LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

GEORGE WEST ALEXANDER

I, George West Alexander, a resident citizen of Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi, being over the age of twenty-one (21) years, of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills, codicils and other testamentary dispositions of every kind and character heretofore made by me.

I.

Should my sister, Mrs. Maude Alexander Harris, survive me, I give, devise and bequeath to my nephew, Robert B. Harris, of Falls Church, Virginia, as Trustee, subject to the terms, provisions and conditions hereinafter set forth, all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, both real, personal and mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed, IN TRUST NEVERTHELESS, for the use and benefit of my said sister, Mrs. Maude Alexander Harris.

1. This Trust is for the use, benefit, care, support and maintenance of my sister, Mrs. Maude Alexander Harris, for and during her natural lifetime. The income from this Trust shall be paid at least annually, and preferably quarterly, to my said sister. Should there be an emergency affecting the health and welfare of my said sister as a result of which the income from this Trust shall be insufficient to meet the absolute requirements of said sister, I vest in my Trustee plenary power in his discretion to use so much of the principal of said Trust to meet the immediate needs caused by said emergency; provided, however, that there shall not be thus paid to said Beneficiary out of the corpus herein created in any one year an amount in the aggregate for the year exceeding $5,000.00 or 5 per cent of the lowest aggregate value of the assets of said Trust during said year, whichever is greater. My Trustee is vested with full discretion as to the needs of my sister, and any decision made by him thereunto shall not be subject to review.

2. There shall be paid from the income of this Trust, before the disbursement of any portion thereof, such reasonable fees, costs and expenses as may be incurred by or be due to the Trustee for that done herein and hereunder, together with such taxes as may be required hereunder or deemed advisable by the Trustee.

3. Upon the death of my said sister, Mrs. Maude Alexander Harris, said Trust shall terminate and all that then remaining in said Trust shall be distributed, per stirpes, to the then living descendants of my said sister, Mrs. Maude Alexander Harris.

4. Upon final distribution of that remaining in said Trust, same shall cease and the Trustee shall be relieved of all liability and responsibility thereunto.

5. There shall be the right in anyone who may elect so to do, either by gift or devise, to make contribution to this Trust and to place property in the hands of the Trustee, subject to the terms and conditions of said Trust, so that same shall become a part of the corpus thereof as fully as though originally included therein.

6. All persons who shall pay any money or transfer any property to the Trustee hereunder shall be exempt from all responsibility in respect to the application of the same and from the necessity of inquiring into the regularity, validity or propriety of any sale made or purporting to be made under this Trust or powers contained herein, provided the same appear upon their face to be regular.

7. Said Trustee and any successor Trustee hereunder shall have full power and discretion as follows:

(a) To retain, without obligation of conversion or reinvestment, any and all property of every kind and character, whatsoever, delivered to said Trustee, either as a part of the original Trust or subsequent addition thereto, regardless of whether said property shall be of the character and type authorized for investment by a Trustee or authorized hereunder and without regard to the diversification, risk character and income-producing qualities of said property thus originally delivered to said Trustee.

(b) To hold, manage and control the trust estate, collect the income, dividends, rents, profits and revenues accruing and arising therefrom and from the investments and reinvestments thereof.

(c) To sell, exchange, transfer and convey at such prices and for such considerations as the Trustee may deem proper any real or personal property at any time belonging to the trust estate.

(d) To lease for such periods of time, at such rentals, for such considerations, and upon such conditions as the Trustee may see fit, any real property at any time belonging to the trust estate.

(e) To partition and divide any real estate or personal property at any time which may be held in common with others, and for that purpose to fix valuations and agree upon the terms and details of such partition and division, and to pay from the trust estate and receive therein any money that may be transferred in making equal or proper division.

(f) To alter, change, vary, convert, invest and reinvest the trust estate or any part or parts thereof and the proceeds thereof, including any income accumulating therein, in shares of investment-type stocks listed on either the New York or American Stock Exchanges, or any good grade of tax-exempt municipal bonds, State bonds, interest-bearing obligations of the United States of America, and like income-bearing securities; provided, however, that the Trustee shall at all times, in making any investment, be mindful of and look first to the preservation of the principal of this Trust and at no time hazard said principal through an effort to gain a high yield and shall be governed therein by the prudent businessman rule.

