G E O R G I A
COBB COUNTY

I, MARGARET K. OLIVER, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, hereby revoke all Wills and Codicils previously made by me and hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM I.

I bequeath certain items of property as provided under the terms of a list which I anticipate preparing and attaching to this Will. It is my intention to update this list from time to time; so long as it is executed and attested in such manner as to constitute a valid codicil to this Will, it shall be considered such; and, if it is so considered, I direct the Executor to be bound by it in making distributions of such property, provided that my husband, CHARLES B. OLIVER, does not survive me.

ITEM II.

If my husband, CHARLES B. OLIVER, survives me, I give, devise and bequeath to my husband, CHARLES B. OLIVER, and my sons, CHARLES JERRY OLIVER and KIRK BLACKBURN OLIVER, as Co-Trustees (hereinbelow collectively referred to as "Trustee"), upon the uses and trusts hereinafter set out, an amount determined as follows: (1) ascertain the largest taxable estate, if any, that, after allowing for the unified credit, I can transfer without any federal estate tax being imposed upon my estate; (2) deduct therefrom the aggregate value, as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, of (i) any property that is included in my gross estate and passes or has passed outside of this Will or under any other Item of this Will without qualifying for a charitable or marital deduction under the federal estate tax law (other than any otherwise qualified terminable interest property as to which no election is made by the Executor or any property that does not qualify for charitable or marital deduction as a result of a disclaimer made after my death) and (ii) all distributions made from my estate to pay debts and expenses of administration that constitute principal charges for accounting purposes but for which no deduction is allowed for federal estate tax purposes; and (3) the remainder shall be the amount bequeathed in this Item. The Executor, in implementing this devise and bequest, shall distribute assets having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this devise and bequest. The Executor shall use to satisfy this devise and bequest or any part thereof any asset for which no marital deduction would be allowed if such asset passed to my husband, if and to the extent any such asset is available for that purpose.

A. Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the property of the trust, collecting the income derived therefrom and paying all proper charges and expenses related thereto; and Trustee shall distribute so much of the remaining income to my husband, CHARLES B. OLIVER, or use so much of such income for the benefit of my husband as Trustee may deem necessary for the support in reasonable comfort of my husband. Any accumulated income will be added to the corpus of the trust.

B. Charles Jerry Oliver and Kirk Blackburn Oliver, or their successors in office, may encroach upon the corpus of the trust in such amounts and at such times as it may deem necessary to support my husband in reasonable comfort; but my husband may not participate in the making of any decision so to encroach. (To the extent practicable, I desire that Trustee, in making any decision with respect to an encroachment for the benefit of my husband require him first to use the property devised and bequeathed to him in Item III., hereinbelow, before encroaching on this trust; but this request shall not apply to the extent that it would be necessary to sell property which in the opinion of Trustee should not be sold in order to use such property.)

C. At the time that my husband is not living, the property remaining in the trust, if any, shall be divided into two (2) equal shares, with one share distributed to my son CHARLES JERRY OLIVER and one share distributed to my son KIRK BLACKBURN OLIVER. If, upon the death of either of my said sons before receiving all of the property of his share, any distribution from the share would otherwise constitute a taxable generation-skipping transfer, such property remaining in the share at his death shall be distributed by the Trustee, to such persons, and in such manner, in trust or otherwise, as such son may by his Last Will and Testament direct or appoint, making express reference to this power, including the power to appoint such property to his estate. Any property of the trust of a son of mine which is not distributed pursuant to the exercise of such power or is not subject to such power shall be distributed upon the death of such son; per stirpes, among his surviving descendants, if any, and if none, shall be added equally to the trust share originally set apart for my other son or his descendants and be distributed in all respects as if it had originally been part of such other share.

During my lifetime I may have made advances to my children. If any of such advances remain unpaid at the time of my death, the amount of such unpaid advances shall be considered in making a division of the assets remaining in the trust between my two sons, with the unpaid advance being charged against the share of the child to whom such an advance was made.

D. If for any reason any Co-Trustee named hereinabove fails or ceases to serve as such, the remaining Co-Trustees or Co-Trustee, as the case may be, may serve alone.

ITEM III.

I devise and bequeath to my husband, CHARLES B. OLIVER all of the residue of my property, both real and personal, of whatever kind and wherever located, including any lapsed or void legacy or devise (but not including any property over which I may have only the power of disposition or appointment), provided he survives me.

In the event my husband does not survive me, all of such property shall be distributed to the Trustees of the trust created in Item II., hereinabove, and held or distributed pursuant to the provisions thereof. In the event said trust is not in existence at the time of my death, I direct that all of said property be held or distributed upon the same terms and conditions contained in said trust as if such trust were still in effect at the time of my death.

ITEM IV.

All transfer, estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes which shall become payable by reason of my death, other than any tax on any generation-skipping transfer and any additional estate tax imposed pursuant to section 2032A(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and all debts and expenses of administration of my estate, whether in respect of property passing under this Will or otherwise, shall, except as may otherwise expressly be provided in this Will, be paid from property which does not qualify for the marital deduction, without apportionment, except that the Executor shall make claim, if and to the extent permitted by law, for death taxes assessed against my estate because of any power of appointment which I may have or because of the inclusion of any qualified terminable interest property in my gross estate.

ITEM V.

