.

The petitioners herein are Lucille Taylor, the widow of decedent, Jack D. Taylor, a son of decedent, and Derris Taylor Darwin, a daughter of decedent, being the sole and only heirs at law of said A. C. Taylor and are therefore parties interested in the estate of said decedent, and in having his Last Will and Testament admitted to probate in Jasper County, Mississippi, and are also devisees of said decedent. By the terms of the said Last Will and Testament of the decedent, petitioner Lucille Taylor was designated as independent Executrix of the estate of said decedent with no bond being required of her under the terms of said Last Will and Testament. LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

A. C. TAYLORFILED
JAN 24 1967By CHARLES A. SCOTT, Chancery Clerk
Catherine Lewis

I, A. C. TAYLOR, of Texarkana, Bowie County, Texas, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament and revoke all previous testamentary dispositions made by me.

FIRST

I direct that my Executrix hereinafter named pay all my just debts, expenses of my last illness and of my funeral and all death taxes legally due against my estate as soon as practical after my death.

SECOND

At all times that I have acquired all the property, real and personal, now owned by me, including all oil, gas and mineral interests and royalties, and wherever situate, I have been married to my beloved wife, LUCILLE TAYLOR, and we have been residing in Texas. Because such property was purchased with funds consisting for the most part of community funds, my said wife claims to own a beneficial one-half interest therein and thereto, excluding the bank accounts referred to below in Part Fourth of this my Will. I recognize the validity of her claim to such beneficial interest and desire to place in her the legal title thereto. I, therefore, give, devise and bequeath to my said wife an undivided one-half interest in and to all property, real, personal and mixed and wherever situate, the title to which is in my name at my death, except only the said bank accounts referred to in Part Fourth hereof. The provisions of this Part Second and Part Third of this my Will are intended to be and shall be in lieu of my wife's every other right, claim and interest in and to my estate, whether under the community property laws of the State of Texas or of any other state and under the laws, statutory and common law, of Texas or any other state.

THIRD

The home where my wife and I now reside, being premises known as 2313 Walnut Street, Texarkana, Texas, together with all the household furniture, kitchen utensils, furnishings, useful and ornamental, library, pictures, bric-a-brac and gold and silver plate, are and have been for a number of years the sole property of my said wife, LUCILLE TAYLOR, having been given to her by me from time to time. Neither the Executrix of my estate nor any person entitled to any part of my estate shall ever make any claim thereto, and I direct and authorize my Executrix to execute in behalf of my estate any deed, conveyance, bill of sale or other instrument necessary to evidence my wife's sole ownership of the property hereinabove in this Part Third described.

I give and bequeath to my said wife the automobile or automobiles and the equipment thereof, and all jewelry, clothing and articles of personal adornment and attire owned by me at my death.

FOURTH

My wife and I have effected a partial division of our community estate in that we have divided between us certain funds, and each has deposited them to his and her sole separate credit in banks and other depositories. It is contemplated that we will continue to do so in the future. I, therefore, disclaim any interest in any funds which, at my death, are deposited to the sole and separate credit of my said wife in return for her disclaimer of interest in any funds to my sole and separate credit at my death, all of which said funds I give and bequeath to our children, JACK D. TAYLOR and DORRIS TAYLOR DARWIN, share and share alike.

FIFTH

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real, personal and mixed, and wherever situate, I give, devise and bequeath to our children, JACK D. TAYLOR and DORRIS TAYLOR DARWIN, share and share alike.

SIXTH

Should either of the said Jack D. Taylor and Dorris Taylor Darwin predecease me, then all property hereinabove devised and bequeathed such deceased child I give, devise and bequeath to such deceased child's issue now surviving, per stirpes. Should either the said Jack D. Taylor or Dorris Taylor Darwin predecease me and leave no issue now surviving, then all the property hereinabove devised and bequeathed to such deceased child I give, devise and bequeath to the other, or should such other child then be dead, to his or her issue surviving me, per stirpes.

SEVENTH

I nominate and appoint as Independent Executrix of this my last Will and Testament my said wife, LUCILLE TAYLOR. Should my said wife die, resign, refuse or be unable to act, or be disqualified, then I nominate as Independent Co-Executors of this my Last Will our children, JACK D. TAYLOR and DORRIS TAYLOR DARWIN. Should either of our said children die, resign, refuse or be unable to act, or be disqualified, then the survivor shall serve as sole Executrix or Executor, as the case may be.. Should both our said children die, resign, refuse or be unable to act, or be disqualified, then I nominate as independent Executor of my Will The Texarkana National Bank of Texarkana, Texas. No bond shall be required of any of said appointees. I direct that no action be had in the Probate Court on my estate except to probate and record this my Will, and that my personal representative or representatives hereinabove designated shall be independent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name at the end of this my Will at Texarkana, Arkansas, on this 21st day of June, 1955, in the presence of the undersigned attesting witnesses, to whom I have declared and published the same to be my Last Will and Testament and my free act and deed and whom I have requested to become attesting witnesses thereto.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
R. C. WHITE AND MATTIE F. WHITE

19-310

We, R. C. White and Mattie F. White, husband and wife, of Madison County, Mississippi, both being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make this our last will and testament, specifically revoking any and all other wills and codicils made by either of us.