(g) In determining that which is income and that which is principal in this Trust, the Trustee shall have plenary power and shall at all times consider the needs of the beneficiary, and without being obligated hereunder so to do, there shall be specifically in the Trustee the right to designate as principal capital gains and dividends in kind, and to distribute any and all income without seeking to recapture capital losses or premiums paid for securities.

(h) To hold or register any and all stocks, bonds, evidences of indebtedness or other property in the name of its nominee, with or without disclosing the fiduciary relationship.

(i) When deemed necessary, to employ and compensate out of trust funds accountants, attorneys, realtors, and/or tax specialists, provided the written approval thereof be first obtained from the beneficiary hereof.

(j) To vote shares of stock, voting certificates, and other rights belonging to said trust at all meetings of stockholders and like interest holders, either in person or by proxy.

(k) To take any action deemed by it appropriate or necessary to properly protect and conserve the value of said trust estate and its property and to realize the maximum ultimate return from said trust property, including the participation in any plan for consolidation, merger, dissolution or liquidation of any corporation, the stock whereof is held in said Trust.

(l) Whenever the Trustee is directed to pay any money to, or use any money or property for the benefit of any minor hereunder, said Trustee shall not require the appointment of a guardian, but shall be authorized to pay the same over to the person having custody of such minor, to pay the same to such minor without the intervention of a guardian, to pay the same to a legal guardian of such minor, if one has already been appointed, or to use the same for the benefit of such minor.

8. Should my sister, Mrs. Maude Alexander Harris, predecease me or die prior to the full administration of my Estate and the establishment of the Trust herein provided, I give, devise and bequeath all property, both real, personal and mixed and wheresoever situated, of which I may die seized and possessed to the descendants, per stirpes, of my said sister, Mrs. Maude Alexander Harris.

9. Should Robert R. Harris resign, decline to act, fail to qualify, become disqualified or for any reason be unable to act or continue as Trustee, then I direct that my nephew, Thomas A. Harris, Windthorst, Texas, be appointed by the Chancery Court then having jurisdiction hereover as successor Trustee hereunder. Should my said nephew, Thomas A. Harris, resign, decline to act, fail to qualify, become disqualified or for any reason be unable to act or continue as Trustee, then I direct that the First National Bank of Jackson, Jackson, Mississippi, be appointed by the Chancery Court then having jurisdiction hereover as successor Trustee hereunder. Each of said Trustees shall have the same power, authority and discretion as the original Trustee named herein.

10. The Trustee hereunder shall at no time be liable for mistakes of judgment, but only shall be liable for fraud and/or bad faith upon its part or upon the part of its officers and agents.

11. I have full confidence in each of those persons named in Paragraph 9 hereof as Trustees and have given to each of them discretionary power as Trustee. In each instance, the Trustee shall have full authority to act in its sole discretion: and that discretion, when exercised by it, shall not be subject to question or review in any manner.

Harris, be for any reason unable or unwilling to serve or fail to qualify as Executor of this my Last Will, I appoint my nephew, Thomas A. Harris, as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament with the same powers, conditions and waivers provided for my said nephew, Robert B. Harris. Should my nephew, Thomas A. CODICIL TO
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF
GEORGE WEST ALEXANDER

Be it known that I, George West Alexander, a resident citizen of the County of Madison, State of Mississippi, being over the age of twenty-one (21) years, and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby will, dispose, and direct the following exceptions in respect to the devise of certain items of personal property (to be hereinafter described) in connection with the undersigned testator's last will and testament which was made, executed, and witnessed under the date of April 27, 1967 in the City of Jackson, County of Hinds, State of Mississippi, same having as witnesses Miss Lulah Turner (now deceased), Miss Sandra Conerly, and Mrs. Esther H. Morgan.