If ancillary administration be required in any state in which the Executor and/or Trustee shall be unable or unwilling to qualify, then the domiciliary Executor and/or Trustee shall designate in writing the person or corporate fiduciary to act in such capacity, with all the powers and immunities of the domiciliary Executor and/or Trustee. Unless prohibited by the law of the state in which such property is located, I direct that upon sale by the ancillary fiduciary of any property the net proceeds thereof shall be paid to the domiciliary Executor and/or Trustee, as appropriate.

ITEM VI.

I appoint my husband, CHARLES B. OLIVER, as Executor of this Will.

If for any reason my husband fails or ceases to act as Executor, then I appoint my sons, CHARLES JERRY OLIVER and KIRK BLACKBURN OLIVER, as Successor Co-Executors hereunder.

If for any reason either of my sons fails or ceases to act as Successor Co-Executor, then my remaining son may serve alone.

No Successor Executor shall be required to inquire into or audit the acts or doings of any predecessor Executor or to make any claim against any such predecessor Executor or his estate. Any Successor Executor shall have and may exercise any or all of the powers herein conferred on the Executor as fully and to the same extent as if such Successor had originally been named as Executor herein.

ITEM VII.

In the management, care and disposition of my estate, I confer upon the Executor of this Will, and the Trustee of any trust created hereunder, and his, her or its successors in office, hereinbelow collectively referred to as "Designee", the power to do all things and execute such instruments as may be deemed necessary or proper, including, but not limited to, those powers set out in Official Code of Ga. Ann. §53-12-232, said powers being incorporated herein by reference. The Designee shall also have the power:

A. To make distribution and division in money or in kind or both, regardless of the basis for income tax purposes of any property distributed or divided in kind, such distribution and division and the values established by the Designee therefor to be binding and conclusive on all persons taking hereunder; and the Designee shall be relieved from any liability to any person taking hereunder which might arise from the selection of particular properties to be distributed to or divided for the benefit of such person.

B. To make any election permitted by any tax law.

C. To hold property in trust for any person entitled to receive a distribution who has not attained the age of twenty-one (21) years until he or she becomes twenty-one (21) years of age; and, in the meantime, to use such part of the income and/or principal of such property as it deems necessary to provide for the proper support and education of such person.

D. To sell any property to or to purchase any property from any other trust created by this Will or created by me during life, or the estate of my spouse or any trust created by my spouse by Will or during life, at the fair market value thereof as determined by the Designee, even though the same person or corporation may be acting as Trustee of any of such other trusts or as Executor of my spouse's estate and as the Executor hereunder or Trustee of any trust hereunder.

In the exercise of any and all powers and duties, the Designee will not be required to make returns to, file inventories or appraisals with, obtain any order from, report to, or give bond to any court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal to this my Last Will and Testament, this 15th day of October, 1991.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
ROBERT E. GRANT

I, Robert E. Grant, an adult resident citizen of the City of Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke any and all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

I hereby nominate and appoint my wife, Patricia Ruth Horan Grant, as Executrix, or in the event my said wife not survive me or fails to act for any reason, my daughter, Barbara Lee Grant, as Executrix of my Last Will and Testament, to serve without bond or security as such Executrix and I waive inventory and appraisal of my estate.

ITEM II

I hereby direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as may be reasonably convenient, and I authorize and empower my Executrix to settle, compromise, and discharge said debts and expenses plus any other claim against my estate in such manner and for such sums as my Executrix in her absolute discretion shall deem appropriate.

ITEM III

I give, devise and bequeath all of my entire estate, both real and personal, wherever situated, in which I may have any interest at the time of my death not otherwise effectively disposed of, to my wife, Patricia Ruth Horan Grant, or in the event she not survive me, then I give, devise and bequeath said estate to my daughter, Barbara Lee Grant, and my son, Robert E. Grant, Jr. share and share alike or their issue per stirpes should either one predecease me. In the event none of the aforementioned beneficiaries survive me, then, I give, devise and bequeath my said entire estate unto the Sisters of Mercy, St. Louis Province, 2039 North Geyer Road, St. Louis, Missouri.

ITEM IV

In administering my estate, my Executrix is authorized and empowered in addition to the powers granted it by law:

(1) To retain any assets which shall come into its possession as part of my estate;

(2) To sell or exchange any property contained in my estate, whether real or personal, and in case of sale, to sell at public auction or privately, for cash or credit, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best;

(3) To invest in such notes, debentures, stock (common or preferred), common trust funds, or other securities or property as it, in its sole discretion, shall deem best, without being confined to such investments as are usual for the investment of trust funds;

(4) To register and take title to any securities or other property held in my estate in the name of any nominee selected by it, without disclosing the beneficial owner;

(5) To make division or distribution of my estate in kind, in money or partly in both, and its valuation of property for such purposes shall be final and binding on all parties interested therein;

(6) To compromise and adjust any claim arising against or in favor of my estate upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper, and;

(7) To borrow money and renew obligations for my estate without any personal liability on my Executrix in so doing, and for such purposes to pledge, mortgage and encumber all or any portion of my estate, it being my intention to confer upon my Executrix the broadest and amplest powers, the foregoing powers being by way of illustration and not by way of limitation.

ITEM V

If my wife, Patricia Ruth Horan Grant, and I die in a common disaster or under circumstances that there is not sufficient evidence, as to which of us died first, all of my property, both real and personal, shall be disposed of as it my said wife predeceased me.

WITNESS MY SIGNATURE this the 9th day of July, 1982.