I.

Upon the death of either of us, all property of the deceased party, whether real, personal or mixed, is willed, bequeathed and devised to and shall become the unconditional sole and separate property of the survivor, except for the diamond ring of Mattie F. White, which upon her death is willed and bequeathed to her great niece, Martha Langston.

II.

We hereby appoint such survivor as executor or executrix, as the case may be, of this instrument and specifically relieve him or her of the giving of any bond as such.

III.

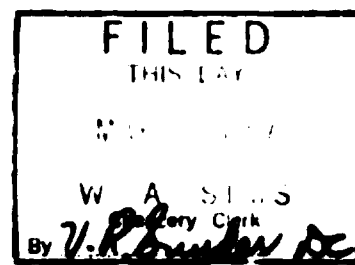

Should our deaths occur in one common calamity, or under such circumstances as to make it difficult as to determine which survived the other, or should the survivor not survive a sufficient length of time to make further disposition of property otherwise falling to such survivor, then H. Helen Sanchez shall serve as executor under bond as required by law and all property of both of us is willed, devised and bequeathed as follows:

a. To our devoted servant, Dorothy Sanders, the sum of $50.00;

b. The remainder, one-half (1/2) shall go to the named sisters of Mattie F. White who are living at the time of our deaths, and share alike:

1. Mrs. T. M. Smith, 1000 Concord Drive, Jackson, Mississippi;
2. Mrs. W. M. Rice, Raymond, Mississippi;
3. Mrs. J. A. Davis, 511 Washington Street, Natchez, Mississippi.

c. The other one-half (1/2) shall go to H. Helen Sanchez, trustee, for the purposes hereinafter specified. Said proceeds shall be held for the benefit of the said beneficiaries.

IV.

The trustee shall manage, care for, and protect the Trust Fund in accordance with his best judgment and discretion and shall have full power to invest and re-invest the same as he sees fit. He shall also have full power and authority in his absolute and uncontrolled discretion to improve, sell, lease, encumber or exchange the whole or any part of such property, whether real or personal, on such terms and conditions as he may deem advisable. The trustee shall collect, receive and receipt for all income derived from said Trust Fund and shall report to the beneficiary or beneficiaries annually as to its status.

Out of the Trust Fund the trustee shall support and maintain Mrs. Mabel White in a reasonable and proper manner as long as she may live, and shall pay her medical, hospital and burial expenses.

Upon the death of Mrs. Mabel White, but not before, the remainder of the Trust Fund shall be paid to William Frank White, our nephew, at the rate of $100.00 per month. Should William Frank White die before said trust fund is exhausted, then the balance shall go to his heirs, share and share alike, in a proper manner to be determined by the trustee.

V.

We direct that the trustee be not required to give any bond or other security whatsoever for the faithful performance of this trust or for any other purpose and said trustee shall receive for his services hereunder an annual compensation equal to ten (10) percent of the total disbursements made by the trustee from said Trust Fund during the preceding year, except that the trustee may in his sole discretion elect to receive a lesser sum.

VI.

Neither the principal nor the income of the trust shall be liable for the debts of any of the beneficiaries thereof nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditor of any beneficiary under any writ or proceeding at law or in equity, and the beneficiaries hereunder shall have no power to sell, transfer, encumber, or in any other manner to anticipate or dispose of his interest in the Trust Fund or the income produced thereby.

19-334

I, ROBERT WILLIAM WHITE, an adult resident citizen of Flora, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

I do hereby appoint IVA WHITE, my former wife, as Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament. I hereby direct that the Executrix shall not be required to give any bond, and I hereby waive the necessity of having a formal appraisement made of my estate.

ITEM II

I hereby direct my Executrix to pay all of my just debts which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done. I direct my Executrix to pay all federal and state estate, inheritance, succession, transfer or other death taxes which are assessed against my estate or against any beneficiary, including estate and inheritance taxes assessed on account of life insurance proceeds or any other property which shall be included in my gross estate for the purpose of such taxes, whether or not included in my estate for probate purposes, out of my residuary estate.