EXCEPTION NO. 1

A certain antique black walnut book case of Civil War vintage, or thereabout, commonly known as the "Armstrong" Book Case, having two (2) glass paneled doors, one (1) drawer with two (2) handles in the base, base approximately 40" - 41" wide and 15" - 16" deep, the case being 10 3/4" deep with five (5) shelves and 40" wide, over-all height of the book case being approximately 82".

EXCEPTION NO. 2

All books, pamphlets, and monographs of which testator may be seised at the time of his death.

EXCEPTION NO. 3

It is the purpose of the undersigned testator, by this codicil, to give, devise, and bequeath directly and solely to my nephew, Robert B. Harris, (formerly of Falls Church, Virginia) presently of Leesburg and Purcellville, Virginia, first named trustee and executor of the aforesaid Last Will and Testament, such and all personal property only as described in the beforesaid Exceptions No. One (1) and Two (2), respectively.

In the event that the said Robert B. Harris shall have predeceased the undersigned testator or shall have predeceased his mother, Mrs. Maude

Alexander Harris (sister of testator), it is hereby willed, disposed, and directed by the undersigned testator, that this codicil shall be null, void, and of no force and effect, and that all the original provisions of the testator's Last Will and Testament shall be in full force and effect and that all property, both real and personal, of which the testator shall be seised at the time of his death shall be devised in accordance with the original provisions of the Last Will and Testament of the undersigned.

Be it known to all concerned in the premises that the devise made by this codicil has not been induced by a suggestion, influence, or duress by, or a personal preference for, my nephew, Robert B. Harris, to the prejudice, discrimination, or exclusion of any beneficiary of testator's beforesaid Last Will and Testament, but that said bequeath is made solely upon reflection and reconsideration to the effect that of all the possible beneficiaries of the said Last Will and Testament it appears appropriate, in consideration of all aspects involved, that devise of the two afore described items of personal property herein directed should be made to my nephew, Robert B. Harris, by reason of his vocation of Attorney and Counselor-at-Law and predilection for the culture and amenity to be afford by books of such character and motif of which testator is seised. To separate the "Armstrong" Book Case from the bequeath of the books would constitute an act contrary to reason or common sense; therefore sentiment too lengthy and sacred to be detailed impels the testator to enjoin the said Robert B. Harris with the supplication that the "Armstrong" Book Case shall never be held from a consideration of intrinsic value, but that same shall (if possible) be retained in his family to interminable generations as a symbol of the affection, respect, and gratitude which the undersigned testator bore for the late Mrs. John W. (Susie Millsaps) Armstrong, and members of her family, 643 North State Street, Jackson, Mississippi, and the ineffable love and gratitude which the undersigned holds for his dearly beloved late wife, Margaret McFarlane Alexander, who rescued said Book Case from loss and oblivion.

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN:

I, Claybourne L. Lewis, of Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi, being over the age of twenty-one (21) years, of sound and disposing mind and memory and being ever mindful of the uncertainties of this life, do hereby make, declare and publish this my Last Will and Testament, thus revoking any former wills and codicils thereto heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE:

I hereby direct my executor hereinafter named to pay all just debts which I may owe at my death, including the expenses of my funeral and of my last illness.

ITEM TWO:

I hereby devise to my daughter, Margaret Lewis Overby, Lot 13 and seven (7) feet off of the east side of Lot 12, Lot 15 and that part of Lot 17 yet owned by me of Peoples Estate Survey, Part Two; being all of the lands I own in said Peoples Estate Survey, Part Two, same facing partly on Grand Avenue in the City of Jackson, Mississippi.

ITEM THREE:

My lands in Madison County, Mississippi, are hereinafter devised in trust to Deposit Guaranty National Bank of Jackson, Mississippi, under Item Five of this will, and said trustee bank is directed to sell said lands as therein set forth, and, when said lands are thus sold, of the cash portion of the sale price thereof, I hereby bequeath unto my daughter, Helen Lewis Hutchings, or to her and the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00), and the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00), to each of my four grandchildren, namely, William Lewis Overby, Sandra Jean Hutchins McKay, Charles Lewis Overby and Denise Overby, or to the survivors among them, and this bequest is hereby made a lien on said lands.