 JEAN BEEMON HESLEP

I, JEAN BEEMON HESLEP, an adult resident citizen of Madison, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

EXECUTOR AND SUCCESSORS

I appoint my husband, WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR., as Executor of my Estate under this Will. If WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR. is or becomes unable or unwilling to serve as Executor, then I appoint my mother, CLEM BEEMON, to serve as Successor Executrix. If both WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR. and CLEM BEEMON should for any reason be unable or unwilling to serve, then I appoint my brother, ED BEEMON, to serve as Successor Executor.

ITEM II.

HUSBAND AND CHILDREN

My husband's name is WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR., and he is sometimes referred to herein as "my husband." I have two (2) children now living and they are:

WALTER BRENT HESLEP, born January 17, 1983; and JANET LINDSEY HESLEP, born October 4, 1985.

They are herein referred to as "my children". If I have a child or children born to me or legally adopted by me subsequent to the date of execution of this Will, I direct that each child and his or her descendants shall share my estate to the same extent as provided for my children herein named.

ITEM III.

PAYMENT OF DEBTS, EXPENSES AND TAXES

I direct my Executor to pay all of my just debts and obligations which are probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done, provided, however, that my Executor shall specifically be authorized to pay any debt of my estate which does not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) without the necessity of probating said debt.

I further direct my Executor to pay all of my funeral expenses; expenses of my last illness, and the costs of administration of my estate as soon as practicable after my death; provided, however, my Executor shall not be required to pay any obligation in advance of its maturity. My Executor, in his sole discretion, may pay from my domiciliary estate all or any portion of the costs of ancillary administration and similar proceedings in other jurisdictions.

Nothing in this Item of my Will shall be construed as creating an express trust or fund for the payment of debts and expenses, which would in any way extend the normal statute of limitations for the payment of my debts or enlarge upon my statutory duty to pay debts.

I direct my Executor to pay all inheritance and estate taxes payable by reason of my death including any interest and penalties thereon. All inheritance and estate taxes payable by reason of my death shall be apportioned in accordance with the Mississippi Uniform Estate Tax Apportionment Act; provided, however, that my personal effects passing under Item IV of this Will shall bear no share of any such taxes. I specifically do not waive the right of my Executor under Internal Revenue Code (1) section 2206 to recover from the beneficiaries of life insurance policies on my life the portion of the total estate tax paid as the proceeds of such policies bear to my taxable estate, (2) section 2207B to recover the proportionate share of estate taxes from the recipient of property included in my gross estate under Internal Revenue Code section 2036, and (3) section 2207A to recover the proportionate share of estate taxes from the recipient of property included in my gross estate under Internal Revenue Code section 2044.

ITEM IV.

PERSONAL EFFECTS

A. Car to Husband. I give and bequeath my automobile to my husband, WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR.

B. Equally to Children. I give and bequeath to my surviving children, in equal shares, to divide as they agree, all of my household furniture and furnishings, chinaware, silverware and linens, clothing, jewelry, sport equipment and other tangible personal property located in my home, and policies of insurance thereon, but not including cash, bank accounts, securities or intangible property. If my children fail to agree upon a division of such tangible personal property, then such property shall be divided among my children as they may select by using the following procedure. The various categories of my tangible personal property are to be written down by my Executor on separate pieces of paper and placed in a bowl. As a guide only to my Executor, examples of the categories are rugs, lamps, tables, chairs, ornaments, and pictures. My children shall draw straws to determine who pulls the first category from the bowl and gets first choice. In rotating fashion, all the items in the first category shall be distributed. Next, the child who was second on the first draw becomes number one and shall pull the second category from the bowl and receive first choice of an item in the second category. This system shall continue until the last category has been disposed of.

C. Separate Memorandum. I may leave a separate memorandum containing directions for the specific disposition to be made of certain of the tangible personal property bequeathed under this Item. In such event, the provisions of that memorandum shall be given the same legal effect as if included in this Will and the assets described therein shall be distributed to the named beneficiaries.

D. Minor's Share. If any child is a minor at the time of my death, that child's guardian may act for the child in the division of these items of property, and the property bequeathed in this paragraph shall not be delivered to the minor but shall be held by the guardian, who shall have the option, in the guardian's sole discretion:

1. to deliver any items of property to the child when the guardian may determine that the minor child is of sufficient maturity to receive those items; or
2. to deliver all or any remaining items of property to the child when the child attains twenty-one (21) years of age.

ITEM V.

RESIDENCE

I devise and bequeath to my children, per stirpes, any interest I may own in my personal residence, subject to any indebtedness that may be against my residence at my death. My children's interest in my home shall not be distributed outright to them, but shall be held in trust pursuant to the provisions of Item VI, to be administered and distributed pursuant to the terms thereof.

ITEM VI.

RESIDUE

I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate to WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR., as Trustee, under the terms hereafter set forth, for the benefit of my children. The Trustee shall hold, administer and distribute the funds of this trust according to the following provisions:-

A. Income. The Trustee may distribute to or for the benefit of my children (but not necessarily in equal shares) as much of the net income as the Trustee deems advisable for the education, support, maintenance, and health of any of the beneficiaries; for the maintenance of the beneficiaries' accustomed standard of living; or for any medical, hospital or other institutional care which any beneficiary may require. These distributions shall be made in such proportions, amounts, and intervals as the Trustee determines. Any income not distributed shall be added to principal and shall be distributed according to the provisions of this Item.

