Friends of Stennis,

Know someone in your state or local government agency who demonstrates exceptional leadership and managerial skill? Encourage them to take the next step by nominating them for the State Executive Development Institute (SEDI), offered by the John C. Stennis Institute of Government and Community Development.

SEDI is a weeklong, executive-style, graduate-level program designed to prepare mid- to upper-level government leaders to be more effective, strategic, and forward-thinking executives. Participants engage with state and local officials, nationally recognized leaders, and faculty from Mississippi State University on topics including leadership, management, conflict resolution, cybersecurity, and emerging issues in government.

The 2026 SEDI conference will be held May 17–22, 2026, on Mississippi State University's campus.

Nominations are open now and will close in ONE WEEK — Wednesday, March 4, 2026, at 5:00 PM. A selection committee may choose up to 25 participants and 2 alternates for the 2026 cohort.

Additionally, the SEDI may be taken for credit in the Master and/or Ph.D. of Public Policy at Mississippi State University. For more information, please contact Dr. Dallas Breen at dallas@sig.msstate.edu.