ITEM FOUR:

I hereby devise unto my wife, Helma Bass Lewis, in fee simple, if she survive me, my homestead on Queen Joanna Lake in the City of Jackson, Mississippi, together with all personal property of which I may die seized and possessed other than the personal property hereinafter bequeathed to Deposit Guaranty National Bank, Trustee, under Item Five of this Will.

ITEM FIVE:

I hereby devise IN TRUST to Deposit Guaranty National Bank of Jackson, Mississippi, all real property owned by me at my death, except as hereinabove devised to my daughter, Margaret Lewis Overby, and to my wife, Helma Bass Lewis, and I hereby bequeath unto said trustee bank all accounts receivable, secured and unsecured, bonds, notes, shares in building and loan associations and Mutual Trust Funds owned by me at my death, for the use and benefit of my wife, Helma Bass Lewis, and for the use and benefit of my daughter, Margaret Lewis Overby, and my four grandchildren, namely, William Lewis Overby, Sandra Jean Hutchins McKay, Charles Lewis Overby and Denise Overby, as provided in Item Three of this will, and subject to the following conditions hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

1. The trustee bank shall safely invest, manage and conserve the trust estate so as to earn the best possible return thereon, and the net increase shall be added to the corpus of the trust herein created for the purposes herein stipulated; but so long as the actual Trust Funds, which I now or may own at my death, or in case of my death, same shall remain thus invested unless said trustee bank can safely earn on such funds in excess of the rate herein stated.

ii) From that portion of the trust estate hereby created which is derived or may be derived by the trustee bank from all moneys receivable, as the same are collected, owing to me by individuals, whether secured or unsecured, said trustee bank shall pay any indebtedness on my homestead on Queen Joanna Lane in Jackson, Miss. 39217, hereinabove devised to my wife, Hilma Bass Lewis, if she survive me, as far as said funds permit, but said indebtedness shall otherwise be paid from the corpus of this trust estate by the trustee bank; it being my intention that my said wife is to own said homestead free of debt, if she survive me, but all taxes and assessments thereon shall be paid by my said wife from her own funds.

iii) As long as my said wife remains a widow she shall be paid from the trust estate hereby created the net sum of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per month, but in case of an emergency or of unusual medical, surgical, hospital, or other expense of the care of my said wife during her widowhood, the trustee bank shall pay such additional expenses of my said wife in excess of any insurance coverage which she may have which would protect her in part from such medical, surgical, hospital, or other expense.

iv) The trustee bank is hereby directed to cause a deed to be executed to procure a purchaser for my lands located in Madison County, Mississippi, and to sell said lands if and when the sum of net cash then thirty thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) net to said trust shall have been obtained for said property and, upon such sale the trustee bank shall be directed from the proceeds of said sale to pay unto my daughter, Helen Lewis Hutchins, or to her descendants, the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00) cash and to each of my four grandchildren above named the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) cash and to retain in the trust estate hereby created the excess over and above Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000.00) from the proceeds of said sale. Said lands shall be sold for not less than Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) net, payable at least Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000.00) net cash, and balance secured by purchase money deed of trust thereon, and said trustee shall at all times before sale of said lands endeavor to keep same rented to the best possible advantage and the rentals therefrom are to be used as far as necessary to pay for taxes, insurance premiums and repairs on said property and any balance of rents shall become a part of the trust hereinabove created.

v) In the event my death and the death of my said wife shall occur simultaneously, or approximately so, or in the same common accident or calamity or under any circumstances causing doubt as to which of us survive the other, then and in such event, the trust estate hereinabove created shall inure to the benefit of my heirs at law and their descendants other than my said wife, and, in the event my said wife shall remarry or shall predecease me, then and in such event, said trust estate shall inure to the benefit of my heirs at law or their descendants and be immediately distributed to them.

That I, Meredith B. Hesdorffer, of 6 Whittle Road, in the City of Martinsville, County of Henry, State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but calling to mind the uncertainty of life, do make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

FIRST: I direct my Executor, hereinafter named, to pay as a cost of the administration of my estate (i) all my just debts, expenses of last illness and funeral expenses and (ii) all estate and inheritance taxes upon or with respect to any property which is required to be included in my gross estate for such tax purposes. I also direct that my Executor shall not require that any part of such taxes be recovered from, paid by, or apportioned among the recipients of, or those interested in, such property.