B. Principal. The Trustee may distribute to or for the benefit of my children (but not necessarily in equal shares) as much of the principal as the Trustee deems advisable for the education, support, maintenance, and health of any of the beneficiaries; for the maintenance of the beneficiaries' accustomed standard of living; or for any medical, hospital or other institutional care which any beneficiary may require. These distributions shall be made in such proportions, amounts, and intervals as the Trustee determines. In making principal distributions, the Trustee shall consider the needs of my children and the funds available to them from other sources.

C. Discretion to Trustee. I desire for my children to be treated impartially and without favoritism; however, realizing the needs of my children may vary, I specifically direct that the Trustee is not required to treat them equally in making expenditures of income and principal to or for their benefit. The Trustee shall be impartially guided by the needs of each of my children as those needs are presented. Insofar as practicable, the Trustee may afford to each of my children necessary funds to satisfy those needs within the standard set forth herein. I give this broad discretion to the Trustee so the Trustee may act at all times in the best interest of all my children as the Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, deem advisable.

D. College Education for Children. The Trustee may use trust funds to assist in providing a college education for each of my children, including as many years of graduate study in any private or public college or university, as may be required for the completion of that child's training for the child's career. The Trustee may pay the necessary costs of clothing, tuition, books, room and board and may pay the costs of any extracurricular activities in which my children desire to participate during attendance at college, provided such extracurricular activities are first approved by the Trustee. In making the expenditures for any one of my children as permitted by this Paragraph, the Trustee shall also consider the funds which my other child may need for education expenses.

E. Division Into Separate Trusts. As and when my youngest living child attains the age of twenty-five (25) years, the Trustee shall divide the assets of this trust into equal and separate shares, one share for each of my then living children, and one share for each child of mine who is deceased but who is survived by children. The Trustee shall hold each such share as a separate trust shall administer and distribute the funds of each trust according to the following provisions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at my death a child has attained an age at which part or all of his or her separate trust assets would be distributed outright to him or her, then such part (or all) of such share shall not be retained in trust for such child but shall be distributed outright to him or her.

1. Income. The Trustee may distribute to or for the benefit of the beneficiary or beneficiaries of each trust as much of the net income of the trust as the Trustee deems advisable for the education, support, maintenance and health of each beneficiary; for the maintenance of each beneficiary's accustomed standard of living; or for any medical, hospital or other institutional care which any beneficiary may require. These distributions shall be made in such proportions, amounts and intervals as the Trustee determines. Any income not distributed shall be retained and added to principal and shall be distributed according to provisions of this Item.

2. Principal. The Trustee may distribute to or for the benefit of the beneficiary or beneficiaries of each trust as much of the principal of the trust as the Trustee deems advisable for the education, support, maintenance and health of each beneficiary; for the maintenance of each beneficiary's accustomed standard of living; or for any medical, hospital or other institutional care which any beneficiary may require. These distributions shall be made in such proportions, amounts and intervals as the Trustée determines. In making distributions of principal, the Trustee shall consider the needs of each beneficiary and the funds available to each of them from other sources.

3. Distributions to Child at Ages 25, 30 and 35. As and when my child who is the beneficiary of the separate trust attains the age of twenty-five years (25) years, the Trustee shall distribute to that child outright and free of trust one-third (1/3) of the remaining trust assets in that child's separate trust. As and when such child attains the age of thirty (30) years, the Trustee shall distribute to that child outright and free of trust one-half (1/2) of the remaining trust assets in that child's separate trust. As and when such child attains the age of thirty-five (35) years, that child's separate trust shall terminate and the Trustee shall distribute to that child outright and free of trust all of the remaining assets in that child's separate trust.

4. Death of Child. If my child should die prior to the termination of his or her separate trust, then the Trustee shall continue to hold the remaining assets in trust for the benefit of my deceased child's children pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph E. If my child should die prior to the termination of his or her separate trust without leaving surviving children, then the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust assets in equal shares to my children, per stirpes; provided, however, if a trust created hereunder for the benefit of a child of mine is then in existence, such distribution to my child shall not be made outright, but shall instead be made to the trust for such child's benefit; and likewise any distribution to children of a deceased child shall not be made outright, but shall be held by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

5. Termination of Trust for the Surviving Children of a Deceased Child of Mine. The assets of a trust held for the surviving children of a deceased child of mine shall be distributed to such children, per stirpes, when the youngest of such children attains the age of twenty-one (21) years. Upon distribution of the entire trust estate to the beneficiaries of each trust, the trust shall terminate.

F. Spendthrift Provision. None of the principal or income of this trust shall be liable for the debts or obligations of any beneficiary or be subject to seizure by creditors of any beneficiary. The beneficiaries have no power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any manner to anticipate or dispose of any interest in the trust funds or the income produced from the funds.

G. Alternate Disposition. If all of the persons named and classes designated as beneficiaries of this trust predecease me or die prior to the distribution of all trust assets, then upon the death of the survivor of them (or upon my death if all of such beneficiaries predecease me), the trust assets shall be distributed to my husband, WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR.

H. Name of Trust. This trust shall be designated and known as the "JEAN BEEMON HESLEP FAMILY TRUST." After it is divided into separate trusts, each such trust shall be known by the name of the beneficiary or beneficiaries thereof.

ITEM VII.

