This Electronics Recovery and Disposal Services Agreement (“Agreement”), dated effective as of the last date of signature hereto (“Effective Date”), is entered into by and between MAGNOLIA DATA SOLUTIONS, LLC, a Mississippi limited liability company, its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the “Company”) and the undersigned customer (the “Customer”), each individually referred to as “Party” or collectively as the “Parties.”

Customer desires to engage the Company to provide certain recovery, disposal and/or recycling services to Customer. The Company and Customer desire to establish the terms and conditions pursuant to which such services will be provided.

Accordingly, the Parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, hereby covenant and agree as follows:

1. Services. The Company will provide Customer with electronic asset recovery, destruction, disposal and/or recycling services (the “Services”) as more particularly described on a statement of work substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the “Statement”) to be executed by the Parties prior to each transaction. Company will perform the Services for Customer’s functional, non-functional, decommissioned and end-of-life electronic equipment, including, but not limited to, computers, servers, monitors, televisions, routers, modems and peripheral devices (collectively, the “Equipment”) and various electronic components, sub-assemblies and other equipment parts (collectively, the “Components” and together with Equipment, the “Electronic Waste”) on an as needed basis; provided, however, that the Company reserves the right to reject any request for Services in its discretion due to: (i) failure of the Customer to comply with Company requirements, (ii) Customer having any account payable to Company aged over 30 days, (iii) Customer shipping Electronic Waste of a type or character materially different from the type normally handled by Company, or (iv) contamination of Customer’s Electronic Waste. For purposes of this Agreement, Customer’s Electronic Waste will be deemed contaminated if Company, in its discretion, determines that the Electronic Waste contains chemicals, biological agents, or other substances that are not integral to the original Electronic Waste or otherwise associated with normal office or household environments or if Environmentally Sensitive Materials (defined below) are found to be physically damaged, broken, or leaking through no fault of the Company (collectively, the “Contaminated Waste”). The terms and conditions of any Statement, purchase order, or any other document submitted by Customer which conflicts with or in any way purports to amend any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement are hereby specifically objected to by the Company and shall be of no force or effect.

2. Fees; Payment Terms. Company will pay to Customer or invoice Customer for, as applicable, any net amounts due as set forth in a Statement. Customer shall pay Company the invoiced amount within 30 days of the date listed on the invoice. A late fee in the amount of 1% per full or partial month will be applied to all balances not paid by Customer by the due date. Company shall assess an additional fee of $40, or such other amount as is permitted by law, for any check returned for nonpayment. Customer shall pay Company all amounts due, including disputed amounts, by the due date regardless of the status of any objection. Customer must provide Company written notice of any objection within sixty (60) days of the date of an invoice or Customer shall be deemed to have waived any objection..

3. Term; Termination. The term of this Agreement shall be for a period of one (1) year commencing on the Effective Date. This Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one-year periods. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for any reason or no reason upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice. Each Party agrees that all its employees or subcontractors assigned to perform under this Agreement are, for all purposes, employees and/or subcontractors of the hiring Party, and not employees or agents of the other Party.

7. Confidentiality. It may be necessary or desirable for the Parties to disclose to each other information, including, but not limited to, pricing information, cost, analyses, process methodology, internal audits, financial information, trade secrets, identity of downstream service providers, general proprietary information, and other information disclosed by either Party to the other in writing and marked “confidential” or “proprietary” or other similar legend, that the disclosing Party regards as confidential (collectively, “Confidential Information”). All suits, proceedings, and other actions relating to or arising out of this Agreement shall be brought in a federal or state court of appropriate jurisdiction that presides in Hinds County, Mississippi, and venue shall lie exclusively therein. The Parties hereto consent to personal jurisdiction and venue in any federal or state court which presides in Hinds County, Mississippi, and expressly waives the right to bring action in, or to transfer or remove any action to, any other state or federal court. d. Waivers. The Parties may waive the provisions in this Agreement only by a writing executed by the Party or Parties against whom the waiver is sought to be enforced. No failure or delay in exercising any right or remedy, or in requiring the satisfaction of any condition, under this Agreement, and no act, omission or course of dealing between the parties, operates as a waiver or estoppel of any right, remedy or condition. A waiver made in writing on one occasion is effective only in that instance and only for the purpose stated. A waiver once given is not to be construed as a waiver on any future occasion or against any other person.

e. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement remain in full force, if the essential terms and conditions of this Agreement for each Party remain valid, binding, and enforceable.

of one executed counterpart from each party to the other Party. In proving this Agreement, a Party must produce or account only for the executed counterpart of the Party to be charged.

h. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement binds and benefits the Parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, and permitted successors and assigns.

i. Assignment and Delegation. No Party may assign any of its rights under this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of the other Party who shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent, provided, however, Company may assign its rights and delegate its duties to any successor by merger, consolidation, or sale of substantially all of its assets.

j. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as may be specifically set forth herein, this Agreement does not and is not intended to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than the signatories.

k. Captions. The descriptive headings of the sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only, do not constitute a part of this Agreement, and do not affect this Agreement's construction or interpretation.

l. Announcements. Except as required by law, so long as this Agreement is in effect, any Party intending to make any disclosure concerning this Agreement, or the transactions it contemplates, shall provide the other Party a copy of the proposed disclosure and an opportunity to comment on it at least five business days before the disclosure. m. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. The enumeration of a Party's rights and remedies set forth in this Agreement is not intended to be exhaustive.