ITEM III

ITEM IV

If my former wife, IVA WHITE, survives me, I devise and bequeath unto her all of my right, title and interest in and to the rest, residue and remainder of the property in my estate, including but not limited to all trucks, machinery, tools and equipment used in my business, or should said business equipment be sold by my Executrix during the administration of my estate under the powers hereinafter given, then I give and bequeath unto my said former wife, IVA WHITE, the entire net proceeds of such sale along with any and all other property in the rest, residue and remainder of my estate. I feel that it is desirable that such business property be sold by my Executrix as soon after my death as an advantageous sale can be negotiated. I do not, however, direct that such sale be made within any specified period of time, but leave the matter entirely to the discretion of my Executrix. My Executrix shall have full power and authority to sell or dispose of such business property at any time she may see fit and upon such terms and conditions and for such price as she may deem advisable.

Codicil Number One to Will of ~~February~~ June 4, 1965

To my niece, Annie Seals, I devise the house where I live, and two acres of land with the house in the center, as nearly as may be, and, in addition, a right-of-way twenty feet wide to the public road. Paragraph I of the original will is reduced by this provision. But I further stipulate and provide that before Annie may thereafter sell or encumber such property, she shall first, in the event of sale, give to Barbara Jean Branson, Alice Banks, and Everett Dean Branson, a preference right to acquire said house, house-site and right-of-way at a consideration equal to what she would receive from another purchaser, on a bona fide offer. If not all of those desire to acquire as a group, then any one or more willing so to acquire may do so. In the event a mortgage, or other encumbrance be contemplated, then the consent of all of the others named shall first be obtained.

This restriction shall apply to only one sale among those named. Should said property be sold for taxes while in the hands of any of the four, any of the others may redeem, and the cost of redemption shall be a lien in favor of the one redeeming.

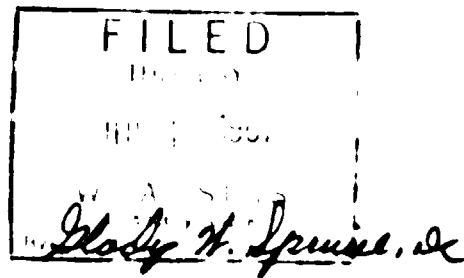

Witness my signature in the presence of witnesses subscribing hereunto, who have signed as such at my special instance and request, in my presence and the presence of each other, all upon this, March 14, 1966.

IN THE MATTER OF THE PROBATE OF THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF R. E. SPIVEY, JR., DECEASED, AND THE GRANT OF LETTERS

SWORN STATEMENT

Personally came and appeared before me, the undersigned Chancery Clerk in and for the State and County aforesaid, A. P. Durfee Sr. D. who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth in the matter of the probate of the holographic will of R. E. Spivey, Jr., deceased, makes oath as follows:

Affiant was personally acquainted with R. E. Spivey, Jr., in his lifetime, having known him for many years prior to his death, affiant knows that at the time of the death of the deceased he was a bona fide resident citizen of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, where he had a fixed place of residence; that the deceased was married but once and then to Mary McLellan Spivey with whom he was living and residing at the time of his death; that no children were born to said marriage; that the deceased never adopted anyone;
and that his widow, Mary McLellan Spivey, is his sole and only heir at law.

Affiant is familiar with the handwriting of the deceased and from a careful inspection of the will, dated May 10, 1965, presented for probate in this cause, knows that it was wholly written, dated and signed by the said R. E. Spivey, Jr., in his own handwriting and that, on the date of the execution of said will, he was over the age of 21 years and otherwise legally competent to make a will.

Affiant further states that the said Mary McLellan Spivey is a fit and suitable person to be namdministratrix with the will annexed; that to affiant's best knowledge, information and belief, the deceased at the time of his death owed no debts other than medical, hospital and drug bills, which, together with funeral expenses, have been paid in full.

In connection with these trusts, I hereby give and grant to Ethleen as such trustee full power and authority to manage and to handle all of said trust properties in such manner as in her judgment may seem best, to loan moneys belonging to the trust estates, to sell and convey the trust properties or any portion thereof, to rent, lease, lease for oil and gas or other minerals any or all of said properties, and to collect and receive the moneys or other proceeds payable to or belonging to said trust estates, to invest or reinvest the same, and do any and all things necessary to the best interests of the trust estates herein created, said trusts to continue until the death of Ethleen Taggart, at which time the properties so remaining in trust shall be delivered by the proper representative of the estate of Ethleen to each of the beneficiaries in the proportions to which they are entitled, whereupon said trust estates shall terminate.

In the management and handling of these trust properties, it is my will that Ethleen receive and use for herself the net income from each of these trusts so long as she may live. 11.