TRUST ADMINISTRATION PROVISIONS

A. Income During Administration of Estate. The income of any trust created by this Will shall accrue from the date of my death. During the administration of my estate and until the trust is established and activated, I authorize the Trustee to request of my Executor, in which case my Executor shall comply with that request, to pay at least annually out of my estate advanced payments of income to the income beneficiaries of the trust. These payments shall be an amount which in the joint judgment of the Trustee and the Executor equals the trust income which the beneficiaries would have received had the trust been established and activated. If an overpayment or underpayment results, the Trustee shall pay to or receive from the beneficiaries the appropriate amount.

B. Distributions to a Minor or Incapacitated Beneficiary.

In making distributions to the beneficiaries from a trust created under this Will, and especially where a beneficiary is a minor or incapable of transacting business due to incapacity or illness, the Trustee may make distributions either (a) directly to the beneficiary, (b) to the legal or natural guardian of the beneficiary, (c) to a relative or guardian of the person of the beneficiary who has custody and care of the beneficiary, or (d) by applying the payments for the benefit of the beneficiary by paying expenses directly. In any event, the Trustee shall require such reports and take such steps as the Trustee deems necessary to assure and enforce the application of such payments for the exclusive benefit of the beneficiary.

C. Distributions to a Minor. If at any time in following the directions of this Will the Trustee is required to distribute outright to a person who is a minor all or any part of the principal of a trust created herein, the Trustee is directed to continue to hold and manage the share of the minor in trust for that minor's benefit until the minor attains age twenty-one (21), at which time the Trustee shall distribute such share to the beneficiary. Until distribution is made, the Trustee is directed to expend such part of the income and/or principal of the share belonging to that minor as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems necessary to provide for the proper education, support, maintenance and health of the minor and for any medical, hospital or other institutional care which the minor may require.

D. Trustee May Hold Trust Properties in One Fund. The Trustee shall not be required to make physical division of the properties of any trust created herein, except where necessary for purposes of distribution, but may keep the trusts in one (or more) consolidated fund. The Trustee shall maintain books of account containing accurate records of separate principal, income and expense of each trust.

E. Trustee's Discretion in Making Distributions. In making distributions of both principal and income, the Trustee may make a non pro rata distribution of property in kind. The judgment of the Trustee concerning values and purposes of such division or distribution of the property or securities held in the trust shall be binding and conclusive on all interested parties. The Trustee shall not be liable to any beneficiary for any decisions made pursuant to this paragraph. In making a division or distribution, the Trustee is specifically excused from a duty of impartiality with respect to the income tax basis of the property distributed. The Trustee may select assets to be allocated or distributed without regard to the income tax basis of the property and without regard to the types of assets distributed to individual beneficiaries.

F. Trustee May Keep Trust in Existence. Notwithstanding the distribution of all of the assets of a trust created herein, the Trustee may keep in existence any trust created herein if the Trustee deems such action necessary or advisable for the trust to receive additional property at a later date.

G. Home in Trust. If any trust shall become owner of my home, the Trustee is authorized and directed to use funds of the trust to maintain the home and to pay insurance premiums, taxes and other expenses of upkeep of the home as long as the home is held in trust.

H. Maximum Duration of Trusts. The interest of every beneficiary of any trust created herein shall vest within the period prescribed by the Rule against Perpetuities. Upon vesting, any trust property held by the Trustee shall be distributed to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the trust property (or to his or her legal guardian or other personal representative) as though such beneficiary had reached the age at which final distribution was required.

I. Waiver of Trustee's Bond, Accounting and Court Approval.

No Trustee shall be required to enter into any bond as Trustee, to obtain the approval of any Court for the exercise of the powers or discretion provided herein, or to file with any Court any periodic or formal accountings of the administration of any trust. The Trustee shall render annual accountings to each of the beneficiaries of any trust (or his or her guardian if a beneficiary is a minor). No persons paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application.

ITEM VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE PROVISIONS

A. Successor Trustees. In the event WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR. is or becomes unwilling or unable to serve as Trustee, then I appoint my mother, CLEM BEEMON, to serve as Successor Trustee. In the event both WALTER DIXON HESLEP, JR. and CLEM BEEMON are unwilling or unable to serve as Trustee, then I appoint my brother, ED BEEMON, and my sister-in-law, INA LYN HALE, to serve as Successor Co-Trustees. Any successor Trustee shall be vested with all the rights, powers, duties and discretions conferred upon the original Trustee.

B. Method of Trustee's Resignation. The Trustee may resign at any time by giving each of the beneficiaries of the trust or his or her guardian written notice specifying the effective date of such resignation. The notice may be sent by personal delivery or by registered mail.

C. Effective Date of Trustee's Resignation. The resignation of the Trustee, regardless of cause, shall become effective upon the qualification of the successor Trustee and submission of a full accounting by the resigning Trustee; however, the successor Trustee and the adult beneficiaries may agree to waive a final accounting by the Trustee being replaced.

D. Successor Trustee to Have Powers and Duties of Original Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be vested with all the rights, powers, duties and discretions conferred upon the original Trustee.

E. Compensation of Trustee. Any bank serving as Trustee shall receive reasonable compensation based on the services it is required to perform. Such compensation shall be approved by the adult beneficiaries of the trust, or if none, by the guardians of the minor beneficiaries. Any individual serving as Trustee shall receive reasonable compensation based upon the then current hourly rates being charged in Jackson, Mississippi, for services comparable to those being rendered by the individual Trustee. Compensation shall be paid regularly and shall be shown on the Trustee's annual account.