SECOND: I give and bequeath all my tangible personal property unto my wife, Ruth B. Hesdorffer, if she survives me, but if she predeceases me then I give and bequeath all my tangible personal property in equal shares to my children.

THIRD: All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real and personal, tangible and intangible, wheresoever situate and howsoever held, herein referred to as my Residuary Estate, I give, devise and bequeath to The First National Bank of Martinsville and Henry County as Trustee under an agreement with me dated January 15, 1963, to be held and administered as a part of the trust fund thereby created. FIFTH: For the purposes of the administration of my estate, in the event that my wife, Ruth B. Hesdorffer, and I shall die under such circumstances that it cannot definitely be determined which one of us predeceased the other, it shall be presumed that my said wife survived me and then died immediately thereafter, notwithstanding any statute or rule of law to the contrary.

SIXTH: I nominate and appoint The First National Bank of Martinsville and Henry County, Martinsville, Virginia, as Executor of this my last will and testament, and I request that no security be required on the bond of my Executor and that an appraisal of my estate be waived.

For its services, my Executor shall be entitled to take and receive compensation in accordance with its published schedule of fees in effect at the time its services are rendered.

In administering my estate, my Executor is authorized and empowered (1) to retain any assets which shall come into its possession as a part of my estate; (2) to sell or exchange any property contained in my estate, whether real or personal, and in case of sale, to sell at public auction or privately, for cash or credit, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best; (3) to invest and reinvest in such notes, debentures, shares of stock (common or preferred) or other securities or property, as it, in its sole discretion, shall deem best, without being confined to such investments as are usual for the investment of trust funds; (4) to register and take title to any securities or

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF DALLAS

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, Donald D. Grindell, of Dallas County, Texas, being over the age of twenty-one years and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.

I.

I direct that my debts be paid.

I direct that all Federal Estate Taxes and State Inheritance and Estate Taxes payable by reason of my death be paid by my executors out of my residuary estate, without contribution from any beneficiary. I further direct that my executors shall not require contribution to the payment of any portion of the Federal Estate Tax or State Inheritance or Estate Tax payable by reason of my death from any beneficiary of any life insurance policy upon my life.

I recognize that all my property consists of an interest in the community estate of myself and wife, Ida Lee Grindell, and I direct my executors to set aside to my said wife, if she shall survive me, her one-half interest in our community estate. I do not attempt, by this Will, to dispose of my said wife's interest in our community property.

II.

I give and bequeath to my wife Ida Lee Grindell, if she shall survive me, all of my interest in any real property which we may be occupying as our homestead at the date of my death; all of my personal wearing apparel; and my community interest in household goods, furniture, silverware, objects of household use, and automobile or automobiles.

If my said wife Ida Lee Grindell be not living at my death, the gifts to her contained in this Article II shall become a part of my residuary estate.

III

If I shall own any separate property at my death, I give, devise and bequeath unto my said wife Ida Lee Grindell property selected by my executors having a value equal to one half of the value as of the date of my death of all of my separate estate includible in my gross estate for Federal Estate Tax Purposes, but excluding from such property so set aside any item which fails to qualify in determining the marital deduction as that term is used in the Internal Revenue Code in effect at the date of my death.

I direct that the gift to my said wife contained in this Article III shall not be subject to State Inheritance Taxes nor to Federal Estate Taxes payable as a result of my death, and I direct that such taxes be paid out of my residuary estate; but shall bear its proportionate part of the debts due by me at my death and expenses of administration incurred in the settlement of my estate.

If my wife Ida Lee Grindell be not living at my death, the bequest and devise unto her contained in this Article III shall become a part of my residuary estate.

IV

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property and estate of every kind and character, real, personal and mixed and wherever situated, shall be divided into two equal shares.

One share thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Margaret Grindell Stafford, if she shall survive me.

