Re: Consent
Road Registry Change
Quiet Waters Way

Please find enclosed a letter from the new property owners of the Duncan Gray Center property located on parcel 113I-32 -002/00.00. The new owners are requesting a road name change from N. Gray Center Road to Quiet Waters Way.

Our office is in favor of the road name change and feel this change would best serve both the new and previous landowners. We are seeking the Board's consent to make the change official in the Madison County Board minutes.

Dear E911 System,

We are honored to assume ownership of the recently acquired Bishop Gray Conference and Retreat Center. Our primary objective is to facilitate retreats for families affected by disabilities, diseases and disorders. We are delighted to have this facility at our disposal to provide additional services to our local community, as the need is great!

During the transfer of ownership, we have identified a potential source of confusion regarding the facility's location for emergency purposes. We respectfully request that the road leading to "The Well" Quiet Waters Retreat and Conference Center (formerly known as the Duncan Bishop Gray Conference Center) be renamed "Quiet Waters Way."

Kindly inform us if any further information or documentation is required to facilitate this change.

Sincerely,

Martie Kwasny, Executive Director