F. Masculine References to Include Feminine and Neuter. Unless otherwise provided, in referring to the Trustee, any masculine terminology also includes the feminine and neuter or vice versa and any reference in the singular shall also include the plural or vice versa.

ITEM IX.

TRUSTEE POWERS

Unless otherwise provided, the administration of any trust herein created, the sale and conveyance of trust assets, the investment and reinvestment of trust assets, and the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Trustee shall be governed by the terms and provisions of the Uniform Trustees' Powers Law of Mississippi, as amended. In addition to the powers contained in that Law, and the power to make "legal investments" under Mississippi law, the Trustee shall have full power and authority:

A. May Invest in Interest Bearing Accounts or CD's. To place trust funds on time deposit in interest bearing accounts or certificates of deposit in any federally insured financial institution, including any bank which may be serving as Trustee.

B. May Receive Additional Property. To receive additional property any person conveys to the trust either in lifetime or by

Will, and to administer and distribute the property according to the terms of the trust.

C. Right to Distribute in Cash or in Kind. To distribute income and principal of the trust in cash or in kind.

D. Right to Transfer and Encumber Trust Property. To sell, transfer, convey, mortgage, lease and dispose of the trust property upon such terms and in such manner and for such prices as the Trustee deems proper; and to execute and deliver any instruments necessary to accomplish such action. Any lease or other instrument which is executed by the Trustee shall continue in full force and effect under its terms, notwithstanding the termination of the trust.

E. Right to Allocate Between Income and Principal. To determine the allocation of receipts and expenses between income and principal.

F. May Invest in Common Fund. To invest funds in a common fund established by the Trustee pursuant to the Uniform Common Trust Fund Act of Mississippi.

G. Right to Merge or Consolidate Trust. To merge and consolidate the assets of any trust created hereunder with any other trust if at the time of my death the Trustee herein named is serving as Trustee of another trust created by me or my husband, during our lifetimes or by the terms of the Will of my husband and if the beneficiaries are the same and the terms of that other trust are substantially similar to this trust. The Trustee shall administer the two trusts as one if such consolidation would result in more effective and efficient management of the two trusts.

H. May Receive, Retain and Invest in Certain Property. To receive and retain all types of property and especially to receive, invest in and retain shares of stock in closely-held corporations, partnership interests in general and limited partnerships, and nonincome producing real estate or other property regardless of where it may be situated, without liability and without regard to the proportion such property or property of a similar character so held may bear to the entire amount of the trust estate and whether or not such property is of the class in which trustees generally are authorized to invest by law.

I. Right to Carry Out My Lifetime Agreements. To carry out agreements made by me during my lifetime, including the consummation of any agreements relating to the capital stock of corporations owned by me at the time of my death, and including the continuation of any partnership in which I may be a partner at the time of my death whether the terms of the partnership agreement obligate my estate or my personal representative to continue my interest therein, and to enter into agreements for the rearrangement or alteration of my interests or obligations under any such agreements in effect at the time of my death.

J. Rights as to Securities. To retain or acquire stocks, bonds or securities for investments; to exercise stock subscriptions, rights and options; to vote or grant proxies to vote all securities belonging to the trust; to pay assessments; to support, oppose or participate in any merger, reorganization, redemption or liquidation of any entity in which the trust owns an interest; to pledge any securities or other property as security for any loan made by the Trustee; and to accomplish any other purpose of any nature incidental to the administration of the trust.

K. Right to Borrow and Lend. To borrow money from any person or entity or lend money to any person or entity at such rate of interest as the Trustee determines necessary for the administration of the trust or to facilitate any purchase, sale or other acquisition or disposition of trust property; to execute such notes and loan agreements required for such loans; to secure the repayment of such loans by executing such contracts, mortgages, deeds of trust, security instruments, or other instruments required for such loans; and, to assume any liabilities as consideration for the acquisition of assets or to acquire assets subject to such liabilities.

L. May Employ Agents. To employ and compensate from trust assets any agents, accountants, attorneys, custodians, brokers, investment counselors and other advisors the Trustee deems necessary for the administration of the trust.

M. Right to Seek Court Approval. To seek approval of or authority from any court of competent jurisdiction with respect to any action of the Trustee if the Trustee determines it is in the best interest of the Trustee, the trust or the beneficiaries to do so.

N. Mineral Interests. To execute and deliver oil, gas and other mineral leases containing such unitization or pooling agreements and other provisions as the Trustee deems advisable; to execute mineral and royalty conveyances; to purchase leases, royalties and any type of mineral interests; to own, hold, acquire and dispose of working interests and royalty interests in properties held in the trust and to expend funds of the trust necessary with respect to the ownership of such interests; to execute and deliver drilling contracts and other contracts, options and other instruments necessary or desirable in engaging actively in the oil, gas or other mining businesses; all of the foregoing to be done with such terms, conditions, agreements, covenants, provisions or undertakings as the Trustee deems advisable.

