Effective Communication:* Madison County will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in the Madison County's programs, services, and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille, and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing, or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures:* Madison County will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all Madison County programs, services, and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcomed in County offices, even where pets are generally prohibited.

Complaints that a Madison County program, service, or activity is not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to Loretta D. Phillips or Clara Griffin at Madison County.

Madison County will not place a surcharge on a particular individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy, such as retrieving items from locations that are open to the public but are not accessible to persons who use wheelchairs.