The other share I give, devise and bequeath unto the Trustees hereinafter named upon the following trust, to wit:

1. Income to Daughter. If my daughter Margaret Grindell Stafford shall survive me, I direct that all of the net income derived from or arising out of the properties comprising the trust shall, in monthly installments be paid to my said daughter, Margaret Grindell Stafford, beginning as of the date of my death and thereafter so long as my said daughter shall live.

2. If my daughter Margaret Grindell Stafford shall have predeceased me but shall have left lineal descendant or descendants living at my death, then I direct that all properties comprising the trust, subject to the provisions of Article V hereof, be delivered over unto such of the lineal descendants of Margaret Grindell Stafford who shall be living at my death, per stirpes and not per capita.

3. If Margaret Grindell Stafford shall predecease me but shall leave no lineal descendant living at my death, then and in such event all properties comprising the trust shall be delivered over unto my stepson John Ellsworth Foster, Jr., free of trust, if he be living at that time; but if my said stepson be not living at that time, then, subject to the directions contained in Article V hereof, said properties comprising such share shall be delivered over unto such of the lineal descendants of John Ellsworth Foster, Jr., who shall survive me, per stirpes and not per capita.

Trusts for Grandchildren

If at or after my death and under the conditions and contingencies set forth in the preceding portions of this Will any properties shall be set aside or allocated to a child or more remote descendant of my daughter Margaret Grindell Stafford or of my stepson John Ellsworth Foster, Jr., but such descendant of my said daughter or my said stepson shall not at that time have attained the age of twenty-one years, then I direct that such properties be not delivered to such minor beneficiary but shall be by the Trustees retained in trust, the share of each such minor beneficiary, hereafter called the "Primary Beneficiary," to constitute a separate trust; and subject to the limitations contained in Article IX hereof, shall be administered in the manner following:

The net income derived from or arising out of such trust shall, at such time or times and from time to time and in such amounts as the corporate trustee deems proper, be in each such case paid to or applied for the benefit of such Primary Beneficiary, or may in the discretion of the corporate trustee be accumulated in whole or in part, any such net income so accumulated and invested to become a part of principal.

At such time at which such Primary Beneficiary shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, all properties at that time comprising such trust shall be delivered over to such Primary Beneficiary, and such trust shall thereupon wholly cease and terminate.

If any such Primary Beneficiary shall die during the continuance of such trust and prior to attaining the age of twenty-one years, the properties comprising such trust shall be delivered over to those persons who upon the death of such Primary Beneficiary are his or her heirs-at-law under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Texas, and in the proportions therein provided for the distribution and disposition of an intestate's separate estate, and such trust shall cease and terminate.

VI

I constitute and appoint my wife Ida Lee Grindell and First National Bank in Dallas as Trustees of all trusts created in this Will; provided, however, that if my said wife shall predecease me or shall for any reason fail to enter upon her duties in such capacity, or having entered thereon shall die, resign, fail, refuse or be unable to act in such capacity, then I constitute and appoint First National Bank in Dallas as sole trustee of such trust or trusts.

VII

In the administration of any and all trusts created in this Will, the Trustees shall have all powers exercisable by Trustees under the terms of the Texas Trust Act, as amended and in force at the date of the execution of this Will; and, except to the extent inconsistent with the express provisions hereof, the provisions of the Texas Trust Act, as amended and in force at the date of the execution of this Will, shall govern and control the administration of all such trusts, provided, however, that no bond or other security shall be required of any Trustee herein named. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in any event the Trustees shall have and may exercise the following powers:

14-179

(a) To retain any property conveyed to the Trustees hereunder; to grant and deliver lease or leases for any term of years; to vote stock, in person or by proxy; to mortgage, sell, partition or otherwise dispose (except by gift) of all or any part of the trust estate.

(b) To make repairs to the trust property; to incur expenses necessary for its maintenance and preservation; to make improvements to the trust properties; to make reasonable provision for depreciation, depletion and obsolescence, in such amounts and by such methods of computation as the trustees deem proper and consistent with sound accounting practices; to allocate receipts and to charge expenses as between principal and income in such manner as the trustees in their judgment reasonably exercised deem proper and consistent with sound accounting practices.