O. May Terminate Small Trust. To terminate any trust if the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, determines the assets of the trust are of such small value that the continued existence and operation of the trust is not in the best interest of the beneficiaries. This power shall be exercisable only if the income beneficiaries and the remainder beneficiaries are the same and have the same interest in the trust, or if the beneficiaries or interests are different, only if the beneficiaries agree to a manner of termination and distribution of trust assets. No beneficiary shall have any right to require the Trustee to exercise this power. Upon termination, the Trustee shall distribute the assets of the trust to the beneficiaries in the beneficiaries' proportionate shares.

P. Upjohn Provision. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Trustee shall make any distribution hereunder which would have the effect of satisfying such Trustee's legal obligation to support a trust beneficiary.

ITEM X.

GUARDIANS OF CHILDREN

A. Appointment of Guardians. To provide for the security of my minor children if my husband and I die during the minority of my children, I hereby designate and appoint my sister-in-law, INA LYN HALE, as guardian of my minor children. If INA LYN HALE is or becomes unable or unwilling to serve as guardian, I appoint my cousin, LYNDA STEADMAN, to serve as guardian. If INA LYN HALE and LYNDA STEADMAN are both unwilling or unable to serve as guardians, then I appoint my brother, ED BEEMON, to serve as guardian.

B. Guardian to Have Custody; Bond Waived. The guardian shall have custody and tuition of my minor children until each attains the age of twenty-one (21) years. The guardian shall not be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of the duties of guardian. To the extent possible, any and all accountings, inventories and the like ordinarily required of a guardian shall not be required of the guardian.

C. Guardian to Keep Home. The Trustee herein named shall allow and permit the aforesaid testamentary guardian of my minor children to live and reside in my home. So long as the guardian maintains a place of residence there for any of my minor children during the term of the trust, the Trustee shall allow the guardian to reside there free of rent. Further, the Trustee shall manage, care for, improve and protect the property as the Trustee would have the right to do if the Trustee were the individual owner thereof. By way of illustration but not of limitation, the Trustee shall make such repairs and improvements to the premises as may be necessary to keep and maintain the same in good condition, pay all taxes, assessments and public charges which may be levied or assessed against the premises, and keep the house and its contents adequately insured. All expenses incurred for the management, care, improvement and protection of the premises shall be borne by the trust estate. The Trustee shall determine the allocation of the expenses between principal and income.

D. Guardian May Use Household Furnishings. The Trustee shall also allow and permit the guardian to use all of the household furniture, furnishings, linen, silver, kitchen utensils, pictures, and all other goods and effects in and about the premises (as well as any automobiles I may own at my death) so long as the guardian resides there and makes a home for any of my children. The guardian shall not be required to account to the Trustee or any beneficiary for the use thereof, it being realized that many of such articles are not of a permanent nature. The Trustee shall be free of liability for the loss or depreciation of any such tangible personal property.

E. Distribution of Proceeds from Sale of Home. If my home is sold by the Trustee, the Trustee may use the proceeds derived from such sale, together with such additional amounts of principal of the trust estate as the Trustee determines necessary to build or purchase a suitable home for my children. These same provisions shall apply in regard to the guardian's use of such new home as have hereinabove been provided with respect to my present home. If in lieu of building or purchasing a new home for my minor children the Trustee deems it advisable, a portion of the proceeds may be used to pay the costs of an addition to or remodeling of the guardian's home that may be undertaken so as to provide my minor children with a comfortable place to live.

F. Guardian Not Obligated by Using Household Furnishings. I recognize that allowing the guardian to live in my home and to use the furnishings therein will result in certain benefits to the guardian. However, the guardian shall be entitled to receive such benefit without obligation to the beneficiaries or any other party.

ITEM XI.

LEGAL ADVISOR

It is my wish that my Executor and Trustee confer with and seek the advice and counsel of Lynne K. Green in the administration and management of my estate and any trust created hereunder.

ITEM XII.

EXECUTOR POWERS

A. Successor Executor to Have Powers and Duties of Original Executor. All rights, powers, duties and discretions granted to or imposed upon my Executor shall be exercisable by and imposed upon any successor Executor or Administrator. Where used throughout this Will, the terms "Executor" and "Administrator" may be used interchangeably and shall apply to whoever may be serving as personal representative of my estate, whether one or more than one.

B. Waiver of Bond, Appraisal, Inventory and Accounting. I direct that neither my Executor nor any successor Executor or personal representative shall be required to make any bond as Executor. To the extent permissible by law, I waive the requirement that my Executor or any successor Executor be required to make a formal appraisal, provide an inventory or file an accounting for my estate with any court.

C. Discretion to Select Property to be Distributed. My Executor shall have discretion to select property to be distributed in satisfaction of any devise or bequest provided in this Will. My Executor may satisfy any pecuniary bequest provided in this Will in cash or in kind or partly in cash and partly in kind; however, any asset distributed in kind shall be valued at its date of distribution value.

D. Third Parties Not Obligated to See to Application of Property Delivered to Executor. No person dealing with my Executor shall be obligated to see to the application of any moneys; securities, or other property paid or delivered to my Executor, or to inquire into the expediency or propriety of any transaction or the authority of my Executor to enter into and consummate the transaction upon such terms as my Executor may deem advisable.

E. Executor's Right to Disclaim. My Executor shall have the power to disclaim any part or all of my interest in any property which is or has been devised or bequeathed to me, whether outright or in trust, provided such disclaimer is made within the time period required for the disclaimer to qualify under Section 2518 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any future law.

