WHEREAS, as a result of a water line break, the Madison County Sheriff's Office and 2 pods at the Madison County Detention Center are currently without water. The lack of water clearly constitutes an emergency.

THEREFORE, under the powers vested in me by the Madison County Board of Supervisors and Miss. Code Ann. §31-7-1 et seq., I, Greg Higginbotham, County Administrator, and the Madison County Board of Supervisors' officially named designee to declare emergencies, do hereby declare an emergency exists concerning the functionality of the Madison County Sheriff's Office as a result of the lack of water. This Declaration is applicable to and limited to expenditures incurred by the MCSO, MC Buildings and Grounds, and the Madison County Board of Supervisors related to the repair of the broken water line.

Greg Higginbotham, County Administrator
