Subject: City of Ridgeland Household Hazardous Waste Day

Gentlemen:

Ridgeland mayor Gene McGee is requesting in the attached letter that Madison County participate in their annual Household Hazardous Waste Day in the same fashion as last year.

It is my recommendation that the board approve the requests as stated in Mayor McGee's attached letter and also to authorize me to execute the attached grant application.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this request.

RE: Mississippi State Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) Solid Waste Grant Funds

Dear Mr. Steen:

The City of Ridgeland is asking that the Madison County Board of Supervisors request that the MDEQ re-designate the 2013 and 2014 allocated funds for the county to support the City of Ridgeland in conducting a Household Hazardous Waste Day.

We request the County to use the funds to pay for the County Wide House Hold Hazardous Waste Day in Ridgeland on May 11, 2013, at Holmes Community College. We also request that the County provide two employees to help with the event and to provide advertising in the local newspaper. The City of Ridgeland will take the lead in this event and ensure its success. This event costs between $25,000.00 and $30,000.00 with MDEQ paying 75% with a local share of 25%. The 25% is paid by using in-kind services, so very little is paid out of pocket.

The County is also eligible for $75,000.00 in competitive solid waste grant funding that it has not applied for that could be used for another Household Hazardous Waste Day, salary for a compliance officer and many more of these types of uses. The MDEQ is willing to assist the county to apply for these funds upon request.

Sincerely,

Gene F. McGee, Mayor
City of Ridgeland
