COMMUNITY HERITAGE PRESERVATION GRANT PROGRAM—ROUND 13

TITLE AND INSURANCE CERTIFICATION

State funds cannot be invested in projects without assurance that the grantee possesses clear and unencumbered title to the property involved in the proposed project, and has the property adequately insured to protect the state's investment.

I certify that the property involved is owned and sufficiently insured by the applicant identified below, and that the building will be used for the Community Heritage Preservation Grant project described in this application and titled:

Madison County Historic Courthouse - Fence Restoration Project Title Madison County Board of Supervisors Applicant Trey Baxter, Board President Name and Title of Authorized Representative 09/03/2019 Signature Date

Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit appropriate documentation of ownership and title (copies of deeds, certificates of title, insurance policies, etc.) with this form. Please note that applications without documentation may not be considered for grant awards.
