Additional Instructions And Procedures for Government Tag Applicants

1. One tag application must be completed for each vehicle.
2. If sending money, do not staple or clip check to application.
3. If the government entity applying for a tag is anything other than the State itself or an established city or county, a copy of the code section, minutes or document that establishes that entity as a federal, state, county or city government agency or instrumentality must be submitted before a tag can be issued. (Initial application only)
4. The tags on all vehicles that are sold, traded or taken out of service should be returned to this office immediately. All returned tags should be accompanied with a letter of explanation that should contain the VIN number of the vehicle, the tag number assigned and the title number of the vehicle. You may not place an old tag on a new vehicle or switch tags.
5. All motor vehicles that are issued Tax Exempt Government tags must comply with Miss Code Ann. § 25-1-87, § 27-19-27 and § 27-19-59.
6. If you need to order additional applications for Tax Exempt Government Tags or have any questions regarding this form, please contact the Motor Vehicle Licensing Division at (601) 923-7141 or fax inquires to (601) 923-7133 or (601) 923-7134.
