In the opinion of Special Counsel, assuming compliance by the County with certain federal tax covenants, under existing statutes, regulations, rulings and court decisions, interest on the Note is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes. Furthermore, interest on the Note is not an item of tax preference for purposes of the federal alternative minimum tax. Special Counsel will express no other opinion regarding other federal tax consequences resulting from the ownership, receipt or accrual of interest on or disposition of the Note. In addition, Special Counsel is further of the opinion that under and pursuant to the Act, the Note and interest thereon are exempt from all income taxes imposed by the State of Mississippi.

The final approving opinion of Special Counsel relating to the validity and tax exemption of the Note, together with a non-litigation certificate of the County dated the date of delivery of the Note, and a transcript of the proceedings relating to the Note will be delivered to the successful bidder without charge.

The Note is being issued as a “qualified tax exempt obligation” for purposes of Section 265(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and supplemented from time to time.

The successful bidder will be given at least seven (7) business days advance notice of the proposed date of delivery of the Note when that date has been tentatively determined. The Note will be delivered in Canton, Mississippi or such other place as the Governing Body shall designate and payment therefor shall be made in federal or other immediately available funds.

The successful bidder shall have the right, at its option, to cancel its agreement to purchase the Note if the Note to be delivered by the County in accordance with the preceding paragraph is not tendered for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date of sale thereof. The County shall have the right, at its option, to cancel its agreement to sell the Note if within five (5) days after the tender of the Note for delivery the successful bidder shall not have accepted delivery of and paid for the Note.

- (ii) We shall provide advice concerning the structure, timing, terms, sizing and other similar matters related to any potential note or debt issuance.
- (iii) We shall make a reasonable inquiry to the relevant facts that help determine which course of action best suits your interests. A reasonable analysis will be conducted to determine that all advice and/or recommendation(s), are not based on materially inaccurate or incomplete information.

If any new or additional material conflict(s) of interest occurs after the delivery and execution of this Letter, GCI will disclose all new material conflict(s) of interest to the you.

Disclosure Concerning the Compensation

Our compensation for serving as municipal advisor will be contingent on the issuance of the Note and is based, in part, on the size of the notes. We will negotiate with you as to compensation and will be paid upon closing of the transaction(s). The Municipal Advisor will abide by its fiduciary duty to you and provide unbiased and independent advice as required by the MSRB.

Disclosure of Information Regarding Legal Events and Disciplinary History

There are no recent changes made on any Form MA or Form MA-I, which are available and can be viewed on the SEC's EDGAR system website at <http://www.sec.gov/edgar/searchedgar/companysearch.html>.

Disclosure Relating to Issuing Notes

As with any issuance of debt, your obligation to pay principal and interest when due, will be a contractual obligation that will require that these payments be made no matter what budget restraints may be encountered. Your failure to pay principal and interest when due, could cause you to be in default. A default may negatively impact your credit ratings and may effectively limit your ability to publicly offer other debts at market rate levels.

Please be aware of the following basic aspects of the Notes:

Fixed rate debt is an interest-bearing obligation that contains rates specified at closing and will not change while the note is outstanding. Maturity dates are fixed at the time of the closing and may include serial maturities (specified principal amounts are payable on the same date each year until final maturity) or a term maturity (specified principal amounts are payable on each term maturity date) or a combination of serial and term maturities. Interest on fixed rate note is typically paid semiannually at a stated fixed rate or rates for each maturity.

General obligation debt is an obligation to which your full faith and credit is pledged to pay principal and interest. This pledge is in the form of a millage, without limitation, to be collected within your jurisdiction in order to provide for the timely payment of general obligation debt. If needed, you promise to collect the taxes and repay the debt to which this obligation is pledged.

Additionally, the Note will be offered as federally tax-exempt obligations. This requires that you comply with various Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") requirements and restrictions relating to how you use and invest the proceeds of the note issue, how you use any facilities constructed with the proceeds of the note issue and other restrictions throughout the term of the Note.

It is recommended that you consult with note counsel on such tax matters related to the issuance of the Note.

Disclosure Concerning the Term of Engagement

The Term of Engagement is effective on the execution date of the document that employed GCI as your appointed municipal advisor and ends upon the closing and delivery of the Note. The Engagement may be terminated with or without cause by either party. A written notice must be delivered to the other party, specifying the effective date of the termination.

Acknowledgement

We must seek your acknowledgement that you have received this Letter. Accordingly, please acknowledge receipt of this Letter on in the space provided below. If you are not authorized to execute this Letter, please notify GCI immediately so the correct individual may be contacted. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Government Consultants, Inc.
