

2013 Exemptions with Tax Assessor recommendation:

- 1) Sun Pine Corporation- property tax exemption to begin 2013 tax roll for remaining seven (7) years for the M&E. No inventory exemption as Sun Pine prior enjoyed 10 years. Nothing furnished from the City of Canton as requested.
- 2) Sun Pine Corporation-Freeport Exemption to begin for 2013 tax roll.
- 3) First Choice Medical- Freeport Exemption to begin for 2013 tax roll,
- 4) Unipres Southeast USA Inc-Exemption withdrawn..
- 5) M-Tek Inc-Exemption for tier one Nissan supplier for 10 years to begin for 2013 tax roll.
- 6) Tower Automotive Operations USA-Exemption for tier one Nissan supplier to begin for 2013 tax roll.

June 13, 2013

Madison County Chancery Clerk
Arthur Johnston
P.O. Box 404
Canton, MS 39046

Dear Arthur,

I received copies of the applications for industrial exemptions filed with the office of the Madison County Chancery Clerk for 2011 which included the comments of the Madison County Tax Assessors office. In accordance with the policy of the Madison County Board of Supervisors governing industrial exemption applications adopted May 23, 2005, the exemptions for 2012 have been presented to the MCEDA Board during the June 13, 2013 MCEDA Board meeting.

The members of the MCEDA Board made a motion to recommend the following actions for the application requests:

Sun Pine Corporation – Approved, to begin on 2013 tax roll for remaining seven (7) years for Machinery and Equipment

M-Tek - Approved

Tower Automotive – Approved

Sun Pine Corporation – Freeport Exemption – Approved

First Choice Medical – Freeport Exemption - Approved

Thank you for your consideration of the wishes of the MCEDA Board.

Sincerely,

Tim Coursey