(c) All powers herein granted and conferred may be exercised by the trustees upon such terms and for such consideration as to them seems proper and for the best interest of the trust estate in the administration thereof; and any and all contracts, leases (including oil, gas and mineral leases), deeds, conveyances, assignments, and other acts of the trustees may be for any term, whether or not extending beyond the termination of any trust.

(d) The investments of the trustees shall be of the character permitted trustees under the provisions of the Texas Trust Act, as amended and in force at the date of the execution of this Will.

VIII

If my daughter, Margaret Grindell Stafford, while entitled to receive net income from the trust shall suffer a serious illness or accident, and if in the discretion of the trustees her financial circumstances, taking into consideration not only income to be derived from such trust but from all other sources, shall be insufficient for defraying expenses resulting from any such illness or accident, then the trustee or trustees in their discretion shall have power to make such payments out of the principal of such trust as shall in their opinion be necessary or required for defraying such expenses.

No person who is the beneficiary of any trust created in this Will shall have the power to anticipate any distribution of principal or income hereunder, or power in advance of actually receiving the same to sell, transfer, encumber, charge, mortgage or in anywise burden any such principal or income; nor shall the same be subject to the claims of the creditors of any beneficiary under such trust, or to any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, execution, attachment, garnishment or other legal process.

In any case where for purposes of distribution, division, allocation of shares or otherwise it may become necessary for the trustees to determine valuations of property, any determination of value by the trustees reasonably exercised shall be final and conclusive upon the beneficiaries under this Will. Distribution, division or allocation of shares may be made in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind; and may consist of undivided interests in property.

IX

This Will is executed with awareness of the rules and laws in Texas against perpetuities and against duration of trusts beyond the period permitted by law. Accordingly, any language in this will to the contrary notwithstanding, no trust provided for in this Will shall continue beyond a date which is more than twenty years from and after the date of the death of the last survivor among such of the following named persons who are living at my death, namely, my daughter Margaret Grindell Stafford; my stepson John Ellsworth Foster, Jr., and such of the children of my said daughter and my said stepson who shall be living at my death; and if any such trust would under the terms of this Will, and except for the provisions of this Article IX, continue beyond such date, such trust shall nevertheless at that time cease and terminate, and the properties comprising same shall be delivered over in fee simple, free of trust, to the person then receiving or authorized and permitted to receive the income therefrom.

X

If my wife Ida Lee Grindell and I shall die either simultaneously or under such circumstances that it cannot be determined which of us predeceased the other, then for all purposes under this Will it shall be conclusively presumed that my wife Ida Lee Grindell survived me.

Wherever in this Will reference is made to a lineal descendant of my daughter Margaret Grindell Stafford or my stepson John Ellsworth Foster, Jr., or words of similar import are used, same shall include adopted child or children, and the issue of an adopted child.

XI

I constitute and appoint my wife Ida Lee Grindell and First National Bank in Dallas as independent executors of my estate; provided, however, that if my wife Ida Lee Grindell shall predecease me or shall for any reason fail to qualify, or having qualified shall die or resign prior to completion of administration upon my estate, then First National Bank in Dallas as sole independent executor shall have and exercise all powers and duties granted and conferred upon both.

I direct that no bond or other security be required of either executor herein designated.

First National Bank in Dallas in acting as trustee shall be entitled to retain reasonable compensation for its services in such capacity, and shall be entitled in acting as independent executor to statutory executor's commissions.

My executors or executor, as the case may be, shall have all powers given and granted to my trustees hereunder, including but not limited to the right to renew and extend debts, to mortgage, sell, exchange, partition or otherwise dispose of all or any part of my estate upon such terms and for such consideration as my executors deem proper.

I direct that no court shall have any jurisdiction of my estate, and no action shall be had in any court in relation to the settlement of my estate other than the probating and recording of this Will and the return of an inventory, appraisalment and list of claims belonging thereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name this 22nd day of October, A.D., 1969 in the presence of the undersigned attesting witnesses, who have signed their names at my request.