F. Executor to Have All Powers Conferred by Law. My Executor shall have the power to exercise all powers conferred by law upon trustees by the Uniform Trustees' Powers Law of Mississippi and all powers conferred by law upon executors and all powers granted herein without prior authority from any Court; however, my Executor may seek Court authority if doing so is in the best interest of my Executor, my estate or my beneficiaries.

G. Executor to Determine Dates of Distribution. My Executor may pay or deliver part or all of the property bequeathed or devised herein as soon as it is convenient to do so without jeopardizing the ability of my estate to satisfy its taxes and obligations. In any event, the date or dates of distribution shall be determined in the discretion of my Executor.

H. Executor May Continue Any Business Operations. To avoid depreciation in value of the interests or losses to my estate or my business associates, my Executor shall have authority to continue any business operations in which I am engaged at my death for the time permitted by law. My Executor may continue to act as a partner, engage in any partnership, and take all actions with regard to any partnership my Executor deems advisable.

I. Right to Borrow. I specifically authorize my Executor to borrow in the name of my estate such funds as may be necessary to pay my debts, administration expenses, and taxes of my estate; to pledge such of my property, real or personal, as may be necessary to secure such loan; and to execute notes, security instruments or documents necessary or required to secure such loans. However, my Executor shall not pledge any property specifically devised or bequeathed herein. My Executor shall not be required to pay or otherwise satisfy any such loan prior to the closing of my estate and the discharge of my Executor, but in satisfaction of any bequest herein, my Executor may distribute such property at its date of distribution value net of such loan.

J. Power to Invest. My Executor shall have the power to invest or reinvest my assets in such bank accounts, securities, or real or personal property or to retain any of my assets as my Executor determines.

K. Right to Sell or Lease Without Court Approval. My Executor shall not be required to reduce all or any of my personal or real property to cash during the administration of my estate, but in my Executor's discretion may sell or lease any of my property in such manner and on such terms and conditions as my Executor may deem advisable, without notice and without the necessity of Court approval or authorization. In connection with a sale or lease, my Executor may execute and deliver such deeds, leases or other instruments relating thereto.

L. Right to Comply With My Lifetime Agreements. My Executor shall take all actions necessary to comply with any agreements I have made during my lifetime, including the consummation of any agreements relating to the stock of corporations I own or interests in partnerships I own whenever the terms of any such agreement obligate my estate or my personal representatives to sell my interest therein. My Executor shall have the power to continue or permit the continuance of any business which I own or in which I have an interest at the time of my death.

M. Right to Employ Agents. My Executor may employ and compensate from estate assets any attorneys, accountants, custodians or other agents necessary to the administration of my estate.

N. Section 2032 A Election. My Executor shall have the discretion and authority to make the special use valuation election allowable under Section 2032A of the Internal Revenue Code, or any corresponding provision of future law relating thereto. My Executor shall not incur any liability to any party for determining whether or not to exercise the discretion to elect or not to elect special use valuation.

O. Section 6166 Election. My Executor shall have the power to elect to defer the payment of federal estate taxes as provided in Section 6166 of the Internal Revenue Code, or any corresponding provision of future law relating thereto. My Executor shall not incur any liability to any party for determining whether or not to exercise the discretion to elect or not to elect to defer the payment of taxes.

P. Ancillary Administration. I further nominate and appoint my Executor herein named to petition the proper Court and to take all necessary action to effect an ancillary administration covering any property I may own in another jurisdiction. I direct that no bond or other security shall be required of my Executor named herein, nor shall my Executor be required to file an inventory or accounting with any court in any foreign jurisdiction. If the laws of any other jurisdiction in which I may own property require that a resident of that jurisdiction serve as Executor or Administrator in any ancillary proceeding by my estate, my Executor shall have the power and right to select and designate a proper party resident of the foreign jurisdiction involved to serve with the Executor of my estate as Co-Administrators. In such event, the Co-Administrators shall not be required to post any bond or other security or file any accounting or inventory with any court in the foreign jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed and declared this to be my Last Will and Testament on this the 19th day of Sept, 1996.

ARTICLE IV

Tangible Personal Property

I devise certain items of my tangible personal property to the persons named in the last dated writing made for that purpose signed by me that is in existence at the time of my death. If no separate writing is found and properly identified by my personal representative within thirty days after the qualification of my personal representative, it shall be presumed that there is no such writing, and any subsequently discovered writing shall be ignored. I devise all of the remainder of my tangible personal property (or all of my tangible personal property in the event there is no such writing in existence at my death) to my husband George Todd Currey, Sr., if he survives me, or if not, to my surviving children, Mary Angela Currey Irvin, Camille Currey Irvin and George Todd Currey, Jr., in approximately equal shares as they may agree, or lacking agreement, as determined by my personal representative.

ARTICLE VIII

Assets Passing Outside This Will

I hereby confirm that all properties, real, personal and mixed, including bank accounts, held in my name and that of my spouse as tenants by the entirety or in my name and that of any person as joint tenants with rights of survivorship, are intended to pass by operation of law and not under this will. It also is my intent that assets with a named beneficiary pass to the named beneficiary by operation of law and be affected by this will only to the extent my estate or any trust hereunder is named as beneficiary or the asset would pass to my estate or any trust hereunder due to the provisions of any agreement controlling the disposition of the asset.

ARTICLE IX

My personal representative shall have the right to make distribution of my estate non-pro rata among the beneficiaries. If my husband, George Todd Currey, Sr., shall fail or cease to
